EXPLODING OILS BURN FIREMEN

SMOKE INTERFERES WITH FIREMEN

Windows and Framework Blown Into the Street, Creating Panic.

SEVENTH AVENUE GUESTS FRIGHTENED

Shortly after 1 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in the rear of the basement of the six-story building at No. 919 Liberty avenue, occupied by the De Noon Bros. Paint & Glass Company as a store and warehouse. An alarm was turned in by J. B. Morgan, one of the watchmen of the Western Pennsylvania Fire & Patrol Company.

The fire was fought stubbornly, but was not to be overcome. There were repeated explosions from the oil and paints stored on the upper floors. In one of these explosions the following firemen were burned about the hands and face:

The Injured.

DOUGALD LEECH, lieutenant, Engine Company No. 35, cut by glass on hand and arm. Taken to Homeopathic hospital and then to home. No. 4219 Calvin street.

DANIEL J. GALLAGHER, hoseman, Engine Company No. 30. Cut about the hands with broken glass. Removed to the Homeopathic hospital, then to home, No. 23 West Carson street.

WILLIAM REESE, engine company No. 2, No. 5460 Second avenue, burned and cut about face and hands, taken to Homeopathic hospital and then home.

DANIEL DALZELL, engine company No. 2, No. 6 Mercer street, burned about face and hands. Taken to Homeopathic hospital and then home.

Shortly after the fire broke out Capt. J. A. A. Brown, building inspector, came to the building. He said: "The building is the property of the King heirs. It is of steel frame construction, with wooden floors and without fireproofing. About two years ago I discovered that the building was overloaded and made the company remove part of the contents. It has been a dangerous building. The fire is well started and I expect to see the whole building destroyed."

Immense Clouds of Smoke.

The fire was picturesque. Its peculiar feature was the great volumes of pungent smoke that rolled from the windows of every floor. It made access to the building hard at times, and the repeated explosions from the stored oil made it exceptionally dangerous. Hose were trained upon it from the rear and from the front in Liberty avenue, but despite the thousands of gallons of water from the six hose the flames would occasionally burst forth.

Dalzell and Reese were standing upon the second floor of the fire escape holding a hose when the explosion occurred. The flames enveloped them completely. They were helped down and taken to the hospital by other firemen.

At 2 o'clock the flames had eaten their way up to the third story and the efforts of the firemen were directed toward drowning them out and preventing them from reaching the three stories above.

Second Explosion and Flame.

About 2:25 the second explosion occurred. A great crash was heard and clouds of heavy smoke were blown into the street, with a shower of broken glass and woodwork from the windows.

The smoke was followed by an outburst of flame that swept half way across the street, encircling the firemen on the ladders and driving them back.

The guests of the Seventh Avenue hotel, which is almost opposite the fire, were greatly frightened by the clatter and rush with the sounding gongs from the fire engines and hose wagons. Many of them jumped into their clothes, the report having been spread that the fire was in a store on the first floor of the hotel.

The building is valued at $25,000 and the stock at $60,000. Partially insured.

Great Crowd Present.

Long before 2 o'clock a great crowd filed all the streets whence a view of the smoke-draped building could be had. Many of them came from rooms over the little stores along Smithfield street and were attired in robes de nuit, that looked odd, but they had been frightened by the clanging of many engines and the cries of the drivers, and rushed for the street without waiting to array themselves carefully.

The injured men were nearly all on the fire escape playing a hose on the building when the first explosion occurred, and were burned by the flames and cut by flying glass. A score were only slightly hurt and refused to go to the hospital or have medical attention.

The water tower proved an ignominious failure for the most part and impeded the work of the hose lines by drenching the men upon the ladders.

The inflammable oils and turpentine in the building rendered the work of the firemen particularly dangerous and trying, and the great crowd on the street hampered their movements, as the police made no apparent effort to establish any fire lines.

About 3 o'clock the fire burned through the wall of the De Noon Bros. building and set fire to the building and stock in the adjoining building, occupied by Stewart & Co., rubber goods dealers. The firemen then turned their attention to pouring water into the Stewart building and also on the front of the S. Ewart & Co. building, at No. 921 Liberty avenue.

Nyce Returns From Mexico.

PHILADELPHIA, July 28.—L. H. R. Nyce, former member of the state legislature, was brought here today from Guadalajara, Mexico, where he was arrested last May. Nyce is accused of having forged the names of Mrs. Margaret Woehken and John Virdin, former recorder of deeds, to a bogus mortgage on Mrs. Woehken's house.

JURY DECLARES MRS. MILLER HAS SANE INTERVALS

Commissioner Hughes Will Advise Appointment of Guardian.

GENERAL DESIRES TO CARE FOR WIFE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
Franklin, Pa., July 28.—The jury in the Miller inquisition has declared that Mrs. Charles Miller is insane, but has lucid intervals.

This verdict was reached this afternoon, the jury having deliberated on the matter about an hour. The next step in the proceedings will be the formal report to the court by Commissioner Hughes next Monday and Judge Criswell will probably then appoint a commission to take charge of the person and property of Mrs. Miller.

The Hon. J. H. Osmer, in addressing the jury on behalf of the relator, Gen. Miller, this afternoon indicated that in case a verdict of insanity were rendered he should like the appointment of Gen. Miller to the committeeship, adding that if such action were taken there might be a renewal of the relations heretofore existing between the husband and wife.

It was understood on Thursday last that there would be no more testimony, hence there was some surprise created by the calling of Dr. Stephen Bredin, one of Mrs. Miller's witnesses last week, for additional cross-examination. In his testimony last week the doctor stated that he examined the Hon. Joseph Sibley for an insurance company several years ago and on that occasion Mr. Sibley stated that there was no insanity in the Sibley family.

This morning counsel for Gen. Miller presented the insurance policy on which the examination by Dr. Bredin was made, and there was no question on it concerning insanity. After considerable wrangling between counsel and Dr. Bredin, during which the commissioner was compelled to call for order, the doctor identified the certificate of examination as his.

With the calling of Parker L. Walter of Pittsburgh to identify the policy the testimony closed and the arguments to the jury began. The Hon. J. D. Hancock made an impassioned plea on behalf of Mrs. Miller. He displayed no vindictiveness toward any of the witnesses, but spoke disparagingly of the testimony of the foreign physicians. He concluded by saying that if the jury should render a verdict in favor of Mrs. Miller he had no doubt that his client would agree to any reasonable proposition for a separation, provided she should have access to her children.

The address of the Hon. J. H. Osmer was one of the most eloquent pleas ever heard in this county. Mr. Osmer put most stress upon the testimony of the experts. The only person he attacked bitterly was Dr. Bredin, whose testimony and conduct on the stand, Mr. Osmer said, was unparalleled.

WOMAN STOPS CAREER OF MAN SEEKING BLOOD

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
CHARLEROI, PA., July 28.—Jack Basoleni of Monessen came to Charleroi yesterday to kill. He brought a 32-caliber revolver and a knife as assistants. But a shotgun in the hands of Mrs. Mary Basoleni, his cousin's wife, nearly ended his career.

There have been frequent quarrels between the cousins and Jack decided to end the trouble in his own way. When he arrived at the Basoleni residence he inquired for his cousin. Being told he was not at home he pulled his revolver and snapped it twice at the woman, but both cartridges missed fire.

Mrs. Basoleni seized a double-barrel shotgun, the shells of which were loaded with one-ounce ball. The first shot missed the would-be murderer, but the second went through his left shoulder. She then clubbed the gun and knocked him down.

Chief of Police Snow placed the wounded man in the lock-up after having his wound dressed. At the hearing this morning he was sent to jail at Washington.

ADMIRAL DEWEY MEETS INFLUENTIAL FRIEND

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
STROUDSBURG, PA., July 28.—A pleasing incident occurred at Mount Pocono today when Admiral Dewey, who is stopping at the Montenesca with Mrs. Dewey, met two small boys, Master William Gillingham and the young son of Congressman Quigley of New York.

The boys asked Col. Iveson if they could take the admiral by the hand. Consent was given and Masters Gillingham and Quigley were warmly received by Dewey, who was particularly delighted to learn that young Gillingham was the little chap who wrote to President McKinley after Dewey's victory in Manila bay:

"Please make Mr. Dewey an admiral."

The admiral and Mrs. Dewey spent a quiet Sunday, going to the Trinity church for morning services.

STONE TOO EXPENSIVE.

Hendler Company Gives Up Contract for Luzerne Court House and Pittsburghers Are Next.

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—The Hendler Construction Company of this city will not build Luzerne county's new court house. The company bid $507,000, and was awarded the contract, being the lowest bidder. Mr. Hendler today received word from the quarrymen of Ohio that the stone to be used in the construction of the building would cost much more than the local company figured on.

The Hendler company came to the conclusion that they would be the losers if they went on with the work, and they notified the county commissioners that they would not sign a contract. William Miller & Son of Pittsburgh, also bid, their figure approximating $1,000,000. It is probable that the Pittsburgh people will be awarded the contract.

Won't Insure Feudists' Homes.

JACKSON, KY., July 28.—On account of an attempt to burn the general store of C. X. Bowling, believed to have grown out of the Hargis-Cockrell feud, the insurance companies will on Saturday cancel all policies held in that place.

MINERS BLAMED FOR EXPLOSION AT JOHNSTOWN

Two Men Who Used Open Lamps Caused the Death of 112.

CAMBRIA COMPANY IS NOT CENSURED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
Johnstown, Pa., July 28.—The men who carried the open lamps into No. 2 room of the sixth right heading of the Klondike are held responsible by the coroner's jury for the explosion of gas that cost 112 lives.

After deliberating little more than half an hour this afternoon the jury arrived at a verdict to that effect. It includes each of the men who died from the afterdamp generated by the explosion of the gas, and a separate sheet will be filed out for each man who died thus. The verdict says:

"We, the jury, after hearing the evidence, find that said explosion was caused by a person or persons, to the jury unknown, taking into room No. 2 of the sixth right heading, where gas was known to exist, open lamps, and using the same in direct violation of the mining rules and regulations of the Cambria Steel Company.

The jury made no effort to have the two open lamps found in the room named identified, recognizing that it would be a hopeless task. So the blame for the explosion rests upon four men, although they are not named by the jury. All are dead. They were the four who worked the No. 2 room and one of the "long wall" rooms between them, so that it is not known which two were in the former on the morning of the explosion.

The Cambria Steel Company is not censured by the jury, all the jurymen believing the blame rests on the miners who violated the company's mining rules, which forbade the use of open lamps in gaseous districts.

When the jury met this afternoon at the coroner's office they agreed that each man should write out his idea of what the verdict should be, instead of discussing it, so that one should not be influenced by the other. When their opinions were compared they were found to be identical.

DISCUSSING WAGE SCALE

COLUMBUS, O., July 28.—(Special.)—Committees representing the Window Glass Workers of America and the Independent Glass Company of America are holding a joint conference in this city on the wage scale. The men ask an advance of 5 per cent on double strength glass and 10 per cent on single strength glass, as the selling price of the product has increased. The Independent Glass Company controls 28 plants and is represented by Secretary H. P. Van Cleave of Pittsburgh, and Treasurer Joel G. Stayer of Marion, Ind.

The workers are represented by John L. Denny, Pittsburgh, president; John Phillips, Jr., Pittsburgh, secretary, and others. It is believed an agreement will be reached tomorrow.

DRAGGED BY TRAIN.

Mrs. Zillah Vanarsdale Killed and Railroad Company Censured.

WARREN, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. Zillah Vanarsdale stepped in front of an approaching passenger train on the Lake Shore road this evening and was killed. Her clothing was caught on the guard and she was carried 40 feet before the body dropped to the rails and forward trucks of the engine passed over the right leg.

She was carried to the baggage room at the station, where she died soon after. The coroner's jury censured the railroad company for not having gates at the crossing.

CHARLES M. SCHWAB ALMOST RESTORED TO USUAL HEALTH

HIS PLACE HARD TO FILL

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]
Atlantic City, N. J., July 28.—Charles M. Schwab is practically restored to his usual health. That is the substance of the information obtained tonight in regard to his condition. At his cottage it was said he enjoyed a refreshing sleep last night, ate three substantial meals today and took a short spin in his automobile.

Instead of going to Pittsburgh today, Mrs. C. M. Schwab accompanied by Miss Gertrude Schwab, went to New York. It is said she will return to Atlantic City Wednesday evening and on Thursday will leave for her summer home.

It was announced this morning that Mr. Schwab would go to New York tomorrow evening, but tonight it is said he will defer his trip until Wednesday or Thursday, and will stop in Philadelphia to fill a business engagament there.

Dr. Goulding, who is a guest at the cottage, says Mr. Schwab has fully recovered from his recent indisposition and that there is no cause for the slightest uneasiness. When questioned personally today Mr. Schwab declared that he was feeling all right.

VIENNA, July 28.—The Allgemeine Zeitung in an editorial article on the indisposition of Charles M. Schwab decribes him as possibly the most perfect type of modern American, and expresses admiration of the ceaseless activity permeating such a life which, it says, offers one explanation of America's enormous success, but sees in Mr. Schwab's indisgostion grave perils.

The giant trusts, says the paper, which form the basis of America's economic system, rest upon the capacity to accomplish and the working vigor of a single individual. If one of these great leaders who today govern industrial America were removed, says the Allgemeine Zeitung, this serious question would force itself not only upon America, but upon Europe.

"Will it be possible to create a successor or to find one head with the talents of the wide experience combined with nerve of steel necessary to administer the affairs of his important office without endangering economic peace?"

HENDERSON EXPLAINS.

Has Always Acted As Friend of Millers and Tried To Have Pet Measure Passed.

DUBUQUE, IA., July 28.—Speaker Henderson, in an interview today on the reports about the National Millers' Federation's grievance against him on the ground that he prevented the passage of the London dock bill, said:

"I had not heard anything of it until last Saturday, when I first saw an article on the subject. I was greatly surprised to see anything of the kind from the millers, whose friend I have been all the time, and tried to get their bill through. I gave them the floor once and let it come up the second time, but members in charge of the measure wanted it passed over, as they hoped for a compromise between friends and enemies of the bill. Later I proposed again to have the bill called up, but Mr. Tawney, author of the bill, was absent that day and other friends of the measure were unwilling to have it come up in his absence, so that is three times the bill practically had its day in court, and, for the reasons named, failed to be disposed of, but in no instance was it any fault of mine.

"The bill is a just one, and ought to pass, and I have no doubt it will pass at the short session of congress. I fear there has been some very thoughtless misrepresentation about this matter, for it is not usual for men to attack their loyal friends."

Litt Buys McVicker Theater.

CHICAGO, July 28.—By a transaction closed today Jacob Litt, who operates theaters in New York, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Chicago, becomes the owner of McVicker's theater, which he has held under lease from the McVicker Theater Company. The ground lease has 80 years to run.

POLICE ADMIT THAT FEIGHTLEY IS INNOCENT

A RIVERMAN IS NOW SUSPECTED OF CRIME

After arresting Bert Feightley just as he was finishing his day's work and throwing him in a cell for a heinous crime, the detectives have at last acknowledged that the wrong man was arrested for the murder of Achsah King. The unfortunate man will be released after suffering the ignominious disgrace of arrest and suspicion, and the loss of time from his work.

Yesterday the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Icemen's Benevolent society took up Feightley's case. Their attorney, James Francis Burke, went before Judge S. A. McClung and secured a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of his client. The writ is directed against Superintendent of Police John McAleese and Sergeant Adolph Metz, and is returnable on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Attorney Burke said he was satisfied that his client was being held on insufficient evidence and the detectives at Central station admit that he did not kill the woman.

Before securing the writ Attorney Burke went to Supt. McAleese and told him that he was holding the wrong man for the murder of Achsah King. The police official said that he had sufficient grounds for holding Feightley, and he would do so until directed to act otherwise by the court.

Excuse Is Flimsy.

The police are holding Feightley on the statements of several women. One woman claims to have seen Feightley enter the saloon on the day of the murder. She was in the third story of a house across the street. She does not know Feightley, and from what could be learned yesterday was not well acquainted with the King woman. A perfect alibi has been established by The Gazette and Attorney Burke, and the police will have to produce the most convincing evidence to offset it.

The King woman had a great penchant for icemen. She had many acquaintances among them. Indeed, if the police were to arrest all the icemen who knew her the 10 Pittsburgh police stations would be filled with icemen. The police say their object in holding Feightley is to learn from him what men were really on intimate terms with her.

Feightley may know some persons who had this close acquaintance with the woman, but he has not said so.

The police are now looking for several other men whom they suspect for the murder.

Riverman Suspected.

There is a riverman mentioned in the case. He had been working on the steamer Gertrude until the day after the murder. This steamer arrived in Pittsburgh on Tuesday evening. Wednesday afternoon, as near as can be learned, the roustabout told several of the crew that he was going to have a fight with a woman if she had been drinking while he was away.

It was learned yesterday that he left the boat on that day and there was some money coming to him. He has not been seen since. Mrs. Acheson said the man who was in her house had a new pair of shoes. It is not known whether the detectives are working on this clue or not.

In the interview with his attorney yesterday Feightley protested his innocence. He said that he knew Achsah King, but nothing in common existed between them. They were not lovers or, in fact, friends, but merely acquainted with on another since childhood. Feightley knew the hardened character she was, as many others did.

NEW OPERATION UPON THE KING MAY BE NEEDED

If Possible It Will Be Put Off Till After the Coronation.

OMINOUS RUMORS DISTURB LONDONERS

[SPECIAL CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]
(Copyright, 1902, by the New York Herald Co.)
London, July 28.—London was startled this afternoon by several rumors concerning the king's condition. Where these reports originated cannot be traced, but they spread rapidly.

The first was to the effect that the king was about to undergo a second operation; the second, that the coronation had been indefinitely postponed, and the third, which became current toward evening, but which received no credence, was that the king had suffered a relapse and was sinking rapidly.

I learned on excellent authority tonight that there was no truth in the second and third rumors. I was told that instead of a relapse having occurred the king had passed a very encouraging day and that his convalescence continued without interruption. I was also given to understand that up to the present there had been no thought of changing the date of the coronation, nor has there been any reason for any discussion on this point.

King Edward's improvement has kept pace with, if not exceeded, the rate which his physicians anticipated, and unless some turn unforseen occurs the king will be crowned August 9.

King Impatient for Ceremony.

I am told, however, that the fixing of this early date was not done at the initiative of the physicians, but rather against their will. The king displayed such great impatience and was so insistent that the date selected be as early as possible that the physicians yielded. They feared there would be greater danger to their royal patient by reason of worriment if they persisted in advising him against an early day being fixed than through the fatigue the ceremony would entail.

But notwithstanding the invariably favorable bulletins issued from the royal yacht, people are still asking: "Will the king be fit for the ceremony?" and I hear a great deal that in a way goes toward confirming the first rumor which was afloat today. While it cannot be said as a positive fact that there is good reason for believing that when the coronation is over a second operation will be performed upon the king, it is believed that in such an event the appendix itself will be removed.

This supposition is strengthened by the arrangements which are being made to carry the king into Westminster abbey. A sort of sedan chair has been constructed. Whether it will be used or not depends upon the king's condition. At all events, everything will be prepared and in readiness should the king be unable to walk.

Noblemen to Carry the Chair.

Further weight is given to this opinion by the fact that all suggestions that the journey from the door of the abbey to the coronation chair be shortened are met with a statement that it will not be necessary. I also heard tonight that if the sedan chair be used it will not be carried into the abbey by servants or soldiers, but by four noblemen, who, it may be imagined, will be selected as much for their strength as for their rank.

It has been a subject of much comment that no police regulations have yet been issued for August 9. This, taken in connection with the rumors about the king's health, has kept the public from buying seats in any quantities along the route of the procession.

There are to be rehearsals in Westminster abbey on the Thursday and Friday preceding the day of the ceremony, but the putting off of this very important preliminary work until just before the day fixed has also helped to increase the doubt that is extremely prevalent in the public mind. Even personal friends of the king have told me that they do not see how he can be ready for the ordeal of the 9th, even though the ceremony is curtailed to an hour or an hour and a quarter.

CAPE BOERS GO WILD OVER THEIR GENERALS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]
CAPE TOWN, July 28.—Gen. DeWet proved that he could evade his friends as successfully as he did enemies by arriving here unexpectedly this afternoon and upsetting all the elaborate plans prepared for his reception. He strolled through the streets, casually nodding to acquaintances and occasionally to a former opponent.

Arrangements were quickly made by Afrikanders to entertain the famous leader tonight at a semi-private dinner, tickets to which already stand at five guineas ($26.25) premium.

A striking contrast to DeWet's return was the scene Sunday when Gens. Botha and Delarey attended church. The building was packed mainly with women and the service was hardly concluded when Cape Town admirers stormed the pew in which the generals sat. With difficulty they retreated to the vestry. The congregation followed, and Gens. Botha and Delarey were lifted to the vestry table.

The pastor of the church warmly remonstrated, whereupon a number of those present seized the generals and carried them to carriages, where another demonstration ensued.

PURSUED GIVE BATTLE.

Three Were Arrested at New Castle Charged With Robbery at Pulaski.

NEW CASTLE, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—Frank Scott, colored, Frank Taylor and an unknown man were captured here this afternoon after a desperate fight with Detective Steve Marshall and Constable John Kennedy. The men are accused of robbing the stores of Norman M. Porter and James Adams of Pulaski, which were broken into early this morning.

A quantity of revolvers, ammunition and cutlery was stolen. The entire police force was sent out on their trail and Marshall and Kennedy ran across them at New Castle Junction. Scott pulled a gun and was about to fire when the officer knocked the weapon from Scott's hand.

FOUR KILLED IN A TERRIFIC STORM BURST

Scores of Others Were Shocked by Numerous Strokes of Lightning.

TWO ITALIANS KILLED NEAR UNITY

TELEPHONES AND CAR LINES KNOCKED OUT

The most terrific electrical storm of years swept over Pittsburgh and the surrounding country yesterday afternoon. Three persons were killed by the lightning, one was stunned and fell to death, and scores were shocked at different points in the county. The electric display was terrifying in the extreme and the lightning struck at dozens of places in widely scattered localities.

The thunderstorm was accompanied by a heavy rainfall that flooded fields, ruined crops and turned usually peaceful brooks into raging torrents, for a few moments. The wires of the different traction lines, telephone, electric light and telegraph companies were seriously affected and traffic and communication was impeded.

In addition to the four deaths, given below, scores of people were seriously affected by the shock attendant on thunderbolts that struck in their immediate vicinity.

The Dead.

JOYLE DE CHAMBLIS, Shady avenue, Allegheny, 20 years old, painter; struck by lightning while on roof of American Steel & Wire Co. structure, Preble avenue, Allegheny, and fell to ground, breaking his neck.

Woman Was Killed.

Mrs. Kate Walsh, the wife of Policeman Daniel Walsh, died yesterday from the mental shock caused by lightning that struck near her house. The Walshes live at No. 105 Eureka street. During the storm Mrs. Walsh went to a shed in the back yard. Just as she came out lightning flashed through the sky, the spark being apparently close by. Neighbors saw Mrs. Walsh fall and ran to her aid, and Dr. J. C. Black was called, but she was dead. There were several bruises on her body, and it was found that the sudden shock had killed her.

The storm proved fatal near Unity. Two Italians were killed and several were injured by lightning, about two miles beyond this place. They were seeking shelter from the rain under a tree which was struck by lightning. Two were instantly shocked to death and three others injured by this and the tree falling on them. A dozen other Italians, standing under the tree, were thrown to the ground by the shock.

Two Struck by Lightning.

Francis Imperatora, laborer, Bloomfield, married, 38 years old, and Costello Matteo of Washington street, 20 years old, and single.

The accident was reported to the coroner by J. F. Hunter, fireman in the employ of Booth & Flinn, which firm is laying a pipe line in Unity for the Philadelphia Company. He said there were 30 Italians at work and they were living in a camp near that place.

When the storm struck the camp, the men stopped work and ran for shelter. Some of them sought cover under a clump of trees. Ten minutes later one of the trees was struck by lightning. A score of men were thrown to the ground. Three of them were pinned to the ground by the falling branches. In the confusion no help was afforded these men, and they lay there for 10 minutes almost before the seriousness of the accident dawned on the others.

When the branches were removed from the men two were found dead. It was seen they had been struck by the lightning, as they were slightly burned. The dead men were taken to their shanties and the injured men moved to their quarters. Physicians at Unity were sent for. Three of the men were unconscious when the doctors arrived and may die.

Painter Stunned Into Fall.

Joyle de Chambliss, 20 years old, a painter, of Shady avenue, Allegheny, fell from the roof of the stock house of the Eliza furnace at the American Steel and Wire Company, in Preble avenue, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon and died of a broken neck. He was painting when the storm came up and shocked by lightning fell from the roof to the ground, 50 feet below. He died instantly.

The electric light convertor on the house of L. Kaufmann, No. 503 Cato street, was struck and the box was burned out. No other damage was done, although an alarm of fire was sent in.

When the storm was over a flock of a hundred sparrows, who, with their ancestors had for years been prevented from entering the steeple of the Hazelwood Presbyterian church in Hazelwood, poured into the steeple through a hole made by the lightning and chirped merrily. The church stands at Lytle and Lowry streets. The steeple was struck by a bolt of lightning that tore out the iron sparrow guard on the west face. The grating was torn to pieces, the stonework was damaged, and a piece of studding was thrown to the floor of the belfry.

Church Was Struck.

The thunder that followed the stroke made a great noise, and the residents of the neighborhood at first thought the steeple was destroyed. The interior of the church was not damaged. The damage was $300.

A venerable apple tree in the lawn surrounding the Lloyd homestead at Fifth and Bellefield avenues was struck. The bolt split the tree down the middle, knocked off several big limbs, and left its mark in a big spiral, whence the bark of the tree was stripped.

Michael Campani received such a sevous shock from a stroke of lightning that he had to abandon his work and go home. Campani and three companions were on the big steam shovel that Booth & Flinn are using at the grading work at Homewood and Forbes avenues. The lightning struck the ground and ran along the iron parts of the steam shovel. The four men were prostrated, but all but Campani were able to continue at work after the storm had passed over.

Severe in the Valley.

One of the most violent electric and rain storms ever experienced broke over the Monongahela and Turtle creek valleys yesterday afternoon. About 2 o'clock there was a whirlwind of dust, and before this had subsided the rain fell in torrents. The electric shocks succeeded themselves so rapidly that they sounded like salvos of artillery. Electric wires took up the electricity and hundreds of telephones were burned out.

Lightning entered the Pittsburgh & Allegheny telephone exchange, Braddock, and set the switchboard on fire. The fire department was called, and the engines hurrying up Braddock avenue in the blinding storm added to the confusion and excitement. Fortunately the fire was soon extinguished without the assistance of the firemen. Several hundred phones were rendered useless.

Library, Center and Corey avenue, Braddock, were rivers. Their accumulated waters were all poured down into Braddock avenue, with the large amount of debris carried with it, and the storekeepers were obliged to erect barricades to keep the waters from flooding their stores. Many of the cellars were filled, as the trash floating on the top of the wave dammed up occasionally and the penned-up water had to go somewhere.

Laundry Was Scattered.

The stable of W. A. Rodgers in Camp avenue was struck by lightning. One of the horses was killed. Two others broke loose and the last seen of them they were flying up street. A pair of horses attached to a West Braddock laundry wagon took fright at the storm. Some pieces of a wagon have been picked up and here and there, through several boroughs, people have found articles of wearing apparel. Nothing has been seen of the horses.

John Vincent, 15 years of age, of Fourth avenue, narrowly escaped with his life in an accident. He was on his pony in Braddock avenue when the dust began to blow and his pony took fright. Vincent lost his seat and was thrown from the animal's back. One foot caught in the stirrup and he was dragged some distance before the animal was captured.

The greatest individual loss reported by the lightning was the barn of H. M. Brown, East McKeesport. This was erected a year ago and was a very large structure. Together with its contents it was valued at $5,000. There were three men in the barn when it was struck, but while they were stunned, they were able to save the horses. The farm house of John Montgomery on the Greensburg pike, North Versailles township, was struck by lightning. The house was badly shattered on one side. Mrs. Montgomery was shocked and did not entirely recover for several hours.

Many Were Shocked.

There was never a more frightful thunderstorm in East Pittsburgh. Thunderclap followed thunderclap in such quick succession that it was almost impossible to distinguish between them. The rain fell in torrents. Braddock Avenue was a sea. The whole side of the hill was a huge waterfall and all of this water came down into Braddock avenue. On one side the row of stores had their cellars flooded and on the other side the cellar of the Pittsburgh Meter Company was filled. The loss here is heavy, as the cellar was full of finished stock.

Back of the new Casino there was a slip on the Bessemer railroad that put the road out of business for several hours. There are several bad spots on the side of the hill and it seems almost impossible to prevent them from slipping, without filling them full of piles. At old Brinton station there was a washout of a siding and two cars standing upon it were tipped over.

The rig of the gas well being drilled on the lot for the Westinghouse Company at East Pittsburgh, was struck by lightning. Albert Timmins was the only man shocked so that he required medical attention. He recovered sufficiently to go home.

Whole Family Stunned.

James Richards' house in Howard street was struck by lightning and one side of it was shattered. Mrs. Richards and the three children were badly shocked and when found by the neighbors were in a state of panic.

E. D. Stambaugh's house in Bessemer avenue was also struck, as was the house of James Burch in the Oak hill portion of East Pittsburgh. Yee Lee's washing shop in Cable avenue was struck during the height of the storm, and the celestial was knocked out of the door into the street. The rain revived him, but he was afraid to go inside for some hours.

The storm at Homestead was most severe. The whole of the atmosphere appeared to be charged with electricity, and the citizens were badly frightened. The rainfall that followed was tremendous for such a short time and converted the streets on the hills into raging torrents. The sewer system proved inadequate to carry off the water, and it flowed into all of the cellars on the business districts of Eighth avenue, Ann street and Sixth avenue.

At Munhall the damage was worst up the hollow. The little creek was swollen until it went over the banks and moved several houses from their foundations.

STREET CARS TIED UP BY THE STORM

Traffic in Monongahela Valley Seriously Impeded—City Suffered Also.

There was no street car service yesterday for several hours in the boroughs. Cars were helpless all over the lines. Fully 25 were "killed" between Pittsburgh and Braddock, being struck by lightning and the fuses burned out. In low places some cars ran into water too deep for them and the motors burned out. In other low places there were washes, and the tracks were so covered that the cars could not move. Then there was nothing to do but wait for them to be cleared.

The troubles of the boroughs began in the city. For an hour not a car moved to Homestead or Braddock, to say nothing of points beyond. On the McKeesport division it was not until 5 o'clock that cars began to move, and there were 10 of them in a bunch. On the Homeville division there was not a car moved for three hours on account of high water.

The worst slip was at Six Mile Ferry. Near the Methodist Episcopal church of Hays a new street is being cut up the hill. The ground there has been sliding for several days, and yesterday's storm brought the whole thing down on the tracks to a depth of about 10 feet. At one place the ties were forced from under the rails. The loss at this point is heavy. At several places on the lines to Kennywood and Calhoun there were bad slips.

Streets run, at Six Mile Ferry, quickly became a torrent. A Pennsylvania railroad bridge was lifted from its foundations and carried half a mile. An engine and train on the side track were unable to get back to the main line.

The storm caused heavy damage to the Second avenue line of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, and traffic was blocked for about two hours while the line was being repaired.

The lines of the Central District & Printing Telegraph Company, the Bell Company and the Pittsburgh & Allegheny Telephone Company were affected in places by the storm and a considerable number of telephones in the East End were put out of commission by fuses burning out.

The Western Union Telegraph Company says that no harm was done their lines, while the Postal Telegraph lines were affected both east and west. By evening all the Postal lines had been repaired and were working again.

PENNSYLVANIA PLANNING MORE GREAT CHANGES

Dangerous Grade Crossings in Wilkinsburg to Be Abolished.

COST NEARLY A MILLION

Borough Will Be Asked to Bear Part of Necessary Expense of Changing Grade—Surveyors at Work on the Plans.

The deadly grade crossings in Wilkinsburg are to be abolished. Several corps of Pennsylvania railroad engineers are making surveys preliminary to their removal, either by the elevation or sinking of the railroad tracks through that borough. The cost, which will reach, including other improvements contemplated at that point, close upon $1,000,000, will be largely borne by the railroad, but the borough will be asked to co-operate in the removal of the grade crossings and to bear part of the necessary expense.

The three principal streets involved in the proposed improvements are Wood, Rebecca and South avenue. These crossings have been the scenes of many fatal accidents, and the number of victims, maimed and injured there, is surprising. As a consequence the people of Wilkinsburg long have clamored for their removal, but in the press of other work the railroad company had not the time to undertake the task.

Other Improvements.

Along with the changing of the track grade, the establishment of a waiting-room on the south side of the tracks will be taken up. It is the general custom now to have waiting-rooms on both sides of the tracks, as, with the four-track system, the two passenger tracks are on the extreme outside. The fact that the waiting-rooms and the necessary tunnels under the tracks for the use of passengers in crossing were not built has deterred the company from putting into complete service the scheme of having the two outside tracks used exclusively for passenger traffic, but that plan is now being rapidly pushed and in a short time will be general between Altoona and Pittsburgh.

The changing of passenger traffic from outside to inside tracks has been productive of several accidents and compels an extra amount of carefulness on the part of engineers and switchmen. As a result of the fast schedules of several through trains the officials have determined that passenger trains shall run continuously on the same track from one end of the division to the other.

Surveys in Progress.

The surveys now in progress will determine the grades bearing upon the plan. The proposition to come from the railroad company, when all is ready, will be either to lower or to elevate the tracks the required distance, while the borough will be asked also to share in the cost. In case the railroad tracks may best be elevated and cross the streets on spans, the borough will be asked to lower the streets, and if the tracks are to be lowered the streets will be raised and bridges constructed across them.

The improvement will cost a great deal in any case. The tracks are on a level at Wilkinsburg, and to change their grade at this point will involve a change of from half a mile to a mile on each side of the borough. On the other hand, it is realized that these crossings are dangerous despite all the safety arrangements that can be made.

A General Policy.

With the coming of fast trains all over the system it has been the policy of the company to remove grade crossings at every point, as a matter of protection both to the people and the street cars using these crossings and to the railroad company against damages from accidents. The grade crossings in Pittsburgh have already been removed and work in Allegheny is in progress now. Similar work is either completed, in progress, or planned at every town along the line where it is necessary to have trains run fast without regard to the safety of crossers.

No exact estimate of the expense can be made until the report of the engineers is completed. This will be several weeks yet.

The detailed plans of the company will be announced when the whole subject has been thoroughly studied by the engineers at Philadelphia, who have charge of this work. It is expected that it will be put before the borough in the form of an ordinance for the borough council to take action upon, and it should be brought about by September 1.

The abolition of grade crossings in Wilkinsburg will carry similar relief to the crossings in Brushton and Homewood.

SCHUYLKILL EXCITED.

The Delay in Primary Returns Ascribed to Fraud—Brumm May Begin More Lawsuits.

POTTSVILLE, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—There is great excitement here over the result of the Republican primaries. The composition of nearly half the ticket in Schuylkill county is not yet known. Many districts have not yet been heard from, and it is claimed that the returns are being held back for fraudulent purposes.

Ex-Congressman Brum says he may bring a number of additional law suits. John W. Woodward, one of the nominees for the legislature, was one of the Elkin delegates to the Republican state convention who was deprived of his seat. Charles A. Baydor and Wesley Crone, the other legislative nominees in this district, are also warm friends of Elkin and say they will make it interesting for Senator Penrose.

MORRO SULTAN FOOLED.

Thought He Found American Camp Napping, But Soon Found Out His Bad Mistake.

MANILA, July 28.—A party of engineers commanded by Lieut. Brown, encamped at Matalang river, was attacked by Moros at midnight on Friday.

The attack was repulsed without loss to the Americans. Three Moros were killed. Friendly natives report that the sultan of Nauli personally led the attack, thinking the American camp was without sentries.

Gave Her Life for Her Child.

Mrs. Elizabeth Skirkowsky of No. 2414 Forbes street died at the Mercy hospital last evening shortly after 5 o'clock of the injuries she received on Saturday night while attempting to save the life of her son, who was killed by a street car just in the rear of St. Agnes' church. She was 30 years old. The hospital physicians say she died of a fractured hip and a number of scalp wounds.

MINE INSPECTORS GATHER IN CITY

Open Lamps Used Against the Law Were Immediate Cause of Disaster—Gas Could Be Brought Down by Blasting.

J. T. Evans, state mine inspector of the district, including the ill-fated Rolling Mill mine at Johnstown, said last night at the Monongahela house that two blasts had been set off in the dangerous portion of the mine a short time prior to the explosion. This, he said, was shown in the evidence given to the coroner of Cambria county.

Evans is here with the other 11 of the mine inspectors of the state of Pennsylvania, and none of them will say what they are here for. Their statements indicate that they do not know. They say that such gatherings, at the instance of James E. Roderick, chief of the bureau of mines, are held now and then for the purpose of "talking over general conditions."

Mr. Evans was asked last night as to the exact nature of the explosion in the Cambria mine. He said:

"It was caused by an open lamp being taken into a gaseous mine."

"Does not the law prescribe that open lamps must not be used in gaseous mines?" was asked.

"Yes; but there is no preventing a miner doing as he pleases."

"What about the report that blasts were made overhead, which created a gaseous condition?"

"Oh, I don't know. The matter is in the hands of the court. The testimony should show what the exact and the circumstances of the explosion were."

The 12 mine inspectors of the state of Pennsylvania opened a conference at the Monongahela house yesterday. The meeting will continue today. Eight of the 12 questioned last night could not tell what the meeting was called for. They made the unconventional reply that it was one of the customary meetings held at the instance of Roderick, chief of the bureau of mines of the state. Had it anything to do with the Johnstown disaster? They did not know, but they declared that they had no intimation that it had.

All of the mine inspectors are present for the conference, presided over by James E. Roderick, chief of the bureau of mines of the state of Pennsylvania. These in the party are: Joseph Williams, Altoona; J. T. Evans, Johnstown; C. E. Ross, Greensville; I. G. Roby, Uniontown; T. K. Adams, Mercer; Rodger Hampson, Punxsutawney; Elias Phillips, DuBois; Joseph Knapper, Phillipsburg; Henry Loutlit, Monongahela City; Israel Morris, Carnegie, acting for James Blick, who is ill; W. J. Mollison, Scottdale, and Bernard Callaghan, Connellsville.

MISS STONE'S CAPTOR MAY BE BETRAYED

Trouble Between Factions in Macedonian Committee May Result in Exposure.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

SOFIA, BULGARIA, July 28.—The Macedonian committee has convened a congress for August 2 to elect a new president. The notorious ex-president of the committee, M. Sarrafoff, has returned here after an absence of one year, as a candidate for the presidency.

If the government permits the congress to meet, the session promises to be an exciting one, as Gen. Zontscheff, the actual leader of the committee, threatens to make revelations with regard to the alleged complicity of M. Sarafoff in the kidnaping last year of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, and other compromising affairs.

It is reported that Turkey has demanded the arrest of M. Saravoff.

PRESIDENT CHANGES BOATS.

The Little Sylph to Take the Place of the Mayflower at Oyster Bay.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 28.—President Roosevelt, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt, his daughter, Miss Alice, and members of the Sagamore Hill house party took luncheon this afternoon on board the Mayflower. In a way it was a farewell luncheon, as the Mayflower has been ordered to Gardeners Bay, near Shelter island, for target practice. She will go thence to New London, Conn., to join the North Atlantic squadron for the summer maneuvers off that port.

The Mayflower will be replaced here by the Sylph, which was used often by President McKinley for short trips on the Potomac river. She is not so large and not so elaborately fitted as the Mayflower.

Vanderbilt Buys "The Vampire."

Alderman D. F. McGarey yesterday sent Michael Bypeck of the rear of No. 33 South Sixteenth street to jail on a charge of surety of the peace, made by his wife. The latter says that her husband purchased a revolver and waited for her to return home to shoot her.

GOVERNOR SENDS FREER TO ELKINS

ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS RACE WAR THERE IS AT AN END.

Denies That Third Negro Has Been Killed and Says Reports Have Been Exaggerated—Will Bring Lynchers to Justice.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ELKINS, W. VA., July 28.—Attorney General Romeo H. Freer arrived here at noon today and spent the afternoon and tonight in consultation with the county officials and others relative to the recent mob violence at Womelsdorf and succeeding demonstrations at Harding, in which an innocent negro was shot.

Vigorous steps to bring the lynchers to justice will be made at once and will be prosecuted with all the energy the state administration can command. Details of the methods of procedure will not be known until Attorney General Freer meets in consultation with Gov. White at Mountain Lake park tomorrow, to which point he starts in the morning.

"The situation in Randolph county, owing to the recent murder of the police officer at Womelsdorf and the subsequent killing of two men supposed to have been implicated in the crime is bad enough, but has been much exaggerated and highly colored in false accounts. Only three men have been killed—including the police officer—and one slightly wounded at Harding by an over-zealous officer in nowise connected with the mob. At present everything is quiet in the county and no further violence is apprehended. There is at present no race war or reign of terror, as some stories make out. The prompt and vigorous action of Gov. White in directing my presence here has had a splendid effect and a further persistent effort will be made by the county and state officials to bring to justice all connected with the recent crimes."

CUMBERLAND, MD., July 28.—Twenty-eight refugee negroes driven from Womelsdorf, W. Va., have arrived here, destined for eastern points.

THE WEATHER.

The rain has passed for today at least, according to the forecast of the Washington weather bureau, which in the report sent out last night predicts fair conditions for today and more rain for tomorrow. The storm yesterday afternoon stopped the mercury from going over the 90s, but last evening the atmosphere was rather warm. Yesterday's maximum was 86 degrees and the minimum 69.

BLOOD FLOWS AT PRIMARIES IN CAMDEN, N. J.

Joe Goddard, Famous Heavyweight Pugilist, One of Mortally Wounded.

ONE KILLED, TWO MAY DIE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Camden, N. J., July 28.—One man was killed and three others wounded, two at the point of death, as a result of primary elections in Camden city and county tonight, to elect delegates to the Republican congressional convention at Woodbury, Wednesday.

The dead man is John, alias "Reddy," Morrissey, about 35 years old, a teamster of Manayunk. He is said to have been one of a gang who went to Camden to aid in the election of delegates for Candidate Vansant, whose badge he wore. The injured are Joe Goddard, the pugilist, shot in left temple at "Dog Corner," Pensaukin township, not expected to live; Isaac Fowler, at the same precinct, twice stabbed, and Policeman Harry Miller, this city, deep lacerations of the right groin and abdomen, condition critical.

The murder of Morrissey occurred a few minutes before the polls closed at 8 o'clock at the polling place of the Fifth precinct of the Third ward. It was charged that the Vansant workers had imported a gang of thugs from Philadelphia to aid them.

Revolvers Freely Flourished.

The Loudenslager forces, led by Policeman Robert Miller, and the Vansant followers marshaled by Policeman Harry Miller, crowded about the window where the ballots were handed in in such numbers as to preclude anyone voting. Back and forth on the pavement they surged, a cursing mob of infuriated men. Many citizens abstained from voting rather than risk their lives in the howling mob. A dozen times in as many minutes it seemed as if murder would be committed by wholesale, revolvers being flashed by the excited partisans at the least pretext. At each display of revolvers the crowd of several hundred onlookers beat a hasty retreat up allays and behinds steps, only to return when the guns disappeared.

As 8 o'clock, the hour for closing, drew nigh the fury of the crowd increased. The Loudenslager forces seemed to outnumber their opponents, and the latter sent word to one of the upper precincts for assistance. It came in the persons of the Philadelphia gang. They swept down Third street and hit the edge of the crowd like a battering ram.

The next instant there was a pistol shot and the crowd of over 1,000 people scattered to all directions, as four more shots were fired. For a minute or two it was not known that any of the shots had taken effect, and it was left for a newspaper man to stumble over Morrisey's prostrate form at the entrance of an alley, directly across from the polling place. He was carried into the back yard of a Third street house, where an examination revealed a bullet wound just below the heart.

Policeman Operated Upon.

Policeman Harry Miller, who had fallen during the fight with stab wounds of the stomach, was brought from a nearby house, where he had been carried, and, with Morrisey, was hurried to the hospital. Morrisey was dead when lifted from the wagon. Miller was operated on immediately.

Goddard was at a voting place in Pensauken township when he was shot. He was with a number of men who were traveling from one polling place to another. The pugilist got into a quarrel with a colored constable named Robert Washington. It is alleged that Goddard assaulted the constable with a baseball bat, and the colored man, in self-defense, shot Goddard in the head. The constable surrendered himself to the police and the wounded prize fighter was brought to Cooper hospital here, where the physicians say he may die.

Near the same polling place, Constable Isaac Fowler, while in a fight, was stabbed twice. His wounds, though painful, are not considered serious. There was considerable trouble in Pensauken township and at Merchantville, and a number of persons were badly beaten.

At midnight the returns, as far as learned, indicated that Mr. Loudenslager would have about 67 delegates in Gloucester, 46 in Camden and probably 65 in Salem counties, making a total of 178 delegates, or 25 more than the number necessary to a choice. Several townships had not been heard from, and the Loudenslager people say they will have nearly 200 delegates out of the total of 304 in the district. Van Sant men, however, are still claiming victory.

TRIED TO ROB CORNER STONE OF A BRUSHTON CHURCH

The corner stone of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Penn and Brushton avenues, laid two weeks ago, came very near being robbed or carried away on Sunday night, and if the robber had only had more time the coins and valuable papers placed in the receptacle would have been missing.

When the contractor arrived at the site yesterday morning it was reported to him by some of his men that the stone had been tampered with, and an investigation revealed that the stone had been moved from its proper place. There were evidences of the work of the man, and that he had left hurriedly.

There was great indignation among the few members of the church who became aware of the attempt to rob the stone. The contractor quickly replaced the stone, assuring himself that the attempt was futile, and kept the particulars away from the congregation as much as possible, but a few of the leading members found it out and the news spread.

RISKED LIVES TO SAVE COFFIN FROM FLAMES

ESCAPED BY A MIRACLE

As Soon As They Were Free From the Wreck They Ran to Burning Baggage Car and After Hard Struggle Rescued Body From Fire.

But for the quick work of friends and the assistance of the train hands who were not injured in the wreck near Xenia, O., last Friday afternoon, the remains of Mrs. Marie Wilson, an old resident of the Brownsville road, would have burned to a crisp. As it was the coffin was jarred so that the body turned over.

The moment the wreck occurred Robert Y. Warnock of Princeton, Ind., who was accompanying the remains to the city, jumped from the car, followed quickly by his son and some friends.

They had no thought of their own safety, but hurried as fast as they could to the rear baggage car, where the coffin was. They had scarcely arrived there when the flames, which had spread rapidly, almost surrounded them. Several of the trainmen came to their assistance and helped them to lift the coffin out of the car. It was carried over a ditch and laid reverently on the grass.

"I have never had such a harrowing experience in my life," said Mr. Warnock last night to a Gazette reporter. "My wife, who is the daughter of Mrs. Wilson, and I were talking about things that had occurred at the old home when suddenly there was an awful collision and we could feel the cars piling up on top of each other and hear the groans of the injured.

"I told my son to get off as speedily as possible; then I took Mrs. Warnock and almost carried her out of the car. We were not a moment to soon, for we had scarcely landed on the ground when the car was aflame. I hurried as fast as I could to the baggage car, determined to pull the coffin out myself, in the event of getting no one to help me. Happily some of the trainmen remembered the coffin being in the rear and came to our assistance. We were just taking the coffin out when the baggage car flashed up in flames. It took us nearly 10 minutes to get the coffin out, the heat being so intense as to drive us away for an interval several times."

The coffin was borne in a farmer's wagon to Xenia, where an undertaker took charge of it. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the old homestead, Snowden township, out the Brownsville road, interment being in Bethel cemetery.

WOMAN SAVES LIFE IN SOUTHERN FEUD

GRASPS THE ARM OF CANDIDATE FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.

He Had Raised It To Fire a Bullet Into a Political Enemy—His Merchant Antagonist Nearly Kills Him With a Heavy Stick.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

KNOXVILLE, TENN., July 28.—The bitter and personal political campaign in this county between the Democratic and Republican parties has resulted in a sensational difficulty in which two of the most prominent partisans involved. The men who participated are Reuben L. Cates, Democratic candidate for attorney general, and W. W. Dew, a prominent merchant, who has opposed the Democratic "ring," as it is called.

The affair occurred on Market square. Cates being angry because Dew had made affidavits that Cates in the election of August, 1900, had forced the marker in the Sixth ward to mark certain ballots in such ways as to make them void. When the two men came together there was an exchange of words, then blows. Half a dozen hard licks were struck, Cates trying to draw his revolver and Dew using a heavy stick with effect.

Finally Cates succeeded in unlimbering his artillery and had drawn a bead on Dew when Mrs. Frank Hood a relative, grabbed his arm just in time to save Dew's life, though Dew might have killed Cates if Cates had not gotten his revolver out and stood him off in time.

Piano Bargains.

Best Values Seen in Years Are Presented at Hamilton's This Week.

Persons who think of purchasing new pianos should not lose sight of the fact that Hamilton's semi-annual stock-taking begins August 1, which is only a few days away.

Before this event takes place it is necessary to sell a great many instruments of all descriptions, and therefore prices have been cut unmercifully. Any customer who takes advantage of this sale can save from a third to a half the regular price of the instrument—and every one familiar with the reputation of Hamilton's is aware that this old, reliable establishment is so noted for the character of the pianos which it sells that the bargains now offered must be of special significance. The makes included in this sale are all well known, but let the saving in prices appeals particularly to teachers and others who have made the relative merits of instruments a special study.

No customer can make a mistake in purchasing at this sale. Nothing is made blinding for every piano offered is fully guaranteed. You may pay not more than half what a piano of similar merit would cost in any other store, but that merely shows the advantage of visiting Hamilton's. This store is the best-known music establishment in the state, and as a matter of course the BEST bargains are ALWAYS to be found here.

YOU may be very particular as to the quality of the instrument that finds a place in your home, but let us assure you that the more fastidious you are the more you will appreciate the special values now prevailing at Hamilton's.

PIANOS—New and used.
ORGANS—New and used.
ANGELUS PIANO PLAYERS—New and used.
MUSIC BOXES—New and used.
TALKING MACHINES—New and used.
MANDOLINS, GUITARS, CORNETS, ETC.

S. HAMILTON,
Hamilton Building,
335 and 337 Fifth ave., Pittsburgh.
Sole depot for A. B. Chase, Fischer, Schumann, Hamilton and other fine Pianos, and the "Angelus," the only real piano player.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

NATURE'S SUMMER HEALTH GIVER.

It Purifies the Blood and Multiplies the Number of Vital Red Corpuscles, Feeds the Nerves and Tissues and Gives True Physical Strength.

Weak nerves, exhausted tissue, poor, thin blood, impaired digestion and sleepless nights, account for much of the present existing summer misery and suffering.

Dear reader, if you are unfortunately numbered amongst the sickly and weak mortals of today, it is now time to awake to a true realization of your danger. The weakening and depressing hot weather will only add to your miseries if you are careless and indifferent.

There is absolute relief and a positive cure for you in Paine's Celery Compound. This wonder-working medicine is successfully conquering such troubles as yours every day. It is a fact verified by able physicians and thousands of testimonials, that Paine's Celery Compound makes new, pure blood, builds up the nervous system, regulates digestion, whets the appetite and gives vigor and strength to combat the discomforts of the heated term.

MRS. J. N. Morgan, Secretary, Md., used Paine's Celery Compound to banish nervous prostration, heart palpitation and insomnia. The great medicine quickly restored physical strength by purifying the blood, bracing the nerves and building up tissue; she says:

"When I began the use of Paine's Celery Compound I was suffering with nervous prostration, had palpitation of the heart and could not sleep. When I first went to bed I would sleep one or two hours, but would wake with a start. I would get up in the morning feeling worse than when I went to bed. Now, after using Paine's Celery Compound, I can eat and sleep well and wake up in the morning feeling refreshed and strong."

PENN AND FIFTH.

BIRTHDAYS OF THE "OLD LADY" NOW NUMBER 116

FACTS ABOUT OLD DAYS

Few Mail Facilities and Small Returns When Pittsburgh's First Postmaster Advocated the Election of Washington.

Just 116 years ago today John Scull, a young man 21 years old, issued the first copy of The Pittsburgh Gazette. Barely of age, the grandson of one of Pennsylvania's surveyors-general, allied by birth with some of the most prominent families in the colony, he left his home in Reading and crossed the Alleghanies, bent on publishing a paper in support of Gen. Washington and the Federal party. The country at that time had no president, was still governed under the loosely-framed Articles of Confederation, and its future was by no means assured. There were no mail facilities between Pittsburgh and the eastern part of the state, even of that crude and unsatisfactory kind that kept communication open in other parts of the colonies. But the young man was not daunted by the difficulties before him. He rented a building, 12x14 feet, in this city, then a frontier post, and on July 29, 1786, he got out his first paper.

Difficulties Were Many.

Owing to the absence of mail facilities correspondence between friends and business men in Western Pennsylvania at that time was carried on by special express or through the courtesy of travelers. All subscribers to John Scull's new paper not within the immediate reach of the publisher had to depend on the kindly offices of friends for the news budget, and this necessitated many long waits and delays and disappointments through failure of delivery.

An agitation for a mail service between Pittsburgh and the east had been started two years before The Gazette was first issued. Maj. Craig and Mr. Brisson were leaders in the effort and through their unceasing work a postoffice was established in Pittsburgh in November, 1786, and John Scull, the editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, was appointed postmaster. The mail service included only a "post rider" and the new opstoffice was located in the same building in which a few months before the first copy of The Gazette was issued.

How the Mail Came In.

To show how meager were the means of communication in those early days succeeding the revolutionary war it might be well to state that the contract for carrying the mails between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia on and after April 18, 1795, nearly nine years after the office was established, required that the mail leave Philadelphia every Saturday at 11:30 a. m., to be delivered in Pittsburgh the following Friday at noon. The return mail left Pittsburgh at 5 p. m., to be delivered in Philadelphia on the next Friday at noon. For the year ending October 1, 1790, the postal receipts at Pittsburgh were $110,000.

In spite of the difficulties that beset its founder the young newspaper was issued regularly and prospered, gaining a name throughout the territory west of the Alleghanies for its veracity and evidences of scope. As the facilities for transmitting news grew the paper grew, keeping pace with the times. As time went on there were changes necessary both in its management and in its policy, but through all the years it stood for good government.

A Wonderful Development.

The one hundred and sixteenth birthday of The Gazette stands out pre-eminently from its other birthdays because of the rapid strides made by the paper during the last few years. Today the 12x14-foot building in which the first copy of the paper was printed 116 years ago has grown to a building 50x120 feet, five stories high, containing the most improved machinery that goes to make a newspaper in touch with the news of the world. In addition to The Gazette an afternoon paper, The Pittsburgh Chronicle Telegraph, is now also published in the same building, and the two papers are now furnishing the news to over half a million people in this district. This paper was founded in 1841 and has grown until it now occupies an important place in the lives and homes of the citizens of Pittsburgh.

On November 10, 1901, the owners of The Gazette began the publication of a Sunday edition, which has already surpassed its competitors in excellence and circulation, and all three are the outcome of the work begun 116 years ago today by the ardent supporter of our first president.

Great Prospects For the Future.

In place of the "post rider" of its early days there is now the fast mail that carries the news over the country, after it is printed, at the rate of over 50 miles an hour. The telegraph, the cable and the wireless system of communication now sometimes brought into play, flash into the editorial rooms the news of the world with such lightning speed that the important acts of civilization may be scanned at the breakfast table.

While The Pittsburgh Gazette is at present housed in what is probably the most complete newspaper plant in the world there is still more opening out for the future. The growth of the paper has been coincident with the wonderful development of the community and for generations it has been the leading conservative morning daily of Pittsburgh, a stanch supporter of the Republican party and an authority on business and financial topics. The quarters that The Pittsburgh Gazette and its allied papers now occupy are still too cramped for the immense work that they are carrying on and plans are already under way for quarters that will eclipse anything that has been known in the newspaper world before.

JOHNSTOWN HAS QUEEN

Carnival Opens in Mountain City and Promises Entire Week of Pleasure Unalloyed.

JOHNSTOWN, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—The Johnstown Elks street fair and carnival opened today to continue all week. There is a veritable little city of stores and booths on the point, the big breathing spot at the confluence of the two rivers.

The display of the merchants of Johnstown is a most gratifying surprise. With good weather there will be immense throngs here to attend the festivities.

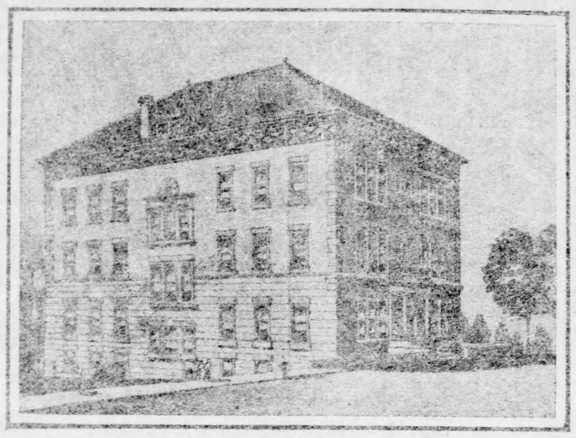
Miss Amelia Kiepert has been elected queen of the carnival. Charles Young is the director general and chairman of the executive committee of the fete.

New Big Gun Record.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A successful test was made at Sandy Hook today of 10-inch rifles mounted on barbette carriages. Thirty rounds were fired in 42 minutes, breaking all records for round-firing of guns of this caliber.

The first 10 rounds were fired in 14 minutes, the second in 15 minutes and the third in 12 minutes.

ROOSEVELT WILL COME TO THE DEDICATION



The magnificent industrial school which is being erected in Ninth avenue, Homestead, by President Charles M. Schwab of the United States Steel Corporation, and which he will present to the citizens of that place, is fast nearing completion and the committee in charge are now making arrangements for the dedication, which will take place at the opening of the next school term in September. It promises to be one of the greatest events in Homestead's history.

The building has been in course of erection for more than a year and when completed it will cost $100,000. It is built of buff brick, with Cleveland sandstone trimmings. Every detail of the building has been planned with the utmost care, and it has been pronounced by experts the most complete manual training school building in the country. The building will be sufficiently large to accommodate the town's needs for many years to come, and boys and girls in the public or private schools of the borough will be eligible to enter it.

Among those who will be present at the dedication will be President Theodore Roosevelt and Mr. and Mrs. Schwab. The members of the Homestead school board, which will have charge of the building when it is completed, recently visited the principal cities of the east to study the systems of the various industrial schools. The trip was taken at the invitation of Mr. Schwab.

SOME OF THEM TOOK A RUN TO STRATFORD

TEACHERS VISITED THE BIRTHPLACE OF SHAKESPEARE.

Much Shopping Done On the Last Day in London—Diversity of Opinion On the Cheapness of Commodities—Night Ride by Steamer.

By L. W. STRAYER.

(Special Correspondence of the Gazette.)

LONDON, July 19.—After five days of sightseeing here under the most delightful conditions the teachers' tour of the Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph left this morning for Antwerp. The party will board the train at 8 p. m. and ride to Harwich, from which point the English channel will be crossed, the boat arriving in Antwerp at 5 a. m.

The stay in London has been most pleasant and every member of the party is loud in praise of the tour to this point. Some of the teachers have been more active than others and have seen more, but have seen the big sights and leave well satisfied with their visit. On Thursday several of the party took a side trip to Windsor castle, Stoke Pogis and Stratford-on-Avon. At Windsor the state apartments were opened to the tourists. During Queen Victoria's reign the furniture in Windsor castle was kept covered so that visitors could not damage it. Now these coverings are removed and our party was able to get a good idea of the gorgeousness of the royal house.

At Stoke Pogis the scene of Gray's elegy the visitors sat in the old pew of William Penn, plucked branches from the yew tree and wandered in the old churchyard. Then a number of the teachers went on to Stratford and saw the sights of Shakespeare's country. While this last trip was being planned one teacher, who had been disappointed by finding the main portion of Westminster abbey closed, asked if anyone was certain that the party could get into Stratford. She was assured that the town would not be closed against the party.

On Friday and Saturday most of the time was devoted to shopping, and there was a fierce raid upon the shops of Regent street, Bond street and Cheapside. There was such a diversity of opinion that it is difficult to tell whether prices are much lower here than in America. One teacher would come in exhibiting some article which she had bought at a bargain and others would bring reports of outlandish prices that could easily be beaten in Pittsburgh. So it was impossible to draw conclusions from the reports brought in.

Our conductor has informed us that we will be at the Midland Grand hotel again upon our return to London, August 5.

ATLANTIC CITY.

Philadelphia Girl Nearly Loses Her Life to Rescue a Child—Organization Against Thieves.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 28.—(Special.)—Miss Elizabeth Leright, daughter of George Leright of Philadelphia, is the latest heroine. She saved the life of a 6-year-old child, and in doing so nearly lost her own life.

The child, who is the daughter of Thomas Green, a cottager at Somers Point, walked out on the pier and fell overboard. Miss Leright saw the child fall and jumped into the water and swam to the rescue. As soon as Miss Leright had the child in her left arm she struck out for shore. The current was running strong and but little if any headway was made. She began to lose strength and to drift toward the inlet. A boat picked up the brave girl and her charge. She was completely exhausted.

Organized Against Thievery.

The Atlantic City Bathing House Proprietors' Protective association has been formed and signs similar to the following have been posted in the bath houses along the boardwalk: "Any person caught stealing suits, towels or other articles belonging to this establishment will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law."

CHAUTAUQUA.

A Series of Lectures on Municipal Progress Begun by Chicago Reformer.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., July 28.—(Special.)—The special subject of the Chautauqua program for this week is "Municipal Progress," and lectures will be given daily on that theme by men prominent in municipal reform. The speaker today was Edward Burritt Smith, a Chicago banker and president of the Municipal Voters' league, of that city.

The experience of the league in Chicago in six years has developed ideas quite at variance with some practices in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. For instance, Mr. Smith says that falling back upon the mayor with all responsibility and leaving the city council to the possession of public service corporations, has been a failure everywhere that it has been tried.

"When you add to the complexity of municipal functions the difficulty of getting a mayor of common honesty," said the lecturer, "you see the hopelessness of the attempt. The best that can be hoped for is that you will occasionally have a good mayor, and even he will be often hoodwinked and misled by the powerful special interests which seek to control municipal functions in this country.

"Municipal government in the United States has never been democratic. It is essentially undemocratic. The city which we know is an agency of the state. The makers of the constitution provided for the national government and for the state government; but the vast urban populations were not foreseen nor provided for, and the omission has never been supplied. Here lies the fundamental difficulty with municipal government in this country. As the national constitution is made by the nation, and the state constitution is made by the state, so the city charter or constitution should be made by the citizens. City government should be as distinct from the state government as the state government is from the national government.

"There is no danger in relying on the people to secure such reforms as are needed. The cure for the ills of democracy is more democracy."

Three Buildings Burned.

WOOSTER, O., July 28.—(Special.)—The village of Creston suffered a $20,000 loss by fire Sunday. The flames originated in George Hay's elevator, which was consumed with two other structures. Brick blocks occupied by the Gensemer Dry Goods Company, Smith Hardware Company and J. J. Turner grocery, were badly damaged.

Railroaders' Pay Increased.

CUMBERLAND, MD., July 28.—Officials of the West Virginia Central & Pittsburgh Railway Company announced today a voluntary increase of wages to its employes. The increase affects all the employes of the transportation department and averages 10 per cent.

Big Indian Dance is On.

WHITE EAGLE, I. T., July 28.—One of the biggest Indian dances held in Indian Territory for years is in progress here, having been started by the Poncas, with visitors from the tribes of the Osages, the Kiowas and the Otoes. Seven hundred tepees have been erected.

A Boon to Mankind!

In these simmering summer days, when Old Sol pours his rays upon you with a zest that makes you forget what cool weather means, when comfort spells more to you than any other word, how happy one is to meet that good old friend, Talcum Powder.

It brings with it a soothing sensation, a relief from prickly heat, hives, rash, etc., that nothing else can.

It's a necessity in the nursery.

It's a preventive and relief for sunburn, chafing, etc., and an "after shaving comfort" too well known to need eulogizing.

To be sure of its quality, you had best buy it at May's, where its freshness is guaranteed by the immense business done—and you get the benefit of CUT PRICES.

JUDGE JACKSON ISSUES ANOTHER BIG INJUNCTION

Thirty Strike Leaders Named by Receiver of Flemington Coal Company.

POTTSVILLE MAN SHOT

Seriously Wounded in Shoulder, But Is Expected to Recover—Five Other Non-Union Men Injured. Strike Leader Arrested for Libel.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 28.—Another sweeping injunction of the same general character as those already issued was granted today by Judge Jackson upon the application of G. C. Gardner, receiver of the Flemington Coal Company, against 30 strike leaders and organizers, prohibiting their interference with the property or miners of that company.

Bernard Rice, one of the organizers convicted of contempt and serving 60 days for it, was released today, after promising not to violate the injunction again.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., July 28.—Upon information made before District Attorney Atkinson today, warrants of arrest were issued for 15 persons charging them with violating the injunction issued by Judge Keller, covering the Flat Top field along the Norfolk & Western railroad.

Judge Keller today issued an injunction again G. W. Purcell, a member of the national executive committee of the United Mine Workers; W. B. Wilson, national secretary; Chris Evans, national statistician; "Mother" Jones and five others at the suit of the Gauley Mountain Coal Company. It was charged that Purcell, Evans, Wilson and the others were purchasing and distributing supplies to feed the strikers in this district.

POTTSVILLE, PA., July 28.—Daniel Landerman, foreman at the Kohinoor colliery, Shenandoah, was shot today near his home by a crowd of strikers. His face and shoulders are torn with buckshot, but it is thought he will recover.

Albert Landerman was also chased and shot, and four other non-union men badly beaten.

At about 1:30 this morning a band of strikers numbering several hundred raided the Cambridge colliery, operated by the Cambridge Coal Company, at Shenandoah, and compelled the engineers, pumprunners and firemen to leave their positions. The strikers proceeded to the West Shenandoah colliery of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company, where workmen resisted the raiders, but were beaten and forced to stop work. Marchers also made similar demonstrations at Gilberton and Mahanoy Plane today.

WILKESBARRE, PA., July 28.—J. E. Mullahy, secretary of the Stationary Firemen's association of Pennsylvania, was arrested here this afternoon charged with libel. Twenty-five complaints had been lodged against him by men who are now employed in various capacities by the coal companies. It was alleged that Mullahy had printed a circular containing the names of the prosecutors. He classified them under the head of "unfair workmen," and then, so it was claimed, posted them in conspicuous places throughout the region. Magistrate Polock held Mullahy in the sum of $500 on each charge, which made the bail piece $12,500. The bail was promptly furnished.

Sheriff Jacobs was called to Duryea today to disperse a mob which had gathered in the vicinity of the Warnke washery and prevented some men from going to work. When the sheriff arrived the crowd left.

ALLEGHENY MAN WHO IS LONG MISSING.

Thomas H. Bonar Disappeared Many Days Ago and His Wife Is Distracted.

Mrs. Thomas H. Bonar of No. 98 Sarah street, Allegheny, is distracted over the unexplained disappearance of her husband. The last she saw of him was about 9:45 o'clock on the morning of Friday, July 18, when he left the house to go to the paint department of the Ft. Wayne railroad shops to see about some time that was due him.

Bonar had worked in the paint department as a laborer for some time. He had, however, about completed arrangements to quit that job and go to work as a motorman on one of the traction lines. For two weeks previous to his disappearance he remained at home, not working for the reason that he was not well. He seemed to have a fever of some kind, and at times was morose and despondent.

Bonar is an Irishman, 34 years old, about 5 feet, 8 inches tall and weighing 150 pounds. His hair is dark brown, and he has a sandy moustache. When he went away he wore dark gray clothes. He has been married about three years and has one child.

Bonar's family relations have always been pleasant. He was not what might be called a drinking man, and was always accounted a steady and reliable worker.

Mrs. Bonar, after making inquiry as to the whereabouts of her husband in almost every direction that could be suggested, sent for her brother, William Arrell, an engineer living at Newark, N. J., and he is now here making an investigation. Thus far he has been unable to learn anything about his brother-in-law's whereabouts.

It is feared that Bonar's sickness affected his mind, and that he has wandered away without knowing where he was going.

BOLD BURGLAR GOT AWAY WITH $600

CRAFTON ROBBER DID NOT USE CHLOROFORM.

Anthony Schneiderlocher and His Wife Slept Soundly, While Intruder Selected the Articles He Wanted and Carried Them Off.

The burglar who entered the residence of Anthony Schneiderlochner in Crafton on Sunday morning worked quietly and slowly, but did not use chloroform. When he departed he took with him $445 in cash, about $100 worth of jewelry, and about $50 worth of flat silverware, such as knives and forks. The borough constable said yesterday that he had no clue.

Mr. Schneiderlochner is boss roller in the Superior steel works, Carnegie, of which his brother is manager. He lives in Taylor street, the third house from the corner of Emily street, and the latter street leads up from the railroad near the new schoolhouse that is nearly completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneiderlochner retired at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday morning. They were deliberate about it, and Mrs. Schneiderlochner said yesterday that it was fully 1:30 before they were to sleep. She was the first to wake in the morning, and it was then about 8:30. She saw the room was in confusion, and called her husband. He had to go downstairs to get the trousers he had left on the chair, when he went to bed.

The burglar had entered by the cellar door, where the catch was forced loose. He had looked in the dresser drawers, glanced over the articles on the mantle and table and then taken Mr. Schneiderlochner's pantaloons to the floor below. Down there everything had been inspected. On a clothes rack the pockets of all of the garments were turned inside out. In the linen closet every piece was examined.

As near as the couple could tell the man got $445. Of this $343 was in Mr. Schneiderlochner's pockets and $102 of it was in various places where his wife had put it. A diamond ring of his was overlooked in one pocket, and watch, under his pollow, was not disturbed. No large piece of silverware was taken, indicating that the man did not want to be burdened with a bundle or package.

There was no chloroform, or anything out of the ordinary about the robbery. After the man was once inside there was not a closed door to interfere with the visitor's movements. Mrs. Schneiderlochner is of the opinion that a man who came to the house from the rear the night before and asked for a family not living in that part of town, is the man who did the work. She did not see his face sufficiently well to identify him.

The only mysterious thing about the robbery was the finding yesterday morning by Mrs. Schneiderlochner, by a path not far from the house, of her bead purse, small purse, Mr. Schneiderlochner's pocketbook and spectacle case. They were not there on Sunday, and were dry, indicating that they must have been put where found some time yesterday morning. This leads some people to believe that the burglar is a resident of Crafton.

AFTERMATH OF THE BRIDGEVILLE RIOT

Suits Entered Against Two Bridgeville Men by Citizens of Carnegie.

Casper P. Mayer of Bridgeville will never be umpire in a ball game again. He was umpire of the game on Saturday between nines from Carnegie and Bridgeville at Bridgeville, and is reported to have received the blow that started the riot. Robert Morris, who is alleged to have struck this blow, denies it, but says that he simply put his hand on the shoulder of Mayer. Mayer says that the hand was placed on his shoulder with such force that it knocked him off his feet.

The ball game was the basis of all talk in Carnegie and Bridgeville yesterday. Then the fact that the Bridgeville team had rung in a member of the Homestead team to pitch for them made the Carnegie people very angry. Peter Herron, one of those injured in the riot, entered suit yesterday before Justice of the Peace A. W. McMillan of Carnegie, charging C. P. Mayer with felonious assault and battery. William Gibbons, also of Carnegie, has entered the same kind of suit before the same justice against Officer John Shivers of Bridgeville.

It was reported in Bridgeville that as soon as the police can obtain the names of visitors who were mixed up in the fight they will start in to make arrests.

THE WORKINGMAN'S HOTEL WILL OPEN

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA WILL BEGIN WORK NEXT TUESDAY.

After Long Search, Suitable Quarters Were Found and Leased in Four-Story Building, No. 343 Third Avenue, in the Heart of the Slums.

A week from tonight the Volunteers of America, under the command of Col. and Mrs. C. C. Herron, will establish a new post in the downtown district of the city, and at the same time open a hotel for workingmen. Col. Herron has leased three floors of the building at No. 343 Third avenue, right in the heart of the slum district.

The building is owned by Kaufmann Bros., and has been leased to the Volunteers for a certain period. For a year or more the Volunteers have been skirmishing for a suitable place in which to establish a downtown mission and also a hotel for workingmen, based on the plans of the house conducted by the Volunteers in New York city.

The first floor of the building now leased will be used as a mission hall, in which services will be held every night and twice on Sundays.

The upper floors will be used for dormitories, reading rooms, baths and everything that is required to make an inviting place of rest for the submerged portion of the city's population. Speaking of this new work yesterday, Col. Herron said:

"Our work in Pittsburgh has been confined, to a great extent, to the East End and South Side districts. We have been long waiting for an opening in the downtown district, as it is the spirit of the Volunteers to reach the unreached, the forgotten masses in large cities.

"We have leased this property with the view of establishing a suitable home for men who are willing to make an effort to better their conditions. We have been encouraged in our work by the leading citizens of the city, and feel that we can accomplish equally as much good, if not more, than in any other part of the city. The conditions demand our work, and we go where it is demanded."

The Volunteers will charge but minimum rates for beds, baths and the like in the new institution. The opening of the downtown work next Tuesday night is to be made the occasion of a general rally of Volunteers from all parts of the two cities and McKeesport.

All of the four posts in the city proper will take part in the exercises. The new institution will be directly in charge of Col. and Mrs. Herron. It is announced that Gen. Ballington Booth and his wife will visit this city in October. Next Thursday the East End post, under the leadership of Adjt. Ida Brown, will give a free outing for children at Southern avenue park. There will be 300 little ones in the party, and every little detail that goes to make child life happy will be provided.

DOUBLE BILL GIVEN AT DUQUESNE GARDEN

Work of Company in "Charity Girls" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" Was Excellent.

A very large and appreciative audience was in attendance at the Duquesne garden last evening, despite the unfavorable weather. A double bill was given, "The Charity Girls," a comic opera in one act, and Mascagni's popular "Cavalleria Rusticana," and they were in the nature of a delightful surprise, so well were they presented. The music of "The Charity Girls" is by Alfred Collier, and is melodious and pleasing, and the libretto, by Bolton Roe, is bright and sparkling. It is the first time that it has ever been given in this city, and was thoroughly enjoyed.

The scene is laid in an English parish at a charity school, and afforded Mr. Roe great scope for an amusing story. John J. Martin, as the parish beadle, was in excellent humor, and assisted by Charles H. Drew, as the charity boy, carried off the honors. Miss May Carrington, Miss Bishop and George H. Sinclair completed the cast, and were fully equal to the parts assigned to them.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" has been frequently presented here by casts of much greater renown, but the company presenting it last night deserves great credit for their excellent work. The chorus was especially good, and was deservedly complimented several times. Miss Edith Mason, as Santuzza, was in excellent voice, and her duet with Thomas H. Persse, the Torridu, won for both the most hearty applause.

Robert S. Piggott, although working under the most depressing circumstances, having learned just before going on the stage, of the death of his child in New York, was at his best as Alfio, and sung the difficult role with such earnestness and vim that he was forced to respond to an encore, after his duet with Miss Mason. Miss Bishop and Miss Stone were very acceptable in their roles.

Mr. Piggott will leave this morning to attend the funeral of his child, and in his absence his part will be sung by W. G. Shelly.

Fifty Princetonians Plucked.

PRINCETON, N. J., July 28.—The final reports of the June examinations show more than 50 students dropped. This is the largest number to be caught at one examination in the history of Princeton university. A dozen athletes are in the list of failures. The sophomore class was hit the hardest, 24 failing to pass.

INCORPORATION MEANS INCREASE OF $10,000,000

Jones & Laughlin Steel Company Will Enlarge Present Plants.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

The Basis, Under Which Interests Are Transferred to New Company, Is $30,000,000—This Sum Merely Covers Book Values of Plant.

Official announcement was made yesterday evening by Jones & Laughlins, Ltd., that their interests will on August 1 become the property of the Jones & Laughlins Steel Company, Ltd., recently chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania. The new company will issue $30,000,000 in stock, all of one kind, and provision is made for an issue of $10,000,000 in bonds. The capital stock simply covers the book values of the properties now operated, some at the valuation placed on them 60 years ago. The new issue of stock will be distributed among the present holders in the limited partnership in proportion to their present holdings.

No arrangements have yet been made for the floating of the bond issue, but it is understood that they soon will be.

Great Improvements.

This issue of bonds is to provide funds for a tremendous increase in the present facilities of the company, so as to maintain its prestige as among the greatest of the independent producers of steel, if not absolutely the greatest.

Among the tentative plans is the extension of the present blast furnace system by the addition of two monster stacks to the present group of four comprising the Eliza furnaces. The Eliza furnaces are either new or practically so and their combined output is about 2,200 tons daily. The two additional furnaces proposed will probably be located at the upper end of the present Eliza group and they will have capacity of about 600 tons each daily.

In addition to this group the company is now having the Soho furnaces improved. Automatic top-filler apparatus is being installed and when the work is completed, about October 1, this stack will have a productive capacity of about 400 tons a day. The work is being done by the Riter-Conley Manufacturing Company.

Other Improvements.

Additions will be made to the present finishing mills of the company to convert the proposed additional pig iron outputs. Extensions are also planned to the coking plant near Laughlin junction. The additions to the finishing mills will be largely in connection with the present group of mills on the South Side. Among other improvements proposed is the erection of mills for the production of heavy steel rails and the erection of additional Talbot open-hearth furnaces. These furnaces have a capacity of about 250 tons of steel daily.

In the reorganized company all of the old members remain with very few exceptions. A few years ago when the interests of Jones & Laughlins, limited, and other allied interests were consolidated under the present limited partnership, the older members of the partnership dropped their executive positions and became members of an advisory board along with some of the younger members.

All On New Board.

All will be members of the new board of directors and in addition, W. W. Willock, general manager of the Monongahela Connecting railroad; Robert Geddis, assistant general sales agent, and Henry S. Kiehl, head of the legal and real estate department, will become members of the board. Within a few days an executive board of four or five members of the board of directors will be elected by the directors.

The new corporation will take over the control of all the subsidiary concerns of the limited partnership, including the Vesta Coal Company, which is developing 8,000 acres along the fourth pool; the Interstate Iron Company, which, with capital of $3,000,000, covers the iron ore interests of the company along Lake Superior; the Blair Limestone Company, limited, operating the limestone quarries in Cambria county; the Monongahela Connecting Railroad Company, operating the terminal railroad system, and the Angeline Dock Company, operating docks at Ashtabula harbor.

Announcement made by the company yesterday is as follows:

Official Announcement.

The partnership of Jones & Laughlins, Limited, will, on August 1, 1902, transfer its properties and assets to a corporation under the laws of Pennsylvania, designated "Jones & Laughlin Steel Company" with a capital of $30,000,000 book value. An issue of $10,000,000 bonds has also been provided for, which may be used as desired, in improvements and enlargements, or for any other purpose. It is not the present intention that any of the stock or bonds shall be placed on the market. The change is made desirable by reason of the early expiration of the present partnership by limitation, the more enduring form of commercial existence and better facilities secured under corporate laws.

No change is contemplated in the ownership or policy of the company. The officers and directors will be as follows:

Directors—B. F. Jones, H. A. Laughlin, G. M. Laughlin, James Laughlin, Jr., B. F. Jones, Jr., Willis L. King, William Larimer Jones, Thomas O'Conor Jones, Irwin B. Laughlin, J. B. Laughlin, W. C. Moreland, Roland Gerry, W. W. Willock, Robert Geddis and Henry S. Kiehl.

Officers—B. F. Jones, Jr., president; Willis L. King, vice president; William Larimer Jones, general manager; Irwin B. Laughlin, treasurer; T. K. Laughlin, assistant treasurer; W. C. Moreland, secretary; Wendell Van Hook, Auditor.

ANOTHER COMMITTEE OF THE DEMOCRATS

County Chairman Alcorn Names Men Who Will Have Charge of Speakers and Meetings.

The Democrats continue to prepare for the battle at the polls this fall and but two of the five sub-committees now remain to be named by County Chairman Thomas B. Alcorn, those on registration and taxes. They are regarded as among the most important and the members will be chosen with especial care.

Chairman Alcorn last night announced the membership of the committee on meetings and speakers, which will have charge of the campaign gatherings during the county campaign to be held under the auspices of the Democratic party and work for the fusion ticket. The members are: J. E. O'Donnell, chairman; W. H. S. Thompson, Joseph Hawley, John C. Bane, James A. Wakefield, W. L. McConegly, George W. Acklin, James M. Dunn, S. B. Griffith, Frank I. Rutledge, A. PERSONALS.

E. F. Gerber, manager of the Gerber Carriage Company, left yesterday for New York. Mr. Gerber will be gone for two weeks.

"With the sailing of the Red Star liner Kensington, from Philadelphia for Liverpool Sunday, an experiment that may revolutionize ocean service was started," said Lewis J. Levick, an oil refiner of Philadelphia, at the Duquesne last evening. Mr. Levick had been in Pittsburgh on business. "Oil is the fuel used on this vessel this time instead of coal. The Kensington is the first trans-Atlantic liner to use this fuel. The oil was brought to Philadelphia by the steamer Guffey, owned by the J. M. Guffey Petroleum Company. It came from the Beaumont region and tanks have been erected to store it at both Philadelphia and New York. If the trip is made successfully and oil is shown to be a practicable fuel for long trips such as this, there is no reason to doubt that it will supplant coal on all the large steamers in the trans-Atlantic service. The whole scheme is being watched with the greatest interest by steamboat, coal and oil people. No one seems to doubt that it will be thoroughly successful. It is believed that the other liners of the American and Red Star companies will be changed to oil burners as soon as it can be done."

"Although the yield of wool from the western herds will be a big one, the quality is poor," said Rufus S. Redman, a wool buyer of Philadelphia, who was a passenger on the Pennsylvania limited last evening en route to the west. "The cause of the poorness of quality is the exceptionally open winter the west had this past year. When there is much snow during the winter the wool grows thicker and heavier than in an open winter. Moreover, the wool does not become nearly so dirty. That is, it is cleaned out, or washed by the snow, much better than it would be otherwise. The wool becomes much more brittle when it is not frequently cleaned in this way."

Pittsburgh Aerie No. 46, Fraternal Order of Eagles, has made arrangements to send a party of 150 to Youngstown Thursday to take part in the carnival now being held in that city by the Youngstown Aerie. Alderman S. J. Toole is president of the local Aerie. The entire party will form in line at city hall and march to the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie station. They will carry red, white and blue umbrellas.

Charles W. Brokaw, who is connected with the H. B. Claflin Company of New York and other cities, owners of department stores, was a passenger on the Pennsylvania limited last evening on a trip to the west. He says that the company is making great preparations for the opening of its Pittsburgh branch, and is well pleased to secure a good site in so attractive a city as Pittsburgh, from a financial standpoint.

A party of five Japanese inspected the Homestead and Braddock plants of the Carnegie Steel Company yesterday. Four of the party were engineers, touring the country. They were under the guidance of K. Iwahara, an attache of the Japanese consulate at New York.

L. G. Haas, general superintendent of the Baltimore & Ohio at Pittsburgh, left last evening on an inspection trip over the western divisions of his territory.

Ralph Peters, general superintendent of the southwest system of the Pennsylvania lines, spent yesterday in this city in conference with the officials here. He returned last evening to Columbus headquarters.

The Rev. George E. Schlbrede, pastor of the Greenfield Presbyterian church, and the Rev. William Farmer, pastor of the Edgeworth Presbyterian church, accompanied by Mr. Farmer's mother, left last even for Muskoka Lake to spend a three weeks' vacation.

William E. Morris, clerk at the Anderson, will leave tomorrow on a 10 days' vacation, to be spent at Buffalo.

Director J. Guy McCandless left last night for Atlantic City. He will remain until Wednesday night, when he will start for Pittsburgh, arriving here Thursday morning. He will spend Thursday here, opening bids and awarding contracts with, Recorder J. O. Brown. Thursday night he will leave with the members of the MacFarlane Fishing club for Jubilee Island, Georgian bay, Canada. Arriving there, he will go to Yankcanuck island, which has been purchased by himself and friends and a clubhouse erected. He will remain there with his family until August 16, when he will return to the city and resume his duties.

Director McCandless said that his visit to Atlantic City is on professional business. It is understood that he goes there as the medical adviser of President John S. Lamble of select council, who is spending the summer there with his family. Dr. McCandless has been the Lamble family physician for years, and brought Mr. Lamble through his recent serious illness.

RepairsHair

Nature always tries to repair damaged hair. Sometimes she succeeds, very often she doesn't. She needs a little help—Ayer's Hair Vigor. It repairs the hair, touches it up, gives it new life, brings back the old dark color, and makes it soft and glossy. Cures dandruff, too.

"I used only one bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it completely stopped my hair from falling out."—Mrs. C. Leasenfeld, New York City.

A. M. ROTHSCHILD KILLS HIMSELF WHILE INSANE

Prominent Chicago Merchant Breaks Down and Grows Tired of Life.

NO OTHER CAUSE KNOWN

Was Organizer and Up to Two Months Ago Manager of Big Department Store—Married Daughter of Nelson Morris.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Chicago, July 28.—A. M. Rothschild, until two months ago head of the State street department store firm of A. M. Rothschild & Co., committed suicide today at his home, Thirty-seventh court and Michigan avenue, by shooting himself in the head.

Acute insomnia, which probably caused temporary insanity, is said to be responsible for the deed. Mr. Rothschild returned from a six-weeks' outing in Minnesota last week and seemed improved physically. At no time, it is said, was his mental condition such as to cause any apprehension that he contemplated self-destruction.

Shortly after luncheon Mr. Rothschild entered the bath room of one of the upper floors of his home and almost immediately the servants heard the report of a revolver. Rushing to the bath room they found the merchant lying on the floor. A bullet wound in the forehead showed what had happened. Mr. Rothschild was still breathing. A physician was summoned, but could be of no service.

Mr. Rothschild retired from the management of the big department store on account of ill health. A constitution ordinarily robust had been shattered in building up the business since its opening, seven years ago. Interested with him and the principal owner of the store was Nelson Morris, his father-in-law.

Mr. Rotschild was born in the little German village of Nordstetten, 57 years ago. When a child of 5 years he came to America, and while still in his 'teens went to Davenport, Ia. With his two brothers he established a general store. In 1875 he came to Chicago and immediately began making a reputation for himself, organizing in 1895 the department store which now bears his name.

Mr. Rothschild was a director of the World's fair, a former director of the National Bank of the Republic, and a member of the Standard, Washington Park and Hamilton clubs. He leaves a widow and one son.

West End House Damaged—The home of Mrs. Scheneller, at No. 264 Main street, West End, was badly damaged yesterday morning by fire. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

Outing for Poor Children—The Pittsburgh Association for the Improvement of the Poor yesterday sent 75 children to Oakmont for a two weeks' vacation. They are in the care of Mrs. J. D. Dorning.

Hurt in a Runaway—Richard H. Dempsey, 50 years old, is in a serious condition at his home, No. 403 Sample street, Millvale, from injuries received by being thrown from his wagon Saturday afternoon in a runaway.

Will Give Concert—The original Grand Army band, of which H. A. Hausser is manager, will give a public concert in West park, Allegheny, tomorrow evening. A program of 17 numbers has been prepared for the concert.

Judge Mullen Ill — City Assessor Thomas Mullen is a patient at the Mercy hospital, where he has been operated on for a growth on the bone below the left knee. It was at first thought Mr. Mullen was suffering from rheumatism.

Alleges She Stole $400—Carrie Hurd was yesterday held for court trial by Magistrate McKenna on a charge of larceny. Alice Winslow alleges the Hurd woman stole $400 from her trunk at No. 55 Fulton street. Both women are colored.

Mrs. Stephan Sinking—Mrs Stephen, who was shot through the lung last Thursday at her home in Laroda street, Allegheny, by Robert Siebert, a boarder, was in a greatly weakened condition yesterday. Inflammation is said to have developed in the wound.

Unknown Man Found Dead—An unknown man about 40 years old was found dead in a shed in Rodfield, Jefferson township, yesterday morning. The man is thought to have died about three days ago, and as decomposition has set in, identification will be difficult.

Wanted Him Lynched—Enoch Hauscheck of No. 25 Brabec street, Allegheny, was fined $10 yesterday by Magistrate Henry Hunneshagen of Allegheny on a charge of disorderly conduct. It is said his neighbors wanted Hauscheck lynched because he abused his child.

Hurt While Boarding a Car—George Crum of No. 203 Bair street, Allegheny, had his leg broken in three places yesterday morning by its being caught in the spokes of a wagon wheel while boarding a traction car at Beaver avenue and Bair street, Allegheny. He is at his home.

Became Insane in Jail—Joseph Henke, 35 years old, who was placed in jail Saturday night for a hearing on a charge of assault and battery made by Mrs. Sarah Metz, who occupies a portion of the house of Henke in McGartney street, has become violently insane while in jail.

Volunteer Firemen's Convention—Preparations are being made by the residents of Jeannette for the convention of the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's Association, which will be held there from August 12 to 15. The convention will be attended by volunteer firemen from all parts of the state.

Make Colonist Rates—F. B. Choate, general agent of the Union and Southern Pacifics in this city, has received notice that their lines will put in effect, during September and October, one-way colonist rates—Chicago and New Orleans to California points, $33; St. Louis, $30, and Missouri river points, $25.

Negro Had a Knife—J. R. Walker, a negro, was fined $50 yesterday morning by Magistrate Bernard McKenna on a charge of being a suspicious person. It is alleged Walker tried to break into the home of Mrs. Jennie Bradley in Ferry street and tried to stab her and her husband with a large knife.

Struck by Steel Plate—Charles Proudfoot, assistant chief of the electrical department of the Homestead steel works, was severely injured by being struck by a large steel plate, which fell from a crane which he was passing in the yards of the steel works yesterday. He was taken to his home in Second avenue, Homestead.

Arrested for Alleged Cruelty—Mary Fawcett of No. 2306 Webster avenue was arrested and gave bail before Alderman Henry Egnon yesterday on a charge of cruelty and neglect of her 11-year-old son, made by Agent James M. Kidney of the Western Pennsylvania Humane society. She will be given a hearing Thursday morning.

Stone Waived a Hearing—C. S. Stone, a carpenter, of No. 1222 Federal street, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon waived a hearing before Police Magistrate Hunneshagen on a charge of larceny preferred by Archibald Chisholm and gave bail in $300 for court. Chisholm alleges Stone stole tools belonging to him worth $100.

Shot by a Policeman—Edward Kerchligen is at the McKees Rocks hospital suffering from a bullet wound said to have been inflicted by Policeman Hogan of McKees Rocks Saturday night. Kerchligen is said to have been shot while interfering with the officer when making an arrest. The physicians say Kerchligen will recover.

Boys' Story Not Believed—Samuel Bradley and Raymond Morrison of Pleasant Valley, Allegheny, who say they were kidnaped by tramps at Ben Avon and taken to Beaver Falls, were returned home yesterday by the Beaver Falls authorities. Their story about being kidnaped is believed to be a yarn and told to escape punishment.

Landslide at Hays Station—A landslide of several hundred tons of earth occurred at Hays station early yesterday morning near the lines of the Pittsburgh Railways Company, and a large force of men are at work removing the earth in order to allow the cars to pass. It is thought it will require an entire week to remove the slide.

Woman Adjudged Insane—Mrs. Philomena Rhoda, aged 45 years, of Brable street, Troy Hill, was yesterday afternoon sent to the insane department of the Allegheny City home. Mrs. Rhoda has been acting queerly of late and yesterday morning left home and came to Allegheny Central station and complained that her neighbors were plotting to kill her. Dr. R. L. McGrew and Dr. J. K. McCance examined the woman and adjudged her insane. When searched at Central station $59 78 was found in her pocket.

Followed by Assassins—Ernest Martin, 40 years old, a German, was yesterday sent to the Allegheny City home suffering from dementia. Martin says he has been selling patent medicine for 20 years, during which time he has been hoping to meet a rich widow who would marry him. Instead an army of 60,000 assassins have been following him.

Found Mother and Child Neglected—Mrs. Tamra Solomon, wife of an Arabian peddler, and her week-old child were yesterday sent to Marshalsea. The mother and child were discovered in a badly neglected condition in a tenement house at No. 1308 Muriel street, South Side. The mother has had no attention since the child was born and the latter will die.

Fought With Traction Men—Mercinus Hoggland, H. J. Molt, Peter Kringlauss and Simeon Grubert were arrested yesterday afternoon at the Highland car barn. During the trip out it is alleged the men insisted on putting their feet on the seats and when they arrived at the barn a general fight resulted in which the traction men about the barn took part. Molt's head was cut in the melee.

Policeman Found a Tartar—Policeman William Wier yesterday morning tried to arrest and place handcuffs on James Fox, who was fighting in Diamond alley. Fox is a little fellow, but gave Policeman Wier such a tussle that he was compelled to call another officer and a white wing to assist him to land his man. When Wier first attempted to arrest Fox the latter took Wier's mace from him and beat him over the head with it.

Sued by Installment House—T. S. Frazier was committed to jail by Alderman John Downey yesterday on a charge of larceny by bailee, made by Joseph Stein, representing Friend & Co., installment furniture dealers in Liberty avenue. Frazier, it is claimed, purchased $130 worth of household goods from the company several months ago and disappeared after making the first payment and receiving the goods. He was located at Claysville, where he was arrested yesterday.

Old Mine Abandoned—The Risher coal mine at Hays station, one of the oldest coal works in the lower pools, and which has furnished employment for many men, is to be abandoned, as all the coal is said to have been taken out. Superintendent Thomas Ball, with a large gang of men are at work removing the timbers from the mine. The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company have operated the mine since the consolidation.

Hurt Releasing a Car—Frank Burriss, 13 years old, had his skull fractured in the yards of the Monongahela branch of the Pittsburgh Railways Company in Talbot avenue, Braddock, yesterday. Burriss, unseen, boarded a motionless car and released the brake, which struck him in the temple. Several men were at work under a car about 50 yards away and barely had time to crawl out from under the car before it was struck by the wild car released by the boy.

Bellevue to Celebrate—Arrangements are being made to celebrate the 35th anniversary of the organization of Bellevue borough on September 6. There will be a street parade, public meeting and street carnival in the afternoon and in the evening a pyrotechnic display, for which $1,000, has been appropriated, will be made. President Roosevelt, Gov. Stone and staff and the local military organizations will be invited. The Hon. W. B. Kirker will be chief marshal of the parade.

Homestead Men Injured—Two serious accidents occurred to Homestead people who were out driving yesterday. Louis Beck, a butcher of Heisel street, was riding in a buggy, and while turning into Heisel street from Fifth avenue, was thrown out and injured. Dr. E. P. Cuthbert, who is attending him, says he will recover. H. W. Miller, teller of the Homestead bank, attempted to catch his horse, after it had started to run away from the front of his home at Hope church, and was struck by the buggy and injured.

Friend Also Injured—David Phillips, who has been a patient at the St. John's General hospital in Allegheny since the Fourth of July, when he was injured by a traction car, yesterday attempted to walk and fell, causing his old wounds to reopen. The physicians say he will die as a result. After being taken to the hospital yesterday Phillips asked that his friend, E. H. Fordenbacher, a barber of No. 23 McClure avenue, be allowed to visit him, but it was discovered that Fordenbacher during the morning had fallen down the cellar stairs at his home and fractured both arms.

G. A. R. Hall Favored—The proposition to appropriate $250,000 for a memorial hall for the members of the G. A. R., to be erected in Pittsburgh on ground donated by the city of Pittsburgh, seems to be meeting with favor. County Commissioner Carson Mercer yesterday said he was in favor of the project, but felt uncertain as to whether the law governing the erection of a monument could be construed to include a hall. District Attorney John C. Haymaker stated that in his opinion the law will not interfere with the erection of a memorial hall, which would be a monument to the veterans of the county.

What One Cent Will Do.

One cent's worth of natural gas will heat a room 16 feet square in ordinary winter weather for 24 hours. It will cook a Sunday dinner and not heat up the whole house in summer time. Cleaner, safer and better than coal. It's the poor man's luxury. To induce non-consumers to arrange for gas now instead of waiting until winter, when streets cannot be torn up the Philadelphia Company will make connections and set meter free of charge. EARTHQUAKE SHOCK DOES GREAT DAMAGE IN CALIFORNIA.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LOMPOC, CAL., July 28.—Lompoc valley experienced a severe earthquake shock at 10:55 last night. The shock lasted fully 30 seconds, and was so severe that dishes, clocks, house plants and other articles were thrown from shelves. The people were stricken with terror and ran from their houses, some fearing to return, as other lighter shocks continued for several hours afterward. Another heavy shock was felt at 5 a. m. and one at 11 a. m. today. A large water tank was knocked over, the earth cracked at many places, and the Santa Ynez river bed slightly changed.

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., July 28.—Meager advices received from Los Alamos, 45 miles north, report that an unusually severe shock of earthquake occurred about 11 o'clock last night, doing damage to the property of the Western Union Oil Company, estimated at from $12,000 to $15,000.

At Harris station a fissure is reported to have opened and from it a stream of water two feet deep and 18 feet wide is now flowing. A slight shock of earthquake was felt in Santa Barbara shortly before 11 o'clock, but no damage was done.

OMAHA, NEB., July 28.—An earthquake shock which was general over portions of Nebraska, Western Iowa and South Dakota occurred shortly before 1 o'clock today. No damage has been reported thus far, although the shock was sufficient to rattle dishes and affect bell towers in some places. Yankton, S. D., reports a shock of 12 seconds' duration; Santee Agency, in northern Nebraska, reports a similar occurrence, and Battle Creek, Neb., was shaken for 20 seconds. In this city the shock was barely discernible.

GUARD RIFLE MATCHES.

Adjutant General Announces Program of Events for Mount Gretna in August.

HARRISBURG, July 28.—The details of the annual rifle, carbine and revolver competitions of the National Guard to be held on the state range at Mt. Gretna during the week of August 18, were announced today by Adjt. Gen. Stewart.

Each regiment of infantry, troop of cavalry and the state naval militia will be represented by a team of four men and one reserve. Practice matches for infantry and cavalry teams will be shot on August 19, regimental and cavalry matches on August 20, skirmish matches and inspector of rifle practice matches on August 21, brigade match on August 22 and Trexler trophy match on August 23.

"I suffered for three years with flooding, and nothing the medical fraternity suggested helped me any. I grew pale and thin, and lost all interest in life. A friend advised me to try Peruna. I did so and I am pleased to say that in four weeks Peruna wrought a wonderful change in me, and soon my strength returned, and new blood seemed to flow in my veins. My troubles ceased and now I enjoy perfect health."—Miss Jennie Langley.

Verdict on the Mine Disaster.

No surprise will be felt over the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case of the Johnstown mine disaster. The testimony in the main clearly foreshadowed the finding. The company could not be censured for it was shown beyond the shadow of doubt that its orders were strictly against the use of naked lights in gaseous sections and in conformity with law. The engineer of mines had transmitted those orders to the superintendent, the latter had impressed them upon the foreman, assistant foreman and the fire bosses.

If there was any negligence on the part of others than the miners it must have been that of Fire Bosses Retallick or Tomlinson, directly in charge of the Klondike section. Both of them heroically sacrificed their lives in the effort to rescue their men. No one gave testimony at the inquest uncomplimentary to either, though both were highly praised by their superiors in the mine management. Retallick was an authority upon mine gases and reputed to be over-cautious. Tomlinson's mining experience was practically coextensive with his life.

It is reasonable, then, to conclude the coroner's jury rendered a true and just verdict. For the remainder it is "up to" the experts to devise ways and means to eliminate the dangers that miners grow indifferent to, or the practices of miners who are careless of their own safety. This will not be an easy task, but is a duty that should command the most earnest effort.

Mr. Focht's Latest Sensation.

Senator B. K. Focht is given as authority for the tale that Senator Quay desires to make his son, Richard, the successor to Senator Penrose. Surprising as it may seem, a few persons, for reasons of their own, have taken the story seriously. If any have been honestly misled it is because they do not know the facetious Mr. Focht. They ought to. The Union county statesman has never neglected any opportunity to make himself known or his name familiar to the public.

Mr. Focht has been in the printing business and has a lively appreciation of the value of advertising. When he goes abroad he is always ready to be interviewed. If he does not happen to have a reasonable story in stock he has one of the other kind, and, being a joker by nature, has no objection to unloading it. Mr. Focht means well, but it is a mistake to take him seriously when he talks for publication.

To Test the Oleo Law.

It was not to be expected that the makers of oleomargarine, who have stubbornly contested the several state laws enacted in the interest of butter makers, would allow the new national law to go unchallenged. Their announced purpose to test the constitutionality of the recent act of congress is therefore not surprising. They will wait until the commissioner of internal revenue issues his instructions, and then use his interpretation of the act as a basis for beginning their attack. Oleomargarine interests will contend that the interstate commerce and tax features of the law are unconstitutional, and that the whole enactment is obnoxious class legislation.

There is ample room in this view for argument before the courts. If congress had contented itself with prescribing penalties for selling oleomargarine as butter, and with establishing reasonable regulations for the business, little or no objection could be urged, but it went much farther than this. It placed a prohibitive tax on a wholesome article of food if that article is colored, however harmlessly. There is no longer any pretense that this is necessary to prevent persons from eating something which is likely to injure them. The tax on colored oleomargarine is strictly and solely for the benefit of the dairy interests. It will be interesting to notice whether the courts will regard this as class legislation.

Oldest and Best.

With this issue The Gazette begins its one-hundred-and-seventeenth year, having been founded July 29, 1786. Looking backward the life of the paper covers a most interesting period, practically the life of the nation. As the country has developed The Gazette has grown from smallest beginnings to one of the most complete and best equipped newspapers. It is only on this one day, each year, that The Gazette has time to look backward—to take more than a glance at the past for the light that experience may throw upon present or future.

The Gazette is busy looking forward. Its time is occupied with the affairs of a great community; with the news of the day and the things that need to be done to keep the Pittsburgh region in the front rank of progress. It gives thought to the state and nation as well; gives support to the policies likely to lead to the better and stronger life of both. With its honorable career of 116 full years behind it The Gazette is striving to make a better record during the century ahead.

We may be excused on this occasion for pointing with pride to the past. Through all the long term of its existence The Gazette has been respected so that its patronage has made it successful. To command that support it must have been enterprising and courageous in defense of the right. On this 117th birthday it is more prosperous than ever, so better appreciated by the public. Its scores of readers in the beginning have grown to tens of thousands at the present. Youthful at heart, it looks out upon a cheerful prospect of broader usefulness in the future. All is well with The Gazette and all is prosperous in this region of which it has so long been representative.

Not Religion, But Politics.

Archbishop Ireland has done much to correct the mistaken belief of many Catholics that opposition to certain monastic orders in the Philippines is based on religious prejudice. Nevertheless, the human mind being tenacious of beliefs on which it has once fastened, it is slow work to impress the truth. The opposition to the friars does not come from the United States, and the circumstance that United States officials, charged with the government of the Philipines and the restoration and maintenance of good order there, have negotiated for the withdrawal of the friars, has caused the situation to be misunderstood. The Philippine government and the United States officers concerned in the Philippine administration have not asked for the withdrawal of the friars as Catholics, but as representatives of the late Spanish government. Their opponents in the Philippine islands are Catholics. It is a Catholic population that is hostile to them, not on religious but on political grounds. It would seem only ordinary good policy for the superiors of the friars to withdraw them from among a population whose political opposition might easily be changed to a religious hostility by efforts to force the ministrations of these particular clergy. The United States is concerned only for the quiet and good order of the islands, and offers a solution of the difficult problem that ought to be as acceptable to the Catholic church authorities as it is to the Catholic Filipinos.

The Future of the Boers.

The unconquered and unconquerable spirit of the Boers appears in the recent speech of Gen. Botha at Paarl, in Cape Colony, in which he said:

> All of South Africa is under one flag but the Boers have not been vanquished. Darkness is in front of them, but faith and hope will guide them through it. Africa is their fatherland, their birthright and their inheritance.

The Boers yielded to overpowering physical conditions. They were overwhelmed, but not conquered, by the superior numbers and material resources of the British empire. They remain Boers, and may yet dominate South Africa. But for the bad judgment that forced them forward to an unequal struggle they would now be dominant in all the South African dominions over which the British flag floats. They lost ground by opposing the demands of the Uitlanders, whereas they might have gone forward to peaceful conquest by yielding. When Kruger declared war the Africander party was dominant in the affairs of Cape Colony. A man with a Dutch name and Boer sympathies was premier. But the Africander party was not as a whole willing to wage war on the British flag. It was the emblem under which it had won its way to control of the Cape on the platform, "Africa for the Africanders," and it guaranteed protection from outside foes. The war that overwhelmed the Boers crippled the Africanders; peace will renew their strength. The Boers in conjunction with the Africanders can possess themselves of the government of the new colonial federation formed from Cape Colony and the wreck of the Boer republics if they are satisfied to use the weapons of peace. Then, in time, British suzerainty will become a mere nominal yoke, as it is for Canada and Australia, and South Africa will be possessed of independence de facto that may become independence de jure, if the citizens of the federation care to directly assume the international responsibilities and duties attaching thereto, instead of retaining imperial relations with Canada, Australia and Great Britain that impose on the latter obligations of defense and representation in the world's controversies and councils. The Boers have passed through the fire and so have the Britons. The former emerge much refined by the severe process and with great possibilities before them. Had they won in war they would have shut themselves off from the world as a "peculiar people." Now, having lost in war, they will, we hope, add their new strength to the forces that make for the true freedom and welfare of the human race. Gen. Botha is wrong in telling the Boers that "darkness is in front of them;" it is all behind them and they have emerged into the light, unless they cling to their old errors.

A Mistake of Minister Wu.

Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister to the United States, who is under orders to return to Peking, is accounted a wise man. Certainly he has enjoyed abundant opportunities for acquiring knowledge in a country where knowledge is plentiful, and he has missed none, when that knowledge could be had by asking questions. But he made a serious mistake in his lavish distribution of presents. There is no more generous people on the face of the globe than the Americans, but they are always willing, nevertheless, to receive something for nothing. They are, moreover, energetic collectors of souvenirs. When it became known, therefore, that Wu Ting Fang was compelled to leave us, a great many Americans wanted something to remember him by. Mrs. Wu has given a large number of remembrances to Washington women who have entertained her, and Mr. Wu began to respond to requests for keepsakes, but he has stopped. He stopped out of necessity, because the demand was far in excess of the supply. It was a mistake to begin, for while he pleased those who have received gifts, he has displeased far more by refusing.

Science Run Mad.

Koch's theory that it is impossible for human beings to catch tuberculosis from cattle is again questioned. There was some doubt in the case of the young lady whose death in the east created some sensation recently. She had been inoculated by an experimenting medical man who believed that Koch was wrong, but that it really made no difference, as he had a sovereign remedy for tuberculosis. As the death of the girl was by her own hand and an autopsy was not held, it is not certain that her morbid condition that led to suicide was due to the disease injected into her system. That may be developed later, as the body has been, or is to be, exhumed in the interest of science. A Parisian doctor thinks he has proven Koch to have been in error by successfully inoculating himself with bovine tuberculosis. He announces, with what seems an air of pride, that "the inoculation has produced tuberculosis tumors." Fearing that the first inoculation would too long remain superficial, "he again inoculated himself on July 15 by inserting under the skin of his left arm a fragment of tubercular matter from the liver of a diseased cow." It is explained in this connection, to make it further impressive, that the second form of inoculation (the first having produced results on the skin), "when performed on a guinea pig, inevitably causes death within eight weeks."

The physician who experiments on himself in the interest of science has something in him of the stuff of which martyrs are made. But others would be foolish—perhaps criminally foolish is none to strong a way of putting it—to follow in his footsteps. Pope wrote that the "maddest madman is a saint run mad," but in these days there is no madder madman than a scientist run mad. It is well to discourage and guard against all such.

Again the Pennsylvania railroad has taken up the matter of abolishing the crossings at grade over Wilkinsburg streets. This is an improvement that ought to be made and the borough can afford to go a good way in encouraging it. There are other equally dangerous crossings beyond Wilkinsburg which should also be done away with at the earliest possible day.

Official announcement of the reorganization of Jones & Laughlins, Ltd., is accompanied by gratifying details of proposed enlargement of the company's mills and furnaces. Prosperity continues to be the keynote.

MAKING OF PARKS MATTER OF MONEY

New York City Has Too Many Playgrounds for the Funds Devoted to Them.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
NEW YORK, July 28.

New York is awakening to the truth that a park is something more than a piece of waste ground. There must be trees, grass, flowers, shrubbery and other indications of pastoral beauty. Pittsburgh, when it came into possession of Schenley park, soon realized that the vast expanse of hill and vale must be cultivated, so that grass should grow thick and the shady nooks wear an inviting air of restfulness. New York has several parks which have cost the city $2,000,000 or so after being presented by private citizens and still are only dusty, unshaded, arid wildernesses. Hamilton Fish park is one example. This pleasure ground was presented to the city by the parents of young Hamilton Fish, who met his death in the Cuban war, the stipulation being that the park should be known by the name of the young man. The park is used as a playground by thousands of children, but only because, being in the heart of the Ghetto, the children are willing to play anywhere, regardless of dirt, bad smells and what would be general discomfort to more delicately nurtured youngsters. It is estimated that the ground could be converted into a splendid park for $42,000. Up in "Little Italy," which is on the east side of Harlem, there is Thomas Jefferson park, which cost the taxpayers $2,748,322. This is a vast expanse, like the Hamilton Fish park, and it is patronized as generally as the other; but it is declared to be a very poor place, compared with what it should be. It has very little grass, and, in fact, it demands an expenditure of $250,000—a cool quarter of a million—for its improvement, according to the commissioner having this particular matter under control. The weakness in the New York system is that there are too many parks for the money usually appropriated for their maintenance. Parks cannot be kept up to a high point of beauty unless a great deal of money is spent on them, and that fact seems to be just striking home in this city.

Why the Pie Strike Collapsed.

It was a peculiar combination that ended the strike of the pie-bakers in this city. The makers of the pastry desired to work in the daylight instead of at night; but the drivers of the delivery wagons stopped this movement, because they objected to driving their wagons around in the evening. The bakers have given in and are at work again. The pies go out early in the morning, as they have for the last quarter of a century, and all is gastronomic happiness and dyspepsia, as of old. New York likes its pie and it wants the article fresh every morning, early.

New York Resorts of Pittsburghers.

Among the many places to which New Yorkers go for rest and good air in the summer is the Ramapo hills. It is in this neighborhood that the far-famed Tuxedo park is situated, the park that has given its name to those hideous bobtailed coats which Chicago men wear as evening dress at formal dinners; and there are many other retreats among the hills which are more or less known to coteries of summer visitors. One of the most popular is known as "Glen Mill farm," which is about 10 miles from any other habitation and is filled with guests, summer and winter alike. It was discovered by a party of Pittsburghers a few years ago and ever since that time has had its Pittsburgh contingent pretty regularly. It is in the heart of the Ramapos and is as popular in its way as Pennsylvania's own Bedford Springs.

Stand-Pipe and Megaphone Successes.

There was a test of stand-pipes over on Forty-second street today, and it caused as much excitement, as if there had been a large fire. To begin with, Croker of the fire department, took his stand on the roof of a high building and bellowed orders to his men in the street through a megaphone. He wanted to find out whether his voice could be heard. It was heard, not only by his men, but by several hundred open-mouthed curiosity-mongers, as well. The stand-pipe was tried at the Hotel Manhattan, which is 17 stories high, the roof being 225 feet from the ground. Two engines were used, and by making what is known to the firemen as a "simes" connection, a stream of water was thrown through the top of the pipe and fell near the Grand Central station. The test showed a pressure of 280 opunds at the bottom and 75 pounds at the top. Following the test through the top of the pipe, the valves on the upper nine floors were opened, and streams of water came from each valve simultaneously. The chief declared the stand-pipe and megaphone both entire successes.

May Irwin Done With the Stage.

May Irwin got back to New York today on the big ship Minnehaha, the vessel on which The Pittsburgh Gazette and Chronicle Telegraph teachers' excursion party left this city on the Fourth of July for a big European tour. Miss Irwin announced, first of all, as soon as she had stepped ashore, that she had retired from the stage for good. Then she said she was off for her home in the Thousand Islands, adding: America is the land for me. I would not trade my New York house for Buckingham palace, with the houses of parliament thrown in." Miss Irwin was accompanied by her two strapping young sons.

Library Check in Waste Paper.

It is rather disheartening to a man who has given $300 for a library to find that the beneficiary did not even take the trouble to cash the check. That was the experience of James Stokes, and he was disturbed about it last night. He said that he gave the check to Theodore Roosevelt six years ago, who was at that time a police commissioner, with little thought of so soon becoming president of the United States, requesting him to use it for a library for the Tenderloin police station. Today the check was found among some old papers at police headquarters, never having been cashed. The chances are that the police will not get that library now.

The Bronx's Magnificent Highway.

Mayor Low has affixed his signature to the $1,250,000 appropriation for the grand concourse and boulevard in the Bronx, and now nothing remains but to award the contracts for the work, which will put this wonderful highway in condition for use. These contracts will be let early in August, and some of the most prominent contractors in the city have signified their intention of bidding for the work. It is figured that the concourse will be finished within three years, and that when complete it will be incomparable the world over.

Musee Management Exonerated.

One of the aldermen of this city charged that the American Museum of Natural History, in the west side of Central park, had been conducted wastefully, and an expert accountant was appointed to investigate. He has just made his report. He says that he has made a careful examination of the methods employed by the museum officials to safeguard that institution in the disbursement both of its own funds and the moneys which it receives by annual appropriation from the city, and finds them commendable in the highest degree. This is pleasant news to many Pittsburghers, as well as to New Yorkers, for the museum is one of the most admirable public institutions in this metropolis. The building was finished only a few years ago, and is a prominent object on the route of the Sixth avenue "L" as one rides up to Harlem.

Another Nail in Boxing's Coffin.

The charge by one of the New York papers that the pugilistic contest between Fitzsimmons and Jeffries in San Francisco on Friday night was a fake is keeping up a correlative interest in the battle which may be a good thing for boxing, but does not look like it. The consensus of opinion along Broadway, so far as it can be gathered, is that the fight was "on the square," but conservative sporting men are waiting for developments before giving a final verdict. However it may be determined at last there is no doubt but that the question being raised at all will not tend toward a revival of the Horton law or anything similar in New York. Boxing for money in public seems to be killed in New York.

Artillery Record Broken.

There was a smash-up of all records for round firing by 10-inch rifles mounted on barbette carriages at a trial held at Sandy Hook this morning before the special gun carriage board, 36 rounds being fired in 42 minutes. The firing was conducted in three sets of 10 rounds each and executed by different gun crews. The first 10 rounds were fired in 14 minutes, the second in 15 minutes and the third in 12 minutes. The best time was made by a crew composed entirely of the baseball and football players of the Forty-eighth company coast artillery, stationed at Fort Hancock. The officers composing the special gun carriage board have gone to New London and the tests will be continued tomorrow at Fort Wright.

Two "Yeggs" in the Tombs.

In the Tombs is a pair of crooks known in the vernacular as "yeggs." They are described as of a disreputable order of grafter, who may be vagabonds, hoboes, pickpockets or road agents, without any specialty. The names of the prisoners are given as Thomas O'Brien and Frank Collins. They are charged with cracking a safe at Fort Chester last week. It is believed these "yeggs" have operated in Pittsburgh within the last few months.

Gotham's Sea Serpent Dead.

New York has lost its sea serpent. The interesting pet, scientifically known as a channomuraena vitata, which has attracted crowds to the Aquarium ever since his advent from Bermuda, now graces a glass jar, for he is dead, and formaldehyde in place of water is his element. The monster was seriously injured by the hook which caught him in the island stream.

A Tale From West Virginia.

"Uncle Jo" in the Philippi (W. Va.) Republican.

This is not a fishy story, but there is no doubt but what we have lively fish in our waters, as all you have to do is to go out in your boat and row along near the shore and they will leap in until you say you have a mess. Not long since a man was crossing the river near the mouth of Pleasant creek and 19 of the leaping tribe landed in his boat, which frightened him so he made for shore at once. I have heard of others being treated the same way, but felt a little doubtful until last Saturday morning. While crossing the river there was a big bass or jumping fish landed himself in my boat. The pesky thing scared me so I just said now are you Mr. Fish and made for the shore, as the law says you must not take fish only with hook and line.

An East Side Episode.

From the New York Times.

"So you have a little sweetheart?" said an East Side worker to a lad who was walking down Avenue C, holding a little girl by the hand.

"Naw," said the boy, coloring, "she's my sister."

An then he added in a whisper, so the girl wouldn't hear:

"Sister ain't got no fellow 'cause she's got consumption, and ain't purty, so I'm playin' her fellow, an' sister's better'n any other girl, anyway."

Always a Reason on Hand.

From the Philadelphia Press.

Of course, the New York board of aldermen experienced no difficulty in finding valid objections enough to warrant them in rejecting the Pennsylvania railroad tunnel contract. It is also noteworthy that no experienced grafter was ever at a loss for a reason for anything.

New Order for Salisbury.

From the Baltimore American.

Lord Salisbury, it is gravely announced, is now a K. G. C. R. V. O. Over here we would call him a H. A. S. B. E. E. N.

FROM THE EXCHANGES.

Otto Phillips, who was out in the huckleberry mountains last week, says the low blue variety is very scarce. The high ones, which come about three weeks later, he says will be abundant. "Rattlesnakes," exclaimed Otto, "you never saw anything like it. Everybody's killin' 'em. There was at least a dozen in our party, and every one of them killed from three to 15 snakes. And big ones, too! I saw one as thick as your leg. Biggest brute of a snake I ever saw. You don't catch me going out there again this year."—Punxsutawney Spirit.

While John Metheral, aged 17, was picking berries on the Catawissa mountain near Bloomsburg, Pa., this morning he was attacked by two rattlesnakes, and, after a battle lasting 15 minutes, managed to dispatch both reptiles. They measured four feet in length, and one was equipped with 13 and the other 10 rattles. Adam Brossius and wife were badly frightened by the appearance of a large catamount with four young ones, on the Catawissa mountain this afternoon. The animals made no attempt to attack them, and quickly disappeared when a stone was thrown by Mr. Borssius.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

A panther which escaped from a circus is at large at Jamestown, Pa., a few miles from Greenville, and farmers are afraid to venture out after dark. The animal attacked Charles McCormick, but beyond a few scratches he was uninjured. Thirty farmers searched for the animal and found a little daughter of the Rev. B. A. Buzza, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, buried to her armpits in a swamp. She had wandered from home and was half dead from exposure. Her parents were distracted over her long absence, fearing that she had been devoured by the panther. The beast was seen by several people.—Kane Evening Courier.

About 10 days ago a woman who had been bitten by a snake near Pittsburgh was brought to the home of Prof. Phillips in Beaver Falls for treatment. Prof. Phillips is a hypnotist and he immediately went to work to cure her. The woman was bitten on the foot and the swelling extended to both limbs and finally effected body and mind. On her arrival here she would put out her tongue and hiss like a snake. She was unable to walk and appeared to be getting worse instead of better. Yesterday she was able to walk to the train and seemed to be entirely cured. The professor used no medicine and it is claimed that he effected a complete cure by hypnotism.—Beaver Falls Review.

KING ALFONSO'S SUMMER PALACE

A Delightful Place Cordially Hated by the Queen Christina.

By the MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

King Alfonso has announced that save for a brief visit to Bilbao and Santander this week, he will remain at San Sebastian until September 8, on which date he goes to Oviedo, capital of the ancient province of the Asturias, in the cathedral of which repose the remains of numerous early kings. It is celebrated as having been during the times of the Moorish domination of Spain the only city of any importance that was never captured by the Moors.

The month of October will be spent at the palace of La Granja, which is situated about 40 miles from Madrid in a sheltered recess of the mountains in the midst of pine forests 4,000 feet above the level of the sea. It is an exquisitely beautiful place, which owes its creation to King Philip V., and has frequently been described as the Versailles of Spain. It was at La Granja that Philip abdicated in 1724 in favor of his son, at whose death in the same year he resumed the crown. It was there, too, that the infamous Godoy, the Prince of Peace and favorite of King Charles IV., signed the famous treaty of 1796, which surrendered Spain to republican France.

Among the relics of the entombed of the palace in which King Philip V. and his wife are interred is the "baculo" or staff of St. Isabel of Hungary, and from time immemorial this relic is placed in the hands of the queens of Spain when in childbirth, with the idea that it may not only preserve their own lives, but bring blessing to the infant.

Queen Hates the Place.

The present generation is ignorant of the cause of the queen's hatred of this most delightful and picturesque and always cool and healthy summer residence of the crown of Spain. But older people recall that it was at La Granja that some of the most painful quarrels between Christina and her husband took place, quarrels arising from the thoroughly justified jealousy of the queen, and it is in the gardens of La Granja that the duke of Sesto, who will be remembered in this country as president of the Spanish commission to the Columbian Exhibition, in 1893, received a stinging slap on the face from the irate queen when he ventured to put out his hand in an attempt to bar her entrance into a pavilion or kiosque in the grounds, where the king was engaged in according an audience to a fascinating duchess now dead.

It was from La Granja, too, that Queen Christina made her sensational departure from Spain, traveling straight to Vienna, from whence she was only induced with much difficulty to return by her kinsman, warm friend and sagacious counsellor, Emperor Francis Joseph.

The queen in spite of all of this was deeply attached to her flighty and, in affairs of heart, extremely frivolous husband, and it is, therefore, quite natural that she should dislike a place, no matter how beautiful, that recalls to her memory some of the most painful and mortifying episodes of her married life.

Another Royal Residence.

It is doubtful whether young King Alfonso will make any stay at the only other one of his country residences; namely, Aranjuez, which, however, is much more familiar to him, as until 1897 Queen Christina was in the habit of invariably spending the late spring there within her children. It is situated on the banks of the River Tagus, sheltered from the winds by an immense and splendid forest, teaming with almost as much game as in the days of St. Simon, many of the episodes described in the famous "memoirs" having taken place there. It owes its origin as a royal residence to Emperor Charles V., but was subsequently destroyed by fire, and in its present condition dates back to the middle of the eighteenth century.

Formerly its walls were adorned with magnificent old masters, but most of these were transferred during the reign of Queen Isabella to the Prado Museum, at Madrid, which contains what is today probably the grandest national collection of old masters in all Europe. This museum was built by King Charles III. some 120 years ago as a natural history museum, according to the designs of the famous architect, Juan de Villanueva. But Charles III. died while the building was in progress. During the French invasion the museum was used as a barracks, and it was not until 1819 that King Ferdinand VII., prompted by his second wife, Isabel de Braganza, inaugurated a national gallery in the building. In 1840 the treasures of the National museum of the Trinidad were transferred to the Prado, and when during the early years of the reign of Queen Isabella so many of the monasteries and convents were suppressed, the paintings preserved until that time within their walls were sent to the Prado, which has today more than 2,000 paintings, everyone a masterpiece.

Prince Has Many Titles.

I hear that the prince of Monaco is endeavoring to effect some arrangement with his former wife with the object of inducing her to surrender the use of her title of princess of Monaco, offering her the use of one of his numerous other dignities instead. He suggests that she should style herself duchess of Valentinois, or duchess of Mazarin, which latter title would be quite appropriate, seeing that her first husband (now dead) was the duke de Richelieu.

It was King Louis XIV. of France who conferred the French dukedoms of Valentinois, of Mazarin and of Estouteville, as well as the dukedom of Mayenne upon the then reigning prince of Monaco, Honorius I., in order to compensate him for the confiscation of his vast possessions in Italy by the then king of Naples and of Spain, as a punishment for having transferred the protection of his principality of Monaco from the crown of Spain and Naples to King Louis XIV. of France.

Moreover, Louis XIV. gave to the prince of Monaco as a token of his regard Mlle. de Gramont, the fairest beauty of his court as consort.

Monte Carlo's Tree of Knowledge.

The lady who rejoiced in the blondest of hair and the most flashing of coal black eyes did not like Monaco, nor her husband. So she left him and returned to the court of Versailles, declining even to call herself princess of Monaco, but styling herself instead duchess of Valentinois. She was greatly surrounded and courted, and every now and again stories would reach Monaco of her conquest. This exasperated her husband, who, however, was helpless to do anything to prevent her indiscretions or to keep her within bounds.

ut he had his revenge in another way. There is a grand old tree, hundreds of years old on the square behind the palace at Monte Carlo, and whenever his spies from Paris and from Versailles brought reports of some new indiscretion on the part of the duchess, and a description of her new favorite, a life-sized dummy, destined to portray the latter, was manufactured and hung by the neck to the branch of this tree. The ruler of Monaco then summoned all his loyal subjects, and it was their duty to pelt this dummy counterpart of the successful rival of their prince with mud and with offal.

In course of time the dummies on the tree became so numerous that special gallows were erected around it until the matter was finally brought to the attention of King Louis by his pious, but immoral wife, Madame de Maintenon, whose religious prejudices it offended, and accordingly a special mission was dispatched from Versailles to Monte Carlo, which resulted in the disappearance of the gallows, and likewise of the crowd of dummies from this tree, which is still in existence, and which is known to this day as the "Tree of Knowledge."

THE DEATH ROLL.

Mrs. George A. Kelly.

Mrs. Agnes Roseburg Kelly, wife of George A. Kelly, died yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the family home, Shady avenue and Howe street, East End, of heart disease. Mrs. Kelly had been in ill-health only since last Thursday and her death yesterday was unexpected by both her family and the physicians. Mrs. Kelly was a daughter of Samuel Roseburg and a member of one of the oldest families in this section. She was an active worker and a member of the East Liberty Presbyterian church, and was secretary of the board of the Home for Protestant Men and Women in Wilkinsburg. She also took an active part in mission work, having at one time been treasurer of the Women's Foreign Mission societies of the presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. At the time of her death she was vice president of the home and foreign missionary societies of the presbyteries of Pittsburgh and Allegheny. Mrs. Kelly is survived by her husband and four children: George A., Jr., Samuel R., Grace E. and Agnes R. Kelly. Mrs. Kelly was a sister of William Roseburg, vice president of the Bank of Pittsburgh.

Miss Jane Howley.

Miss Jane Howley died yesterday at the home of her niece, Miss Mary J. Malloy. She will be buried from the Sacred Heart Catholic church, East End, tomorrow at 9:30 a. m. Miss Howley was 70 years old. She came to America 45 years ago and joined her sister, Mrs. Malloy. She lived with Mrs. Malloy, and after her death reared her nieces, Misses Mary J. and Ella. Miss Howley had been a member of St. Paul's cathedral congregation for more than 40 years, and two years ago she became a member of the Sacred Heart church.

Miss Edna E. Scott.

Miss Edna Elizabeth Scott, 15 years old, of Wilkinsburg, who was visiting her uncle, John Clark, at Fairmont, W. Va., died unexpectedly yesterday morning. She had been confined to her home, No. 7923 Susquehanna street, for some time with typhoid fever, but last week it was thought that she had completely recovered and she was sent to the home of her uncle to regain strength. Miss Scott was the daughter of the late Martin Scott, a well-known mail carrier. The remains will be brought to Wilkinsburg for interment tomorrow.

Stephen L. Baldwin, D. D.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The Rev. Dr. Stephen L. Baldwin, recording secretary of the missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, died today in Brooklyn of typhoid fever. He was 67 years of age. Dr. Baldwin was born at Somerville, N. J., and entered the ministry in 1858. From 1859 until 1882, with the exception of two years, he was a missionary in China. He assisted in translating the scriptures, the "discipline" of the Methodist Episcopal church, etc., into the Fukien colloquial dialect. In June, 1889, he was elected recording secretary of the missionary society.

Mrs. Margaret C. Meyers.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell Meyers, 75 years old, widow of Martin Meyers, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emil Bihlman, No. 2 Utica place. Mrs. Meyers was born in Chambersburg. She had been ailing for two months. She is survived by her children, Mrs. Bihlman, Mrs. E. H. Sutmeyer, Martin, William, Edward and George Meyers, and her brother, Frank Campbell. Mr. Campbell is the sole survivor of his six brothers who enlisted in the Union army during the rebellion.

The Rev. Robert Morrison.

FULTON, MO., July 28.—The Rev. Robert Morrison, one of the founders of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity, and prominent in educational work for many years, is dead at his late home near here of senile debility, aged 80 years. Mr. Morrison wrote the bond of the fraternity and designed the lodge. He was editor of the Louisville Presbyterian Herald from 1855 to 1860, and was later associated with Stuart Robinson in the publication of the Louisville True Presbyterian, which was suppressed by military authorities in 1863.

Peter Beech.

Peter Beech, 65 years old, a well-known farmer of Wilkins township, one mile east of Wilkinsburg, died suddenly of hemorrhage at his home yesterday morning. Mr. Beech is survived by a widow and eight children: John F. and Edward Beech of Wilkins township; Jacob, Charles and William Beech of Wilkinsburg; Mrs. William L. Smeltz, of No. 1215 Hill avenue, Wilkinsburg; Mrs. Watson, of Penn township and Mrs. Sanders of Wilkinsburg.

Samuel Shaffer.

CONNELSSVILLE, PA., July 28.—Samuel Shaffer, a pioneer resident of Saltlick township, died suddenly this morning at the age of 75. He had walked a mile from his home and was taking breakfast with a neighbor, when he collapsed in his chair and died in a few minutes. He was the father of a large family.

Obituary Notes.

Jean Georges Vibert, the Parisian painter and author, is dead. He was born in 1840.

Max Mattes, a prominent sewer pipe manufacturer of Newton Falls, O., died yesterday aged 68 years. He leaves a family.

James madison Jeffreys, a prominent business man of Grafton, W. Va., and former mining superintendent, is dead, aged 49 years.

Van R. Patterson, aged 54, former judge of the supreme court of California, is dead at San Francisco. He was a native of New York.

David Evans, 57 years old, an engineer at Jones & Laughlins, limited, died suddenly of heart trouble at his home in Lower St. Clair township yesterday morning.

Samuel Donley, 87 years old, father of former Deputy Coroner Mark Donley, is dead at his late home in Elizabeth, where he removed from the South Side about 15 years ago.

Col. James B. Maynard, former editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, and for many years one of the most prominent newspaper men in Indiana, died at Indianapolis yesterday, aged 83.

Ellis N. Johnson, aged 77, a prominent resident of Alliance, O., is dead. He was a son of Ellis Johnson, a goverament surveyor from Washington county in 1818, and who died in Alliance in 1889 at the age of 100 years.

Joseph Hudgen, 68 years old, an old-time freight conductor of the Pennsylvania railroad, is dead at his late home, No. 1901 Market street, Allegheny, in which city he had lived for 49 years. His widow and three children survive.

John H. Gorhan, 57 years old, proprietor of the West End hotel, is dead at his late home, No. 1 Mills avenue, Braddock. He was a native of Ireland and had resided in Braddock for the past 20 years.

RECORDER BROWN NOT A CANDIDATE NEXT FEBRUARY

City's Chief Executive Will Retire from Politics After Fall Election.

INTERESTED IN BUSINESS

Investments in Oil Land and Other Ventures Are Rapidly Making Him a Rich Man—Col. A. J. Logan Considered For Nomination.

City Recorder J. O. Brown will not be a candidate for election to the office which he now holds. The recorder does not say so for publication. But he has told his friends, and some of his friends have told their friends, and the story, long suspected, is out. Recorder Brown sees opening for himself a career as a business man, and is perfectly willing to forego the uncertainties of politics to take up a business career. For that reason Recorder Brown is off the map so far as election to that office is concerned. In getting off he is giving up his dearest ambition.

The announcement by the recorder himself has not yet been made, and it is more than possible that it will not be made until long after the fall election. His candidacy has been accepted to keep out of the field a number of ambitious politicians who think they could be elected to the office. With Mr. Brown in the field they can be kept out until the organization. If there is anything left of it after the fall election, can induce some business man with a clean record to become its candidate and lead it in its last battle.

County Fight Important.

The county fight is to have a great deal of bearing upon the recordership contest next February, and the members of the organization now realize that to make any headway next spring they must put a business man on the ticket who is known to be a man of good executive ability, a man with an absolutely clean record, and a man who has always been a Republican without being strongly identified with any of the present factions. They realize the difficulty to be met in inducing such a man to take the machine nomination.

Recorder Brown now is devoting his time to making money. His oil investments are turning out excellently. He spends a great deal of his time in the oil fields, and is preparing to make other investments. If his present plans work out he will be a rich man. While the recorder's friends assert that he is not neglecting city business there is a great deal of complaint on the part of many people, who say that he should spend more time in his office. They hold that they are never able to find him.

Engrossed Business.

Many people think that when he is not in his City hall office he is at Republican headquarters or somewhere else looking after his political fences and organization business. This is not altogether true. When he is not in his City hall office he is often looking after his private interests. Politics now engrosses little of his time.

Recorder Brown always prided himself on carrying out the political agreements he made with state leaders. His last agreement has been carried out. When the famous deal was made at Atlantic City last summer, when Gov. W. A. Stone agreed to remove Recorder A. M. Brown and appoint J. O. Brown in his place, Senator William Flinn and Recorder J. O. Brown agreed that Allegheny county delegation to the state convention should vote for John P. Elkin. Recorder Brown carried out that contract, delivering all the votes except six, and those six he admittedly could not control. His books, politically, are balanced. He is willing to drop the reins.

Organization Is Split.

Another reason that prompts him to desert the arena is that he is practically forced out. The organization has deserted him. The leaders no longer come to him for anything else than railroad passes. It is probable that he could not be the candidate if he would—that is, the candidate of the entire organization. He could force his nomination in a convention. But half the organization would openly bolt the ticket.

A city official who is a close friend of the recorder said yesterday: "I am convinced that Recorder Brown will not be a candidate for election to the office. He has turned his attention to making money. He seems to be content with that. I am convinced that he will give up politics when the county fight is over."

Pressed to answer the question whether Recorder Brown had told him he would not be a candidate, his friend would not reply. He refused to discuss the matter further.

Col. A. J. Logan is being strongly discussed as the organization candidate.

AN OLD CONTRACT WAS FINALLY LET

DIRECTOR M'CANDLESS STARTS WORK ON RECREATION GROUNDS.

After the Old Bedford Basin Is Drained and Levelled the Munificent Sum of $50 Will Remain to Make It a Playground.

After 17 months of weary waiting the contract for the improvement of Bedford basin, to be used as a recreation grounds, was finally awarded yesterday. Councils in February, 1901, appropriated $1,500 for the purpose and ever since that date the city administration has been rushing at top speed toward letting the contract. This was done yesterday, and Director J. Guy McCandless has discovered that after draining the basin and levelling it, he has about $50 with which to make it presentable. With a resumption of that appalling speed, the recreation grounds may be ready for use by the summer of 1903.

After a great deal of work, representatives of the women's clubs of the state, and kindred organizations, were able to get a law enacted by the state legislature, authorizing city councils in cities of the first and second class to appropriate money for recreation grounds for school children in populous districts.

Clubs Did the Work.

The ladies' clubs of Pittsburgh, with the Civic club, and several other organizations, appointed committees which jointly came to be known as the Playgrounds association. These committees delegated their powers to representatives, and these representatives went to work on the city councils. They wrestled with the question throughout the summer of 1900, and finally secured a promise that something would be done in the appropriation bill of 1901.

This promise was partially redeemed when the appropriation bill was put together in February, 1901, and $1,500 was placed in the bill. This amount was about $2,000 at first, but when the people demanded that the tax rate be cut down to 15 mills, this, in company with many other appropriations was scaled, and when the bill finally passed, there was only $1,500.

This work ought to have been begun and finished in the summer of 1901, but the contract was let to James H. McQuaide only yesterday.

Director McCandless stated yesterday that McQuaide is to go to work on the contract as soon as possible. A sewer is to be first constructed that will drain the basin. After the water is gone, the basin is to be thoroughly leveled, and that is about all that the director will be able to do with it, under the appropriation. The contract price is $1,450, and this leaves but $50 with which to improve the place, and make it fit as a recreation grounds.

There is not even any provision for maintaining the place, or for a watchman, and it will probably be spoiled by vandals in a short time after it is gotten into shape. The experience has been that where there is no watchman, the grounds are monopolized by older boys, who ought to be working, and frighten away from the place the smaller children, for whom the grounds are intended.

Director McCandless said yesterday that he expected to put a few benches there. The balance in hand—$50, will buy quite a few benches, but that is all. A determined effort will be made next February to have the city put some more money into these recreation grounds.

STRIKE CAUSES LAWSUIT.

Delaware Court Decides in Favor of a Pittsburgh Company.

WILMINGTON, DEL., July 28.—(Special.)—A jury in the United States court today awarded to the Frank Kneeland Machine Company of Pittsburgh a verdict for $3,492 15 in its suit against the Johnson Forge Company of Wilmington.

The Kneeland Company contracted to furnish a rolling mill to the local company, but was prevented by a strike from delivering the machinery on time. The Johnson Forge Company refused to pay for the mill, claiming that it had lost money by the delay. The verdict represents the cost of the machinery, with interest from the time payment was refused.

INQUIRIES ANSWERED.

Mrs. M. M. T. writes: Should fruits be sugared long before serving them?

Sugaring Fruits.

Oranges, bananas and pineapple should be sugared and allowed to stand for half an hour, but peaches discolor quickly and should not be sliced and sugared until just before serving. Ripe currants should be sugared well, slightly crushed and allowed to stand until the sugar dissolves.

Blackberries, raspberries and huckleberries should be served unsweetened, and sugar and cream passed with them.

Seasoning Vegetables.

Mrs. D. writes: When should vegetables be seasoned and how much salt, pepper and butter should be used when one wishes to be exact?

If the water is hard, do not salt the vegetables until partly done. Potatoes are better not salted until done. Allow two teaspoonfuls of salt to a quart of water. For a quart of small cooked vegetables, like peas, beans, onions, etc., or a quart of mashed or diced turnips or potatoes, use four tablespoonfuls of salt and quarter of a teaspoonful of white pepper.

Society.

MISS NETTIE D. ELLSWORTH of Ottawa, Ill., is spending a few weeks in Pittsburgh on her way home from New York. Miss Ellsworth is well known among progressive musicians as the inventor of a kindergarten method for imparting musical instruction to children. Her method is unique in the field of music and has been proven to be very practical wherever it has been introduced.

Miss Ellsworth went to New York for the annual meeting of the National Music Teachers' association, before which she was invited to lecture, her subject being the "Kindergarten Method of Music Instruction for Children." This method she uses herself in her classes when her pupils are young and it has received the approval of the National Music Teachers' association. Miss Ellsworth has a class of 60 pupils in Chicago and at her home in Ottawa, a suburb of the Windy City, many of whom are boys and girls, for whose instruction she has adapted her kindergarten method, illustrating the wearisome short studies with interesting pictures and sketches of the composers and incidents in their lives. Since coming to Pittsburgh Miss Ellsworth has been busy, for proofs of some of her latest compositions have been received, sent her by her publishers, and they have been corrected and returned.

Miss Ellsworth has been much interested in kindergarten work, though dealing more intimately with the kindergarten teachers in their training school than with the practical working of the individual kindergarten children. Her method of music instruction has been accepted as one of the most interesting as well as most successful features of the course of training for the music teacher, as well as the teacher in the kindergarten.

Miss Ellsworth, since her arrival in Pittsburgh a few days ago, has been visiting Mrs. W. L. Lindsay and Miss Bertha Albert in Homewood. From New York she went to Providence, R. I., and Boston, Mass., and on her way home is stopping for a few weeks in Pittsburgh.

Members of a Bridal Party.

Having selected October 8 as their wedding day Miss Estelle Montgomery and Frank Beatty Davenport have chosen the members of their bridal party. Miss Frances C. Montgomery, a sister of the bride-elect, will be the maid of honor; Miss Etta Eyster, Miss Julia Davenport, Miss Mary France and Miss Mary Darragh of Beaver, the bridesmaids; Robert Caldwell, best man, and George Kepler, Dan M. Buck, Charles Eyster, George Steele, Chester Balzell and Guy Bartlett the ushers. On Thursday of this week a dinner will be given for the young people by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Montgomery, the parents of the bride-elect, at their home, "Idle Hours," in Sewickley.

In Honor of Three Brides.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Eccles have invitations out for a reception which they will give this evening at their home in Eccles street, South Pittsburgh, from 8 o'clock until 10. The guests of honor will be three recent brides, Mrs. Harry G. Eccles, who was Miss McCormick of Enslow, Pa., the wife of their only son; Mrs. James Elmer Conway, formerly Miss Della L. Thompson of Monessen, Pa., and Mrs. Robert H. Conway, Jr., who was Miss Inez M. Vogel of Pittsburgh, the wives of two nephews.

A Pittsburgh Teacher Will Wed.

The wedding of Miss Cora Edna Green of Bennett street, Homewood, and James A. Wilkinson will take place on Thursday evening, July 31. Miss Green is a popular primary school teacher in Pittsburgh and Mr. Wilkinson the purchasing agent for the McClintic-Marshall Construction Company. After a wedding trip in the eastern states the bride and bridegroom will be at home at No. 7725 Edgerton avenue, Wilkinsburg.

A Hazelwood Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth McKisic and Charles W. Breen will take place in St. Stephen's Roman Catholic church, Hazelwood, next Monday, August 4. At home days after September 1 in Ben Venue avenue, East End, have been announced.

People Here and There.

Mrs. Margaret Foster and her daughter of Roup street, East End, are visiting Mrs. W. G. Ewing in Erie, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howard Park are in New York and will sail today on the Kronprinz Wilhelm for Germany, where they expect to remain until the middle of September, when they will return to America.

Mr. and Mrs. William Metcalf and Miss Metcalf have been at their country place, "Leilani," Braeburn, Pa., since in June and will not open their town house in Cliff street until October part of September or even October. They will go on this week to New York for the wedding of Miss Kathleen Kelly and Orlando Paul Metcalf next Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Pew of North Highland avenue, East End, closed their home in June, going to their place in the country, near Mercer. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pew are spending the summer with them. The children will return to school the middle of September and Miss Ethel Pew goes to Bryn Mawr college from Miss Thurston's school, where she was graduated with honors in June. The family will not return to town until October.

IT MAKES THE BABIES HAPPY

to young and old comes as a blessing in hot weather. It makes lady and baby sweet as roses. It is Nature's greatest skin remedy. It is the only soap in which the extraordinary powers of Witch Hazel have been successfully incorporated.

It is at once a medicine for ailing skins; a delight to the fastidious toilet, and a soap that is more cleansing and more soothing than anything yet devised.

If you would be cool, if you would wash away evil humors, if you would keep the pores open and the flesh sweet and clean, stop at the nearest drug store and ask for Munyon's Witch Hazel Soap. Price 15 cents. It will be an investment productive of as much good as a trip to the seashore.

If you have anything wrong with your skin or blood, depend upon it that, for almost nothing, I will cure you. Take my blood cure—it's 25 cents. If your liver is troubling you, take my liver cure, which, in a short time, makes your liver as good as new—it's 25 cents.

Thus you start the evil humors of the body on the way out. Stimulate the pores with Munyon's Witch Hazel Soap and you will attack the enemy from within and without. No better health campaign could be planned. Besides—

MUSH MAKES MISERY.

The old theory that mush makes a practical diet has been exploded by modern scientific research, by physicians of great repute, such as Chittenden, of Yale, and men of like scientific fame. It has been proven that mush is in a class with indigestible wheat cakes, black coffee and like dietetic crimes. Mush lies in the stomach, a pasty, indigestible mass, fermenting and producing discomfort and indigestion. Such a diet lowers the vitality and leads to serious and often fatal bodily ills. Discard mush and treat your system royally to Toasted Wheat Flakes, sweetened with Malt Honey, which is a toothsome delicacy, easily digested and makes strong muscles, mind and nerve. Every package of genuine Toasted Wheat Flakes bears a picture of the Battle Creek Sanitarium.

Wayne & Chicago Railway, the Ohio Connecting Railway and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, from California avenue to Preble avenue, with approaches to Preble avenue and West Market street, in the City of Allegheny, Pennsylvania, and for said purpose changing the grade of a portion of Superior Run avenue.

Whereas, In 1885, the Pennsylvania Co., operating the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, constructed a viaduct from Superior Run avenue over their tracks to Preble avenue, with an approach from the north on Preble avenue, and with an approach from the south on West Market street, and

Whereas, It is desirable to rebuild the said viaduct at a different grade and in a different location, now, therefore,

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the Pennsylvania Co., operating the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway and the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, and the Ohio Connecting Railway Co., be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in lieu of the present viaduct, to construct and maintain a new steel viaduct with masonry foundations, wooden floor and footwalks; and substantial iron railings, from the easterly property line of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway Co. to the northerly or easterly line of Preble avenue, in accordance with the plan dated the 9th day of May, 1902, bearing the indorsements of the director of the Department of Public Works and the chief engineer of the said railway companies.

The said viaduct shall have two sidewalks six (6) feet each clear width from the easterly line of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway Co.'s property to the easterly line of Preble avenue. The south approach to the viaduct from West Market street shall have one footwalk six (6) feet clear width, along the easterly side, and a roadway having a clear width of twenty-one (21) feet, and the north approach to the viaduct from Preble avenue shall have one footwalk, six (6) feet clear width, along the easterly side, and a roadway having a clear width of twenty-one (21) feet.

Section 2—The street grade at the intersection of California avenue and Superior Run avenue be and the same is hereby fixed at its present level, at an elevation of seven hundred eighty-one and one-tenth (781.1) feet above mean datum of the Atlantic ocean as used by the railway company for its elevation; thence westerly by an curved grade of one-half (½) feet per hundred (100) feet to a point over the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway, where the elevation shall be seven hundred eighty-four and one-tenth (784.1) feet, which elevation shall be maintained for a distance of about eighty-two (82) feet; thence descending toward Preble avenue by a grade of six (6) feet in one hundred (100) feet to a point whose elevation shall be seven hundred sixty-seven and three-tenths (767.3) feet, where the approach from West Market street from the south connects with the viaduct proper; thence descending toward Preble avenue by a grade of six (6) feet in one hundred (100) feet to a point whose elevation shall be seven hundred fifty-six and six-tenths (756.6) feet; thence northerly by an approach along Preble avenue on a grade of six (6) feet per hundred (100) feet, reaching the present elevation of Preble avenue. The approach from West Market street to the viaduct to be on a grade of six (6) feet per hundred (100) feet.

Section 3—In the construction of the approach along West Market street, the said companies may and they are hereby permitted to use the east eighteen (18) feet of West Market street from said street southerly to the south end of the approach. From said street northerly to the connection with the viaduct, the approach to be constructed over West Market street property now belonging to the Ohio Connecting Railway Co., as shown on the plan before referred to.

Section 4—In the construction of the approach along Preble avenue, said companies may and they are hereby permitted to use five (5) feet of the easterly sidewalk of Preble avenue.

Section 5—The said viaduct and approaches on West Market street and Preble avenue shall be forever maintained in good condition by the said railway companies.

Section 6—The said railway companies shall at their own cost reconstruct and relocate the said viaduct at Superior Run avenue, in lieu of the present viaduct, with north and south approaches to Preble avenue and West Market street, and shall also assume all costs and expense properly incurred in the said change of grade of Superior Run avenue, from California avenue to the property of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railway Co., including all damages to property legally sustained in consequence thereof, and shall also save the city free and harmless from any and all claims or demands for damages arising from or out of the reconstruction or relocation of the said viaduct and approaches hereinbefore provided for.

Section 7—The said railway companies shall not make any claim for damages to their respective properties on account of the vacation of streets and alleys, rendered necessary by the reconstruction and relocation of the said Superior Run avenue viaduct, or on account of the change of grade of Superior Run avenue as here

New York, July 28.—All of the limelight, the red fire and the center of the stage went to Lauder this afternoon at the Polo grounds, and if he had asked to have flowers passed over the center of the stage, that haughty autocrat, the stage manager, could not have denied the request.

The game was a triangular race between the Brooklyns, the New Yorks and that damp old gentleman, Jupiter Pluvius. The New Yorks won the first and the most important "lap," Mr. Pluvius, the second, and the Brooklyns are still running, or, to be more accurate, undoubtedly are still swimming through the fruits, forths, ponds and lakes that formed on the field after J. Pluvius had spouted his worst.

Robert Emslie, the umpire, who was obliged to send his garments to the tailor to be flattened out, after the drenching he received, said he hoped for no more than three innings when the game began.

The rain was kinder to the New Yorks than that. When it fell, it came down perpendicularly and in large chunks, like steamer-size anthracite coal, but it postponed its descent long enough to permit the New Yorks to win.

Matthewson pitched for the Giants. He had everything that a young man should have who is seeking to earn his living in an honest way. That drop ball, of which he seems to be the master, worried the Brooklyns and the speed that he served to them was rivaled only by the express trains that thundered along on the other side of the Harlem river.

The New Yorks won the game in the fourth inning. With one out McGraw got a base on balls and was forced at second by McGann. Brodie rapped a hot one that nearly took Irwin off his feet and there were two on the bases.

Lauder came next. He hit the second ball pitched with a crack like the report of a West Side expressman's whip. Sheckard started to run toward the fence and never stopped until he was lost to sight. McGann and Brodie chased home and Lauder made an effort to get there, but failed.

The Brooklyns got nearer to a run in the fourth inning than they did any other time in the game, but they were not any too close. The score:

PEARSON OF HOMESTEAD JOINS ST. LOUIS TEAM

Risher's Star Twirler Will Be Given a Trial in Fast Company—Cincinnati-Homestead Game Called Off.

Manager Pat Donovan of the St. Louis team has claimed another Western Pennsylvania baseball star. He is Alexander Pearson of the Homestead Library Athletic club. Pearson left last night for New York to join the Cardinals and will likely be given a chance to demonstrate his ability as a twirler during the present week.

Donovan has had his eye on Pearson for some time. He has seen him work and has been advised by many baseball friends in Pittsburgh to give the steel worker a trial in fast company. Pearson opened negotiations with Donovan last week when he made him an offer to play with St. Louis.

The terms were finally arranged by wire on Sunday and Pearson was notified to report to Donovan at New York at once. Pearson is without question one of the best amateur pitchers in Pennsylvania. He has played with amateur teams in this section for several years. His work in which he won most fame was on Risher's team. He was also a good batter and has succeeded in winning out many of his own games with the stick.

Cincinnati was scheduled to play at Steel Works park yesterday afternoon, Poole and Pearson were to be the opposing pitchers. Rain, however, interfered and the contest had to be called off owing to the sloppy condition of the grounds. The Reds received a rain guarantee and left last night at 6:30 o'clock for Philadelphia, where they play today.

RAIN KNOCKS OUT RACES.

Monroe and Butler Will Ride Their Motor-Paced Contest Tonight.

The Colosseum bicycle races were postponed last night on account of a wet track and threatening weather and will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. The chief event will be a 25-mile motor paced race straightaway between Benny Monroe and Nat Butler. Two-third mile amateur handicap and half mile novice races will also be decided.

The first daylight program will be decided Saturday at 3 o'clock with a mile motor paced race between Butler and a rider yet to be secured for the leading attraction.

BRUSH MAY SELL CINCINNATI CLUB

WILL NOT DENY STORY THAT HE HAS AN OFFER FOR THE REDS.

Acknowledged He Is the Power Behind the Sensational Suit Against Ban Johnston For An Accounting For the Baltimore American League Team.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI, O., July 28.—John T. Brush, who was on a mysterious visit to the city today, is believed to be here to sell the ball club of which he is principal owner and president.

"Will you say that you intend to sell the Cincinnati club?" he was asked.

"No, I will not."

"Do you care to say that you will not sell the club?"

"I will say nothing of the kind."

Mr. Brush smiled when asked to tell something about the disruption of the Baltimore club of the American league.

"Well, I guess the other fellows left it," was his reply.

"I was in Baltimore, as is generally known, and was under cover for several days. We got a good man in Cy Seymour. McGraw was more than anxious to land him for New York, but Kelley also insisted on Seymour and chose him in preference to Selbach.

"There have been many things said about Cy being in a class with others who are denominated as rather dumb mentally. That is all wrong. I was standing in a Baltimore depot waiting to see that Seymour took a train to join the Reds. Kelley was with me. A newspaper reporter came dashing in, and after sizing me up from head to foot, asked if I was Mr. Brush. Before I could reply, Cy said: 'No, he is Mr. Brush's father.'

"That timely remark helped me out of a tight place and convinced me that Seymour will make few dumb plays in a game. He is a great ball player."

When asked if he personally was the power behind the sensational Baltimore suit, Brush replied: "Unquestionably, the parties most interested are responsible for the suit. I knew it was coming, but I did not expect it today."

Brush's acknowledgment that he knew of the framing of the suit was proof positive that National league interests are behind the maneuvers.

In defining Ban Johnson's position as trustee of the Baltimore club, Brush said: "Johnson is trustee through the assignment to him of the lease on the Baltimore grounds. The stockholders of the Baltimore club spent $26,000 in improvements on the park. Now Johnson declares the franchise forfeited. The stockholders see their property, by Johnson's word, taken from them."

Brush refused to utter any prophecy as to the future actions of the National league or the Baltimore club if the suit is won by himself and associates.

"I may have figured it out in my mind," said the Red chief, "but I never speak unless on facts."

"This is the biggest baseball war measure yet attempted," ventured the reporter.

"It is," said Brush, unqualifiedly.

RECEIVER ASKED FOR THE BALTIMORE CLUB.

American League President Ban Johnson Made Defendant in Suit and He Files an Answer.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BALTIMORE, July 28.—The troubles of the Baltimore American league baseball club are now to be aired in the courts. Today the Baltimore Baseball and Athletic Company, by its attorneys, filed a bill in circuit court No. 2 asking that a receiver be appointed to take charge of the American league grounds, and also asking that President Byron B. Johnson of the American league be required to account for all money received by him since McGraw and his associates left Baltimore and joined the New York National leaguers.

The bill was filed against Byron B. Johnson, defendant, and upon it Judge Henry D. Harlan signed an order requiring cause to be shown by July 31 next why the receiver should not be appointed as prayed.

The bill states that in January the club became a member of the American league and leased the present grounds on the York road. This lease, the bill declares, was assigned to President Ban Johnson in March last.

Besides the appointment of a receiver the bill asks that the assignment of the lease from the Baltimore baseball club to Ban Johnson be declared void and that Johnson be required to render an accounting of the profits on the games received by him.

An injunction is also prayed for to prevent the president of the American league from disposing of the club's assets and property at the baseball grounds. Later in the day Johnson's attorney filed an answer in which he denies the allegations and claims that Mr. Johnson, as president of the American league, is continually acting not only as owner of the Baltimore club, but of all other clubs of the American league.

COHN BEAT NAPIER.

Pittsburgher Went Down to Defeat in Another Match in Hanover Chess Tourney.

HANOVER, July 28.—The pairing in today's play in the chess masters international tournament was as follows:

Janowski vs. Tschgorin, Bardleben vs. Gottschall, Napier vs. Cohn, Atkins vs. Levin, Gunsberg vs. Mason, Wolf vs. Swiderski, Marshall vs. Popiel, Olland vs. Mieses, and Malisbury vs. Schlechting.

At the adjournment for luncheon three games had been disposed of for good. Swiderski defeated Wolf and Gunsberg and Mason and Olland and Mieses drew. Thus the Dutch representative, Olland, lost his first half point in the tournament. The rest of the games were adjourned in even positions.

During the afternoon sitting the following additional results were recorded: Atkins vs. Marshall, Levin, Janowski worsted Tschigorin. Napier went down before Cohn. Marshall administered defeat to Popiel and Bardeleben and Gottschall drew.

Pillsbury had to adjourn his game with Suechting a second time, but it is thought that Suechting will resign the game in short order when playing is resumed.

Marshal and Janowski each have won five out of six games played. Olland is next with 4½ games won, out of five played.

Swissvale's Foot Ball Officers.

Swissvale A. C. has elected the following officers for the football season: Lloyd C. Goettman, manager; D. A. Gartian, secretary; Fred Petch, captain; Cal. Coulter and Frank Hughes, coaches. Swissvale has a list of 23 candidates to try out and expects to have a strong team. It will be remembered Swissvale won the 115-pound amateur championship last season, scoring 188 points to opponents 6. The following players are candidates for the team: Ends, Weigel, Magner, Miller and Mulholland; tackles, Penrod, Haseltine, Cramer and Wallace; guards, F. Hughes, Hyland, Gibson and Gartian; centers, Shaw, Walters, Blough; quarterbacks, W. Hughes, Weigel and McLaughlin; halfback, Moffett, Mulholand, McLaughlin and Gibson; fullbacks, Petch and C. Potter. The manager is desirous of filling a schedule as soon as possible with all good teams averaging 115 to 120 pounds. Address Lloyd Goettman, box 256, Swissvale, Pa.

All Cubans Cancel at Monessen.

MONESSEN, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—The All Cubans have canceled their three scheduled games here, and instead, Monessen will play Jeannette on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

LOCAL GOLFERS TO PLAY AT WHEELING

Young Players Prominent On the Pittsburgh Team—Preston and Kester, Recent Cup Winners, Compete—Wheeling Will Play Return Matches in This City.

Wheeling golfers have become ambitious and anxious to see what they can do with players who have furnished the golfing sensations of the season, and have challenged several of the local teams to intercity matches. The first will be played tomorrow on the course of the Wheeling Golf club, Wheeling, between six Nail City players and a picked team of Pittsburgh golfers, taken mostly from the Edgewood Golf club.

W. H. DUFF,

The Pittsburgh team, which will be a strong one, offers the following players who have been prominent this season: W. H. Duff, one of the main dependants of the Edgewood club in the Western Pennsylvania league competition; Clarence C. Preston, who recently won the handsome Governors trophy of the Westmoreland Country club, also prominent as a Pittsburgh Field club player; Robert Kester, Jr., the boy champion of the Edgewood club; John Flenniken, also a prominent Edgewood player; F. X. Barr of Edgewood, and J. S. Martin of the champion Highland Golf club.

The makeup of the Wheeling team, which is to be picked by President D. M. Hilareth, has not yet been decided upon, but will be the strongest the Nail City can produce and will endeavor to retrieve the defeats suffered last season by Wheeling. Wheeling's only previous contests with local players were lost last season to the Pittsburgh Field club, one being decided here and one in Wheeling. A return match this year is to be played early in September with Edgewood and contests are also being arranged with the Pittsburgh Field club and the Westmoreland Country club. The conspicuous feature of the Pittsburgh team, which leaves for Wheeling on the 7:45 train tomorrow morning is the youth of most of the players. Kester has just won the J. D. Duff trophy, which was played for under the point system. Six points were necessary and Kester scored three for a first, two for a second and in the last contest was again first, his total thus being eight points.

ENGLISH PLAYERS WON.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

LONGWOOD, MASS., July 28.—The ease with which the two English players, H. L. and R. E. Doherty, won their three matches in the opening rounds of the Longwood tennis tournament proved not only the feature of the day's sport, but to the minds of many experts, seriously jeopardized the safety of the Davis international cup, to lift which is the special mission of these two visitors and Dr. Pim, who is expected this week.

The elder of the brothers, H. L. Doherty, played two matches against well-tried Americans, meeting H. H. Hackett of New York in the morning and R. C. Seaver in the afternoon. In each the Englishman allowed his opponent the first set and then having taken the American's measure completed next three without apparent effort.

The results of these matches, however, caused little surprise, but the crowd that gathered in the afternoon was astonished at the poor showing of one of the foremost American players, Beals C. Wright, made against R. F. Doherty. Merely swaying back and forth on the base line the English player kept Wright running about the court until he exhausted himself.

The result was a win in straight sets and as the rest of the players left in the tournament, with the exception of Mr. J. Whitman, the former American champion, are rated under Wright, it looks as if the two brothers might play each other for the honor of meeting William A. Larned for the Longwood cup. R. F. Doherty will probably meet Whitman on Wednesday.

Western Tennis Doubles Decided.

CHICAGO, July 28.—Greish Collins and L. H. Waidner, team mates of the Kenwood Tennis club, won the western tennis championship in doubles today at the Kenwood Country club. Collins and Widner met Little and Alexander of Princeton, holders of the title, and defeated them handily by the score of 6—1, 6—0, 6—2.

Canadian Team Victorious.

LONDON, July 28.—The reshoot for the Mackinnon cup at the National Rifle association meeting at Risley resulted in a victory today for the Canadian team. The Canadians scored 1,375, the English team 1,340 and the riflemen representing Scotland made 1,317 points.

Englishman Won Sculls.

LONDON, July 28.—H. H. Cloutte, London Rowing club, won the Wingfield sculls at Putney toda, beating R. B. Etherington-Smith, Leander Rowing club, and J. Beresford, Kensington Rowing club, after a splendid race.

SPORTS SCOFF AT FAKE THEORY IN THE BIG FIGHT

FITZ'S LONG INTERVIEW

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 28.—Sporting men, practically without exception, scoff at the attempt to make it appear that the fight between Jeffries and Fitzsimmons was a prearranged affair. There certainly was nothing to the contest that would inspire such belief, and it is simple folly to assert that any man would have taken the punishment that Jeffries did who knew at the proper time he was to win.

It is suggested that if any person had knowledge that the fight was to be "faked," the proper method would have been to make the news public before the affair took place and not wait for a theatrical denouement after it was over.

To most persons the greatest surprise was that Fitzsimmons lasted as long as he did and fought as well as he did. The alleged incidents that are claimed to corroborate the possibility of a "fake" are only such as might easily be twisted to suit the purpose.

Fritz's Punch Lost.

In an interview Fitzsimmons is quoted as saying: "You may not think so, but I would have won it but for one unfortunate blow. It was directed at Jeffries' jaw, but he crouched so that it caught him squarely on the forehead. That settled my left hand. Every time I used it I hurt myself more than I hurt Jeffries.

"He is a hard man to get at with the right, and from that time on I knew what the end would be. As it was I cut him up with the damaged left, which is what I have never liked to do in a fight. My aim has always been to put a man out, not to cut him into ribbons.

"As sure as fate I would have put Jeffries out if my knuckles had not given way. I never was prouder of any showing I have made in the ring. That night I was my old self, all except knuckles.

Jeffries Great Victory.

"Understand me, I am not trying to rob Jeffries of any of the credit of his victory. I said the best man won and that is true, for he had better hands, and fights are won with fists. Do you suppose I would have punched him so savagely had there been any understanding? I am told that I broke his nose, and that he had to call in a specialist to treat it. That should sufficiently answer this claim of fake.

"I went into the ring to win, and so did he. I went there to insure the future of my family. I was offered $100,000 to throw the fight with Sharkey, and I would have thrashed the man who made the offer, but that would have prevented the fight, so I let it pass without resenting the insult.

"I had a stain on my record when I came to this country. I admit it, but circumstances alter cases. When I was a youngster I was hired to fight with Hall in several Australian cities. I was instructed to win in one place and to lose in another, and I did it on a salary of $25 a week.

"I did it as any well meaning novice who knew no better might have done the same thing. Then I did not know what reputation meant. I found out what it meant when I came to America, and from the time I found it out I have taken clean hands into the ring.

"Poor old hands, one of them went nack on me, but they have been good to me. I am sorry I hurt Jeffries so much, for I like him. He is square and honorable, and he has no more use for brutality than I have. Barring myself, I would rather see him the champion than any man in the world."

JIM CORBETT CHOSEN.

He Will Referee the McGovern-Young Corbett Fight in Place of Tim Hurst.

NEW YORK, July 28.—At a conference today between Sam Harris, representing Terry McGovern, and "Young" Corbett, representing himself, James J. Corbett was selected as referee for the fight between the two featherweight pugilists at New London on August 29. Corbett refused to accept Tim Hurst. Harris then proposed James J. Corbett, and the Denver boy promptly accepted him.

Junior Polo Game Postponed.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 28.—(Special.)—The contest of the junior championship polo game between the Lakewood and Rockaway teams at Saratoga was postponed by mutual consent of the teams after about three minutes' play, owing to an accident to Kindon Gould. While defending the Rockaway goal, R. Lamontague accidentally struck young Gould a severe blow on the bridge of the nose with his mallet. After half an hour's delay Gould was still too faint to be able to mount his pony, and the game was postponed until tomorrow. The extent of Gould's injury has not yet been learned. It is probably nothing worse than a broken nose.

Parkersburg	1	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	—5

NEWS OF THE RACE TRACK

DIRECTUM SPIER CAPTURED THE LEADING EVENT

LOWERED TRACK MARK

Took the Lead From the Wire in Every Heat and Won All Three Trials—Reduced His Record Two and One-Fourth Seconds.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

Columbus, O., July 28.—The Grand Circuit meeting opened here today with all conditions favorable for a successful week of trotting and pacing. The weather was warm and delightful until a hard storm blew up and drenched the track so thoroughly that the 2:09 pace, in which three heats had been decided, had to be postponed until tomorrow.

Before the storm the track was lightning fast, and every heat winner lowered his mark. The fields in the three races on the card were small, as many of the owners preferred to reserve their entered horses for stake events later in the week.

Directum Spier, Henry Schmulbach's 4-year-old stallion, was picked to win the 2:30 trot, selling in the auctions at $50 to $18 for the field of three. The field price was reduced to $7 after the first heat and many pools were sold at that figure.

The son of Directum justified the confidence of his backers by leading from wire to wire in both heats, reducing his record in the second from 2:13½, made in his first start at Cleveland last week, to 2:11¼.

The 2:09 pace, the feature of the opening day, was postponed after Fred S. Wedgewood had taken the first two heats and Captain Sphinx the third. Dan R. and Daphne Dallas sold equal favorites before the race, each bringing $30 in a pool of $125.

Ben R. could not catch Wedgewood in the first heat and Daphne Dallas was unable to land the second or third, for both of which she was driven hard. The postponement of the race will probably make Wedgewood the favorite, although he was a beaten horse after the third heat today.

Prince Direct was drawn after the third heat and will not start tomorrow. The 2:18 pace was a gift to Miss Leach, the favorite at $20 to $25 for a field of three. Summary:

Orders Trainer to Sell All Horses In Two Weeks—Reserves Three for Breeding.

NEW YORK, July 28.—The announcement was made today that Clarence H. Mackay has ordered his trainer, Charles F. Hill, to sell his racing stable.

Mr. Hill, it is understood, will dispose of Mr. Mackay's stable by private sale during the next two weeks, and such of the horses as are not sold by that time will be put up at public auction. Kamara and Trigger, mares, will be reserved for breeding purposes, as well as Banastar, the winner of a Brooklyn and Metropolitan handicap.

Among the animals to be sold are Hero, for whom Mr. Mackay paid J. E. Madden $30,000 as a 2-year-old; Gay Lad and Grand Opera, 3-year-olds; Mexican, the winner of the Produce stakes and the first part of the double event; Skillful and Ace Full. The last three are 2-year-olds and Mr. Mackay paid Mr. Madden for them a total of something like $60,000.

THE MONEY WAS EVENLY DIVIDED

THREE FAVORITES AND THREE LONG SHOTS WON AT BRIGHTON.

Card Was a Very Cheap One and Only Feature of the Day Was the Fourth Event, Won By Francesco and Ethics.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—Three favorites and three long shots divided the money at Brighton Beach today. The fourth race, a handicap at one mile and a furlong, was the feature of a very cheap card. The Dwyer entry, Francesco and Ethics, won after a splendid finish, in which Old Advance Guard separated the stable from running one, two. Francesco won by a length with Advance Guard second and Ethics third, a head away.

First race, for two-year-olds, five furlongs—Rosetint, 109, Burns, 7 to 10 and out, won; Mount Kisco, 112, Redfern, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Michaelmas, 112, McFadden, 30 to 1 and 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:01 2-5. Embarrassment, Alice Eon, Scoffer, Damon, Iconoclast, Kim, Dark Planet, Cloche D'Or, Tom Lawson, Sovereign and Queen Boula also ran.

DEFEAT OF DEATH.

CHICAGO, July 28.—The chief surprise of today's racing at Harlem was the defeat of Death, the odds on favorite, in the third race. Death was backed from even money to 7 to 10 in a four-horse race, and finished third, five lengths behand Marcus for the place.

Corrigan with Ransch up, easily proved the best, setting all the pace, taking a good lead and finishing unextended with two and a half lengths to spare. W. Williams lost his American derby colt, Andy Williams, for $1,200 in the second race. The colt was entered for that price, and was bid up to $1,900. Weather clear and cool; track sticky. Summary:

First race, five furlongs—Rheta, 112, Coburn, 9 to 10, won; Gypzene, 109, Helgeson, 9 to 1, second; Phyle, 108, Otis, 25 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 4-5. Lady Matchless, Puredale, Miss Manners, Emir, Mary Glenn, Belle Mahone, Frances Porter and Georgia Lewis also ran.

Second race, mile and 70 yards—Andy Williams, 114, Coburn, 5 to 2, won; Deedle S., 103, Meade, 11 to 10, second; Trentham, 105, Otis, 8 to 2, third. Time, 1:56. Simoon and Ernest Parham also ran.

Third race, mile—Corrigan, 98, Ransch, 12 to 5, won; Marcos, 95, Helgeson, 6 to 1, second; Death, 107, Coburn, 7 to 10, third. Time, 1:48. Frank M. also ran.

Fourth race, steeplechase, short course, Emerald handicap—Helen Paxton, 155, Lloyd, 6 to 1, won; Fiaccus, 138, J. Johnson, 9 to 2, second; Failela, 114, H. S. Wilson, 8 to 1, third. Time, 3:49 2-5. MacLaren, B. G. Fox, Corrillo, Lord Farondale and Leoni also ran. Dagmar and Globe II. fell. MacLaren and Leoni coupled.

Fifth race, six furlongs—Brulare, 97, Beauchamp, 7 to 10, won; Havilland, 97, Newcomb, 7 to 1, second; Bummer, 94, Fowler, 8 to 1, third. Time, 1:18 1-5. John A. Clarke, Rubus, Emathion and Money Muss also ran.

Sixth race, mile and a furlong—Satin Coat, 107, Meade, 7 to 1, won; Ben Chance, 107, Munro, 8 to 1, second; John McGurk, 106, Ransch, 7 to 5, third. Time, 2:03¾. Declcie, Little Daisy, Hub Prather, Papa Harry, Linden Hill, Miss Lisa and Henry of Franklamar ago ran.

Third race, selling, six furlongs—Peat, 111; Huachuca, Della Strand, 108; If You Dare, 104; Cerro Santa, Lady Idris, Muresca, 100; Layla, 98; Orla, 91.

Fourth race, six furlongs, handicap—Gold Bell, 120; Gregor K., 110; Tom Cogan, 111; Topsoil, 110; Watoma, 106; Foxy Kane, 107; St. Elmo, 105; Glendon, 103; Airlight, 102.

CHECKER CHAMPIONS.

EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND, July 28.—With 21 games played in the 40-game checker match, Richard Jordan, champion checker player of the world, has scored three wins to one for his youthful antagonist, Harry Freedman, and 17 games were drawn in the match.

It is conceded by checker players everywhere that Jordan is too strong across the board for Freedman and that he will materially increase his score as the match progresses. Freedman has the support and sympathy of the Glasgow players and Robert Stewart, the champion of Scotland. The money stake is $500.

Thorella Declared Out

MONTREAL, July 28.—The Thorella was declared out of the racing for the honor of defending the Seawanhaka club today. Only one race was sailed, a beat to windward and return, and resulted as follows: Elapsed time, Cuna, 1:05:10; Tritant, 1:08:15.

TRADE CONFLICT OF TWO BIG COAL CORPORATIONS

ELIMINATES TRADE LINES

The Monongahela River Coal and Coke Company Is Planning Heavy Rail Shipment—Has Taken Some Big Rail Contracts.

The Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke Company has plans made to turn a production of 3,000,000 tons to the market next year over railroad tipples. This effectually ends the reputed contract between the company and the Pittsburgh Coal Company, that the Pittsburgh company is to devote itself exclusively to rail traffic and the Monongahela company to river traffic. It proves that the trade conflict between the two companies has taken tangible issue.

The two great coal combines of Pittsburgh will no longer work in harmony in relation to their markets. The line of the one serving the river trade and the other the rail will no longer be drawn. All this was upset when this year the Pittsburgh Coal Company failed to contract for the coal put over the railroad tipples at mines of the Monongahela company. Procrastination over terms led to F. M. Osborne, retired as the president of the Pittsburgh Coal Company, entering a contract for most of the product of the Monongahela company for rail shipment.

Bought 1,500,000 Tons.

Mr. Osborne shortly after his retirement as the president of the Pittsburgh Coal Company formed the Youghiogheny & Ohio Coal Company and contracted to take the rail coal production of the Monongahela company, from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000 tons, in the season of lake coal shipments.

This year the river coal company will disprove the reputed contract between it and the Pittsburgh Coal Company by shipping an aggregate of about 2,000,000 tons by rail. Part of this the Monongahela company will ship by rail to the jobbers and consumers. Within a week one contract was closed for 250,000 tons of coal for delivery to a jobber in Ohio, which will be shipped by rail.

The plans of the Monongahela company are to place rail tipples at some half dozen mines along the Monongahela river, which can be made rail shipping mines as soon as there are railroad facilities. These facilities will be provided in the extension of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad from Fayette City to Brownsville. This extension is now nearing completion.

Railroads Inviting Business.

Later on the Monongahela railroad, owned jointly by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, or the Vanderbilt interests, and the Pennsylvania interests will make an extensive system of lines. These railway developments will provide for the Monongahela company converting some half dozen or more mines for rail production.

Plans are now being made for the installation of the necessary railroad tipples, which will make the Monongahela company a heavy rail shipper of coal. The coal production of the Monongahela company last year was something upward of 6,000,000 tons. This year it will be much heavier and next year the increase will be still more substantial.

Till this year the Pittsburgh Coal Company has acted as the selling agent of the Monongahela company for the coal of the river company put over the railroad tipples. Failure to close the usual contract this year has entirely changed matters.

Through the idleness of coal operations in the anthracite fields and in West Virginia, prices have been pushed up in great strides. Coal, which a year ago sold for $1 a ton, is now hard to get at $2.

SWALLOW HITS BOTH WAYS.

Says Erie Convention Neglected Democrats, Who Sold Out To Quay.

"The laboring men of the state are asking," said Dr. Swallow, "why the convention at Erie that nominated Pattison, condemned Quayism and the corruption of the Republican boodlers and had not one word to say against Democratic legislators, who sold themselves to Quayism."

STATE AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

WOOSTER, O.—Frank Snyder, a farmer of near Wooster, while talking to his wife this afternoon was struck by lightning and killed instantly.

MEADVILLE, PA., July 28.—Richard Moynihan, aged 82 years, was struck by an engine on the Passenger railroad this morning and killed.

CHARLESTON, W. VA.—Clifford Johnson of Cowburg was injured in jumping from a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train here last night, and died at the hospital today.

CLARKSBURG, W. VA.—The Belington authorities have granted a franchise for a water works and electric light plant to the Consumers Heat, Light & Power Company.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, PA.—Work was begun this morning on the new Cumberland Presbyterian church building. It will be constructed of rough stone, and the estimated cost is between $30,000 and $35,000.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., July 28.—Tom Adams, alias Tudeo Green, a negro, wanted for murder in Selma, Ala., was arrested here today by Policeman Bingham. The murderer fought fiercely with a knife, but the officer overcame him.

CHARLESTON, W. VA.—A charter was issued today to the Guffey Bond Petroleum Company, of Pittsburg, with a capital stock of $250,000. Incorporators: J. M. Guffey, A. W. Mellon, J. H. Reed, C. F. Farren and George D. Prentice, all of Pittsburgh.

CANTON, O.—Sarah Robinson, colored, was today sentenced to serve 17 years in the penitentiary for the killing of Walter McNair in Massillon last April. Mrs. Robinson was indicted for murder in the first degree, but in the midst of the trial offered to plead guilty to manslaughter.

CANTON, O., July 28.—William Crawford, aged about 24, has been arrested and is held on suspicion of the murder of Vincent Hill in the Barnett House, Akron, last night. Crawford told acquaintances that he had no money. Saturday he spent money freely and deposited $25 with the hotel clerk.

ROCHESTER, PA., July 28.—The Rochester Glass Company's plant at North Rochester, which was to have started up this morning after the vacation shut down, was only able to resume with two shops in consequence of about 35 of the cracking-off boys striking for an advance in wages. The boys are now paid $1 a day, but demand 25 cents extra for each dollar in excess of $4 made by the blowers of their respective shops.

BIG CIVIL SUIT AGAINST BYERS

UNCLE SEEKS TO RECOVER $74,000 FROM YOUNG ATTORNEY.

Charges That At Different Times He Gave Nephew Money To Be Invested and No Accounting Has Been Made To Him.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

GREENSBURG, PA., July 28.—The bold stand taken by Attorney William S. Byers, who was arrested last week charged with the theft of nearly $250,000,000 in bonds and money, seems to have necessitated entirely new tactics by the big array of prosecution lawyers. When he openly told that he knew where the bonds were the prosecution apparently lost nerve.

This evening a civil suit was entered against the attorney to recover damages in the sum of $74,000. The suit is brought by Jacob Byers, the alleged owner of the bonds. The old man now alleges that he gave to the attorney $40,000 in money, which, at the suggestion of the defendant, was to be invested in good securities. The defendant promised to turn over such securities to the plaintiff, or if he failed to invest the money, to return it. This agreement the defendant has not kept, it is averred, and has neglected to turn over the securities or to return the money.

Later, the plaintiff alleges, he intrusted the further sum of $5,000 to the lawyer upon the same basis. None of it came back. Again he gave the lawyer the bonds amounting to $175,000. They bore 5 per cent. interest, payable semi-annually. Neither the full year's interest nor the bonds have been turned over.

On May 16, 1901, it is claimed, the defendant was given $7,000 by the plaintiff for investment. Neither the security nor the money was turned over, the plaintiff says.

The bonds are said now to be stored in a vault of a Pittsburgh trust company. An investigation is in progress looking to a forcible recovery.

CONTRACT JUMPERS TO BE FINED $1,000

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

TORONTO, ONT., July 28.—P. T. Powers, president of the Eastern league and National association of baseball leagues, arrived in the city today en route to Toronto. He, with Joseph Farrell, president of the New York State league, and M. H. Sexton, chairman of the Western and Three I leagues, transacted important business for the National association of baseball leagues. It was decided to notify each club that all contract jumpers are to go on the black list, and the $1,000 fine rigidly enforced.

"And when the peace settlement comes they will be even more severely dealt with," said Mr. Powers.

A Southern league difficulty which arose because the Memphis club insisted upon playing Pitcher St. Vrain, who had been sold by the Chicago National to a Western league, was discussed and an early date was fixed to withdraw protection from the club. A new club will be put in Memphis. In the meantime any club will be liable to $100 fine that plays against St. Vrain.

A telegram was sent to Thomas P. Daly, president of the Players Protective association, saying:

"The officers of the National association of baseball leagues in session here, extend greeting and express willingness to co-operate with your association upon any reasonable basis that will tend to promote the best interest of baseball."

PROMISES GOOD RACES.

ERIE, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—The entry list for the Erie meeting of the Lake Erie Trotting Circuit promises much in the way of sport. In addition to a full attendance of the horses which have been following the local circuit there are a number of fast ones from the big circuit. These came pot hunting from Cleveland, where they found the pace in last week's races hot for them.

The opening program tomorrow includes the 2:24 pace and 2:24 trot for purses of $400 and the 2:12 pace for the Reed House purse of $500. The meet is held at Reed's driving park on a half mile dirt track.

WHOLE FAMILY ARRESTED.

William Steeple Alleges the Bagleys Threatened to Beat Him.

An entire family was locked up in the Twenty-eighth ward police station yesterday upon charges of disorderly conduct. They were Mrs. Elizabeth Bagley and her children, Mary Ann, Jacob and Joseph Bagley. They live at No. 3933 Arlington avenue. The information was made against them by William Steeple, of No. 2117 Arlington avenue.

There has been some differences between the Bagleys and Steeple. On Sunday night, it is alleged, the two Bagley boys visited Steeple's house and dared him out to fight. The rest of the Bagleys arrived, and Steeple said he could thrash any two of them, but would not challenge the whole family. A large crowd gathered, but there was no fighting.

Heat Closes Big Planks.

LANCASTER, PA., July 28.—(Special.)—The mercury here today registered 96 degrees and the humidity was so great that several industrial establishments had to shut down. Amos Jessic, aged 58 years, a laborer at Columbia, dropped over from the heat and died soon after.

EVEN CONGRESS CAN'T KEEP DOWN HEAVY SURPLUS

NO BEATING PROSPERITY

Less Than $8,000,000 Smaller Than the High Water Mark of June 30. Since Then the Abolition of War Taxes Took Effect.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

Washington, D. C., July 28.—It seems impossible for congress to reduce revenues and make appropriations rapidly enough to prevent a great surplus piling up in the United States treasury. Notwithstanding the abolition of all the war taxes, which went into effect on the 1st of July, the treasury receipts show little diminution. The cash in the treasury at the close of business today was $201,944,656 87.

High water mark in the treasury was June 30, the end of the last fiscal year, when the cash in the treasury was $268,077,694. It has been expected that the expenditures, which in the first month of the fiscal year are always unusually heavy, would carry the cash in the treasury far below the $200,000,000 mark; but this did not come to pass, and is only explained on the ground that the tremendous growth of the business of the country is much more rapid than the work of congress in reducing revenues to offset it.

Receipts today, for instance, were $275,751 over the expenditures. For the 28 days of July they are $43,585,189 99, as against $45,432,327 25 for the same period last year. The receipts for customs have been $2,500,000 more, and the receipts from internal revenue have been in round numbers about $5,000,000 less.

But, undoubtedly, judging from the way the fiscal year is beginning, there will be a far larger surplus than $23,000,000, which was estimated by the secretary of the treasury. The surplus at the end of the fiscal year just closed was $83,000,000. For next year it is liable to be nearly $50,000,000, unless there is great business depression, which is not now anticipated.

REFEREE STOPPED FIGHT.

Carter Had All the Best of the Argument—Crowd Yelled "He's Drunk" at Handler.

BUFFALO, July 28.—The fight between Kid Carter of Brooklyn and Jimmy Handler of Jersey City was stopped in the second round here tonight with Handler on the floor and all but knocked out. Handler was very slow. Carter hammered him all over the ring, while Handler did not land one clean blow.

After Carter had sent him to the floor with a right to the jaw and while Handler was making a feeble attempt to get up, Referee McBride stopped the fight amidst hisses and cries of "He's drunk." The bout caused much complaint against the club by the spectators.

MINSTRELS AT KENNYWOOD.

Frank Dumont's Burnt Cork Stars Make First Appearance.

Dumont's minstrels from the Eleventh Street opera house, Philadelphia, made their first appearance at Kennywood this season yesterday. Frank Dumont has with him such well-known burnt cork artists as Hughey Dougherty and Vic Richards, both Pittsburgh boys; Al White, Charles Turner, J. M. Kane, Joe Hortis, James McCool, J. M. Woods and Edwin Goldrick, all well-known here.

Over 10,000 people saw and applauded the two performers yesterday, the afternoon crowd being picnickers. The dialogue was breezy, the jokes fresh, and the sketches new. Jordan Evans and Al White gave an exhibition of fancy dancing, and Loro and Abacco, grotesque acrobatic comedians, thrilled the crowd with their daring. The show terminated with a laughable burlesque, "The Installment Agents." Miss Aurie Dagwell, a character vocalist, who sang at Kennywood five weeks last season, appeared and made a hit with her original "songs of the day."

Southern park this week has a vaudeville show which includes Hoy's Marionette minstrels, Frank Hoy, John Hall, Harry Morphat and William Stevenson.

Inter City Matinee Date Changed.

CLEVELAND, O., July 28.—The date of the Inter-City matinee, at which the Boston challenge cup race will be decided, has been fixed for September 2 and 3, instead of October 2 and 3, as erroneously reported. The race will occur in this city and Thomas W. Lawson has announced that Boralma, 2:07, will be a starter.

AN ORDINANCE—Granting the Ohio Connecting Railway Company and the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, the right of way from a point on the present line of the Ohio Connecting Railway about seven hundred and thirty (730) feet west of the west line of Preble avenue, to a point in the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, at or near Island avenue, and for said purpose granting the Ohio Connecting Railway Company, and the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway the right to cross and occupy streets, alleys, highways and property of the City of Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

Section 1—Be it ordained and enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same, That the Ohio Connecting Railway Company and the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon, lay down, maintain and operate for themselves, their lessors, successors and assigns, a double track railway of standard gauge, over, across and along the streets and alleys and upon the property of the city, as hereinafter set forth, on the following route, to-wit:

Beginning at a point in the present track of the Ohio Connecting Railway about two hundred and thirty (730) feet west of the west line of Preble avenue; thence by a curved line to the east about one hundred and seventy (170) feet; thence by a tangent line about four hundred and thirty (430) feet to a point at or near Preble avenue; thence by a curved line southeastwardly about eight hundred (800) feet, crossing Preble avenue overhead, crossing the tracks of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway overhead, and crossing under the viaduct at Superior Run avenue; thence southerly about one thousand (1,000) feet to a point in the tracks of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway at or near Island avenue, in accordance with the plan attached hereto, dated May 9, 1902, bearing the indorsements of the director of the department of public works, and the chief engineer of the Pennsylvania Company; it being understood that the privileges hereby granted shall pertain to and be exercised by the said Ohio Connecting Railway Company and the Pennsylvania Company severally with respect to the different portions of said tracks, which said companies by agreement between themselves shall elect to severally construct and maintain.

Section 2—The said tracks shall be constructed and maintained across Preble avenue, at such elevation as to give a clearance of not less than thirty (30) feet over Preble avenue, and the said railway companies may and are hereby permitted to support the bridge structure over Preble avenue by columns standing at the curb or street lines. The said tracks shall be constructed under Superior Run avenue viaduct so as to afford sufficient clearance for operating purposes, between the proposed new viaduct and the railroad, provision being made for changing the height of the present viaduct, as provided for in an ordinance of the City of Allegheny, providing for the re-location and re-building of the Superior Run avenue viaduct over the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, the Ohio Connecting Railway and the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, from California avenue to Preble avenue, with approaches to West Market street and Preble avenue, and for a change of grade on a portion of Superior Run avenue.

Section 3—The said Ohio Connecting Railway Company and the Pennsylvania Company, operating the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway shall, upon the acceptance of the provisions of this ordinance file a suitable and proper bond, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the provisions of this ordinance.

Section 4—The said railway company shall indemnify, save and keep harmless

REPUBLICANS MAKE INROADS IN MISSOURI

MAY CARRY LEGISLATURE

In That Event Democrats Would Fail To Elect Successor To Senator Vest—Cause of the Political Revolution.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU,
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28.

Representative Barthold of St. Louis arrived here this morning. Mr. Barthold is the only Republican in congress that the Missouri Democrats have never been able to defeat. Five different times has he won over their candidates, and so strong is he that the last legislature gave him a district overwhelmingly Republican in order to make the other districts Democratic; but Mr. Barthold believes they have counted their chickens before they are hatched. Not only does he believe that his colleague, Representative Joy, will be victorious in November, but he predicts the possible election of two other Republican representatives, and says the chances are good for the election of a Republican legislature and thereby a Republican United States senator to succeed Senator Vest.

"The adoption by the Democratic state convention of the old Kansas City platform has disgusted the conservative Democrats of the state. The idea that the Missouri Democrats are still hugging a delusion and a menace to the prosperity of the country undoubtedly has alienated the German vote of the state, the gold Democratic vote, and the Democrats who have been hoping to see the party get in line with the majority of the people of the country.

"The second reason for discontent is that the Democratic management of state affairs is the most corrupt of any in the country. Another source of opposition to the Democratic party in Missouri is the fact that the entire police and license power of the state is in the hands of the partisan Democratic ring, which does not administer the laws in a satisfactory way. On top of all this is the objection to the indorsement of William J. Stone as the Democratic choice for senator to succeed Mr. Vest. Mr. Stone is looked upon by conservative men of both parties as too radical.

"The Republican party will be greatly benefited by the wise administration of President Roosevelt. He has a host of warm friends in the state, even in the Democratic ranks, and the people as a whole are with him. They particularly admire his position as to Cuban reciprocity and as to control of the trusts. Democrats in Missouri and elsewhere are trying to make an issue of the trust question; but the people have confidence in the announcement of the president that he is going to devote as much effort as possible to the placing of anti-trust legislation on the statute books."

TEACHERS WARNED.

Persisted in Going Into Filipino Outlaw's Country Unarmed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 25.—A copy of a Manila paper has been received at the war department giving information concerning the t'p of the teachers who were murdered i Cebu island some time ago. The four lost teachers were officially and repeatedly warned not to go into the interior, but they insisted that it was safe and took the risks. The article continues:

"They talked with the inspector about their expedition and he advised them if they went too far in a certain direction they would be likely to run across Adoy, a member of the notorious Cabal family, much feared by the natives. The inspector inquired if any of the party had pistols. They answered in the negative.

MAJ. DAVIS TO BE SUPERINTENDENT

Director George W. Wilson Once Before Offered It To Him—Competent Men Who Are Residents of City Found To Be Very Scarce.

The position of superintendent of the city farm at Marshalsea has been tendered to Maj. W. H. Davis of the Pittsburgh News Agency. The tender was made by Director George W. Wilson of the department of charities and correction with the knowledge and approval of City Recorder Brown. Maj. Davis once refused the appointment, but it is understood that it has again been tendered to him, and that he is considering the matter. The position pays $2,500 per annum.

The position has been vacant for nearly four months. The incumbent, up to that time, was George Lindermin, but he has not been able for nearly a year to properly discharge the duties of the position because of a severe illness. Director Wilson has been discharging the duties of the superintendent almost all the time since he was reappointed to the directorship last winter. The principal reason for not making the appointment months ago was the inability of the city administration to get a proper man to fill the place.

A great deal of executive ability is necessary to fill the place properly. There have been a great many applicants for the position, but Director Wilson did not think that any of them were competent.

The position was offered to Maj. Davis some time ago, and at that time he unqualifiedly refused on account of the fact that he could not make satisfactory arrangements to dispose of his business, which requires all his time and attention. If he should decide this time to accept the place, he will put his present business under a competent man, but will himself retain control of it. It is understood that he has not yet given Director Wilson a final answer.

Maj. Davis is a well-known and life-long resident of the city, and his executive ability is established. Director Wilson told the salary revision committee that the salary of $2,500 is sufficient for the place, and that he would be able to get a good man for that salary. Supt. P. K. Bechtel of the Homeopathic hospital was mentioned for the position, but Director Wilson denied that the place had been offered to Mr. Bechtel. Mr. Linderman's resignation was accepted some time ago.

CHAFFEE'S REPRIMAND.

Carries Out Sentence Against Capt. Wild for Permitting Burning of a Cockpit for Revenge.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28.—The action of Gen. Chaffee in reprimanding Capt. Fred S. Wild, Thirteenth Infantry, upon the sentence of a court-martial, has been received at the war department. Capt. Wild was in command at Lingayan, where a cockpit was burned, two soldiers of the command having been previously stabbed in the cockpit. It was generally understood that the cockpit was burned by the soldiers in revenge.

It was brought out in the trial that Capt. Wild had been requested by the civil authorities to place a guard over the property after the first attack and failed to do so, and a second attempt at burning resulted in its destruction. Gen. Chaffee, in carrying out the sentence of the court, says:

"Capt. Wild's conduct is but mildly punished by reprimand. It is destructive to the very foundations of discipline, and, when considered in connection with the choice of the duty which devolved upon him, is in the highest degree reprehensible."

MARCUS ISLAND DISPUTE.

Whether There Will Be Trouble Depends Upon Capt. Roschill—Japanese Warship Has Sailed There.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 28.—A cable dispatch received at the state department today from United States Minister Buck at Tokio says the Japanese minister of foreign affairs informed him that a Japanese naval vessel would leave yesterday for Marcus island. The purpose of her going is not to make trouble, but to prevent it. An official of the foreign office was to go on the vessel, and he would carry a letter to Capt. Rosehili, the American claimant, cabled from the state department here to Minister Buck, advising the captain not to make any disturbance or to resort to violence to obtain possession of the island. If the captain would observe this advice, the department said it would try to settle the claim to Marcus island diplomatically.

Capt. Rosehill is reported to have sailed from Honolulu for Marcus island in a schooner July 11, and it is, therefore, probable that he already is at Marcus island, or very near there. The letter may come into his hands too late to avert trouble.

DEVLIN WILL CONTEST.

Half-Brother Alleges Undue Influence Was Used to Get an Estate.

Register F. W. Edwards yesterday held a partial hearing in the contest over the will of John F. Devlin, late of No. 1842 Cliff street. His estate is worth $75,000, and under the will it goes to his 4-months-old nephew, Charles William McKeown, son of Arthur McKeown, and the boy's mother, Catherine McKeown, in equal shares. The will was made three days before the testator's death on June 28 last, and it was contested by B. J. Devlin, a half-brother of the deceased. Undue influence is alleged.

But two witnesses were heard yesterday. They were the subscribing witnesses, Frank McKnight and Attorney B. J. Reid. They said they believed the testator possessed testamentary capacity. Upon cross-examination McKnight said he did not remember whether the will had been signed on a chair, table or stand. Another hearing will be held.

COURT GRANTS TRUST FUND TO MRS. FITZGERALD

Judge W. G. Hawkins Tells Why the Widow Should Be Custodian.

IS HEAD OF THE FAMILY

Donors Intended Contributions For Relief of Immediate Wants and Equitable Necessity Makes the Detective's Wife Distributor of Fund.

Judge W. G. Hawkins yesterday in orphans' court handed down an opinion determining the ownership of what is known as the "Fitzgerald fund." This fund consists of $6,393 35, raised by public subscription after the murder of Detective Patrick Fitzgerald. Of this sum $325 was received direct by Mrs. Fitzgerald, widow of the decedent. She turned the amount over to J. O. Brown, as treasurer, who in turn placed the whole amount in the hands of the Mercantile Trust Company.

The question arose as to whether Mrs. Fitzgerald was entitled to the whole fund or her proportionate share with her children, and a petition was filed in behalf of Mrs. Fitzgerald calling upon the court to determine the matter. Judge Hawkins orders that the entire fund be transferred to Mrs. Fitzgerald for the benefit of the family.

The court says: "There can be no doubt that Mrs. Fitzgerald was as much within the humane reason and purpose of the contributors to this fund as the children. She and they had together been deprived of common support, and constituted a family for whose relief the fund was raised.

Mrs. Fitzgerald's Position.

"But who shall have the custody and appropriation of the fund? It will be, of course, conceded that Mrs. Fitzgerald is capable of taking care, and therefore of receiving her proportionate share; but how and why is this to be ascertained? When a man dies distribution of his estate is made under direction of his will, or the interstate law, and when a gift is made among the living the donor ordinarily prescribes the method of distribution, but the fund here was given as an entirety without a hint of a rule of apportionment; and in the circumstances there is no occasion for apportionment.

"By reason of the death of her husband Mrs. Fitzgerald became the head of the family; her position as such made her control the purse strings, important in the management and training of her children; gave her a better opportunity than another would have of knowing the needs of her children. The contributors made no express designation of a trustee, and when it is manifest that it was not their thought that it should be held that she should have the custody and appropriation of the whole fund? She represented and the fund was intended for the use of the 'family.'

Judge Hawkins' Able Argument.

"Some of the contributors show their appreciation of this by direct remittance and the others would no doubt have done likewise had their attention been called to the matter.

"The case is necessarily analagous of the law, which places in the hands of the widow for the present needs of the family of which he had become head on the death of her husband $500 out of the estate. The promptitude with which the donors acted of itself shows that they had in view the relief of the present needs. In delay there lies no plenty. And besides, there is a strongly pursuasive equity in the fact that Mrs. Fitzgerald was compelled to pay her husband's debts out of life insurance which would have otherwise been available for the maintenance of the family. So far as appears, the donors had no thoughts of calling in the aid of the court in the matter of their sympathies. Their benevolence was centered in the bereft family and their humane purpose should be carried out in the natural and simple manner intended. It will be time enough to appeal to the court if and when there shall be a breach of trust. Although not expressly named as trustee by the donors, a trust, by necessity implication, was imposed on Mrs. Fitzgerald, which is just as sacred and as much within the jurisdiction of courts of justice. It follows the whole fund must be transferred to Mrs. Fitzgerald as trustee for the family."

LEGAL BRIEFS.

Statements were filed in the suits of Edwin Blindley against the W. G. Price Company to recover $5,500 and $11,000 on notes.

An execution attachment was issued by David Short against Annie Butler, garnishing John W. and W. T. Griffiths as garnishees.

The report of the commissioner in the divorce case of Robert B. against Nellie Pollitt was filed. Pollitt avers that he and his wife lived happily until Ernest Johnston came to board with them.

Commissioner W. C. Anderson filed his report in the case of Mary Pferr against Harry P. Pferr, a piano tuner. Mrs. Pferr says Pferr commenced assault and abuse her almost immediately after their marriage day.

Suit was entered by the Rev. John Jelinck against H. A. Schauffler of Braddock for $5,000 damages for alleged slander. The plaintiff alleges that the defendant said that he was on intimate terms with Mrs. Anna Kolesar.

Executions were issued as follows: William Campbell & Co. vs. Edwin G. Diehl, $400; the Iron City Sash Company vs. John P. McIntyre & Co., $246; Heller & Perrin vs. Bomstein & Cohen, $126; R. Caplan vs. Bomstein & Cohen, $52; H. Frishman & Co. vs. Bomstein & Cohen, $126.

The will of Mrs. Martha Wilmot of this city was filed by Attorney W. L. Monroe. Rose A. Morrison, a daughter, is left property at Bouquet and Wilmot streets, also in Ward street. Robert M. Wilmot, a son, is given property in Bouquet street, and the residue of the estate goes to the children of the testatrix.

John Andrews sued the Pittsburgh, Beaseme & Lake Erie Railroad Company for $5,000 damages for injuries received by his 5-year-old son, Charles Andrews. The child was struck by a train of the defendant company at a crossing on a Patton township road. It is alleged that no warning was given of the train's approach.

The will of Matilda Jane Vance of Harrison township was filed. The decedent's three children get the personal estate, and her husband the income from property in Harrison township. At his death the property is to be sold, and from the fund the Presbyterian church at Tarentum gets $300; Violet A. Cooper, a daughter, $900, and the residue to the decedent's three children.

The Union Railroad Company is defendant in a suit in which Moses Lecuya asks $10,000 damages for personal injuries. The plaintiff is a brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and alleges that while shifting cars at the junction of the two roads, an engineer employed by the defendant company disregarded signals, whereupon the following in which he was severely injured.

SAVING AND SAFETY.

The Simple Solution of a Difficult Problem.

Saving money doesn't depend so much upon large earnings as it does upon keeping down expenses. Bring your expenditures below your income and place the balance in the Pennsylvania Trust Company, which has a capital and surplus of $800,000 and pays 4 per cent, compound interest, and you will have solved the problem of saving and safety. You can begin with $1.00. 410 Smithfield street is the location.

AN ORDINANCE—Authorizing the city recorder to enter into an agreement with S. C. Farrar to pay the said S. C. Farrar the sum of seven hundred thirty-two and fifty hundredths dollars ($732.50) in full of damages to the property of the said S. C. Farrar, located on the north side of Clayton avenue, resulting from the widening and change of grade of said Clayton avenue.

Section 1. Be it ordained and enacted by the select and common councils of the city of Allegheny, and it is hereby ordained and enacted by the authority of the same.

Whereas, By the authority of the laws of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the city of Allegheny opened, widened and changed the grade of Clayton avenue, and upon the petition of the city of Allegheny, viewers were appointed at No. 148 August term, 1900, to assess the benefits and damages for the said improvements, and

Whereas, The said viewers, as appears by their report filed at the above number and term, awarded the said S. C. Farrar on his property located on the north side of Clayton avenue, with benefits in the sum of nine hundred seventy-eight ($978.00) dollars, and awarded him damages in the sum of one thousand seven hundred ten and fifty hundredths ($1,710.50) dollars, and

Whereas, The time for filing exceptions and taking appeals from the report of the said viewers has passed and the said report of the said viewers and exceptions filed thereto and appeals taken therefrom, has not yet been confirmed absolutely by the court, and

Whereas, Neither the said S. C. Farrar nor the city of Allegheny has filed exceptions to nor taken appeals from the action of the board of viewers so far as relates to the assessment of benefits and damages against the property of the said S. C. Farrar, and

Whereas, The net damages so assessed as aforesaid, are equitable, just, reasonable and adequate, and satisfactory to both the said S. C. Farrar and the city of Allegheny, and the said S. C. Farrar is unable to dispose of his property until the matter is finally determined or a contract entered into between him and the said city, agreeing that the said damages shall be paid to the said S. C. Farrar as soon as this report of the board of viewers, or any other subsequent report that may be filed, shall be confirmed absolutely, now, therefore

PITTSBURGH BANKS FIFTH IN BIG BANKS

MORE GOLD IS GOING OUT

Gates Said to Be Assured of Control of Colorado Fuel and Iron—Shortage of Pig Iron Next Year Still Looked For.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 28.—According to the statements filed with the comptroller of the currency there are 127 national banks in the United States that can show gross deposits in excess of $5,000,000. Of that number 35 are in New York city, 12 in Boston, 12 in Philadelphia, 10 in Chicago, 3 in Pittsburgh, 6 in St. Louis, 3 each in Kansas City, Denver, Cincinnati, Indianapolis, San Francisco, Detroit and St. Paul; 2 each in Milwaukee, Albany, Baltimore, Minneapolis, Omaha, Cleveland and New Orleans, and one each in Buffalo, Scranton, Jersey City, Portland (Ore.), Washington, Pueblo, Duluth, Newark and Brooklyn.

It is interesting to note that a majority of the New York banks show a falling off in deposits between the dates of the last two calls of the comptroller of the currency (April 30-June 16). Most of the interior banks appear to have gained in deposits.

Canadian Steel Corporation.

The organization of the Canadian Steel Corporation, with a capital of $18,000,000, has been completed, and the bonds of the concern will be offered to the public soon. A. MacRobert Irving, together with W. P. Mitchell of the firm of Redick, Mitchell & Co. are the active representatives of the syndicate that will take up the bonds which are being underwritten in New York, London, Montreal and Toronto. The company receives its charter direct from the Canadian government, together with a bonus of $5,000,000. Plans and estimates have been made by the engineering firm of, E. M. Butz & Co. of Pittsburgh, insuring the completion of the plant within a year.

Pig Iron Shortage.

Notwithstanding the bulletin of the American Iron and Steel association shows that the production of pig iron in the first six months of the current year was 8,808,674 gross tons, against 7,674,613 tons in the corresponding period of last year, a gain of 1,133,961 tons, many manufacturers continue of the opinion that the output this year will fall short of satisfying the wants of the finishing mills. It is because of this prospective shortage that prices are soaring.

The finishing mills have booked sufficient business to keep their plants busy for months ahead and appear willing to pay the prices asked in order to assure the fulfillment of contracts. Consumers seem to be satisfied with the price of $17 and $18 a ton established by southern iron manufacturers. Orders are reported to be coming in more rapidly than anticipated.

There is considerable speculation as to the amount of pig iron that will be produced this year. Some time ago it was estimated that the output would be in the neighborhood of 18,000,000 tons. However, strikes and inadequate transportation facilities have cut deeply into production and the foregoing estimate, according to many manufacturers, is likely to be scaled considerably. The new furnaces that have been started, or that will start before the close of the year, will offset to a large extent the loss through strikes and other causes. If the output during the last half of the year is equal to that of the first six months the furnaces will produce something like 17,000,000 tons in the 12 months.

Gates Said to Have Secured Control.

Colorado Fuel and Iron was a feature of the stock market in the afternoon trading. The closing of 101¾ represented a net gain of 4⅜ points. The belief prevailed that the rise was due to buying for control by the two factions, Osgood and Gates. As the books close on July 31 for the annual meeting, it will be necessary to have in hand by that date the stock which is to be voted. A director of the company today said that control by the Gates party is practically assured.

Gold Shipments.

A factor in depressing prices in the market today was the announcement of heavy gold engagements to Europe. About $3,700,000 was engaged for shipment. About $2,000,000 of this goes "in transit" to Germany from the National City bank. The rest of the shipment goes to Paris. It is said still another shipment of at least $1,000,000 is under advisement.

Fifty-Year Ore Supply Wanted.

Officials of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company admit that they are looking around for additional ore properties to make the company more secure. It is generally estimated that the company's Belle Isle ore deposits contain between 20 and 30 years' supply of high-grade phosphorus ore, but the management is desirous of providing at least a 50-year ore supply. With this end in view, it has secured the exclusive right to take over ore from the Barrachois property, about 10 miles from Cape Breton. It pays a royalty of 10 cents a ton, guaranteeing a certain minimum of tonnage.

Steel Business at High Pressure.

There are still no indications of a slackening in the demand for the product of the steel plate mills, the volume of orders continuing as great as ever. Mill owners report that so far as their information goes, every mill in the country is not only running at its full capacity, but is crowded with orders. The price situation remains undisturbed and steel plate producers expect it to remain so indefinitely.

NEWS FROM THE MINES

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 28.—Three years ago several Philadelphians obtained control of five or six old producing mines in the Silver City district, Ida. None of the mines had been worked to a greater depth than 800 feet, and it was decided to tunnel War Eagle mountain so as to strike the veins 1,600 feet below the old workings. The big bore, which is called the Sinker tunnel, was driven 6,300 feet before anything like pay ore was encountered. Then a small streak of quartz was discovered on the south wall. A drift was started on this streak, which has widened to a ledge of seven feet, carrying ore that yields several hundred dollars of gold to the ton. The tunnel has 800 feet more to go before the veins of the old producers will be struck.

The Consolidated Mines Company, operating at Hawthorne, Nev., has decided to invest $750,000 in a mill, cyanide plant, water works and electric plant, Washington.

A dispatch from Aberdeen, N. M., says the new steam hoist has been installed on the Blue Bird of the Aberdeen Copper Company and sinking is proceeding with three shifts. Ore is being taken from the bottom of the shaft that carries 80 per cent, $20 gold and 40 ounces silver to the ton.

In the Tallyho, Wedekind district, Nev., a body of ore has been struck at a depth of 300 feet that assays $300 a ton. It is claimed there is over 50,000 tons in sight.

The lawsuit involving title to the Buffalo Hump group in Idaho county, Ida., has been settled out of court. It is understood the Buffalo Hump Company secures full title to the group, which is now valued at $1,000,000.

New strikes are reported almost daily in the Portland at Cripple Creek. The mine is shipping from 275 to 300 tons a day, and, according to a statement by President Burns, has more in sight at present than any other mine in Colorado.

The Metal Market.

The feature of metals today was an advance of £1 15s in the foreign price of tin, rumored to be due to speculative manipulation. The London market closed at £128 10s and futures at £126 10s. In the local market, while there was a slight gain in prices and a firm undertone, trade ruled very dull. Spot closed at $28 45@28 70. Copper locally was dull and a trifle lower on some grades. Standard, spot to August, closed at $11 30@11 55; lake, $11 75@11 85; electrolytic, $11 75@11 85; casting, $11 65@11 75. The English price declined 2s 6d, spot closing at £5 12s 6d. No changes were recorded in lead either in tons or price at home. London declined 1s 3d, closing at £11 1s 3d. Spelter at London advanced 2s 6d, spot closing at £25 12s 6d. There was no change here from $5 37½. English iron markets fell away slightly, Glasgow closing at 56s 2d and Middlesboro at 51s. Locally there were no alterations from last week's basis. Warrants were nominal; No. 1 foundry, northern, $22 00@23 00; No. 2 foundry, northern, $22 00@23 00; No. 1 foundry, southern, $22 00@23 00; No. 1 foundry, southern soft, $22 00@23 00.

MONEY MARKET HAS BAD EFFECT ON SPECULATORS

ROCK ISLAND TAKES DROP

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, July 28.—The speculation flattened out to a marked degree in today's stock market, and the latter part of the day offered a degree of activity scarcely above the usual midsummer dullness. Before noon there was an enormous amount of realizing accomplished, which was credited to the western operators, who have long been conspicuous in the market. Unless it is considered that the resources of the money market threaten to become constricted, there was no obvious cause for the weakness. It is forcefully borne in upon the minds of speculators apparently that the unexpected proportions of the gold engagements for tomorrow's steamer give fair ground for some careful calculation as to the sufficiency of money supplies to go around. Today's engagements for tomorrow's steamer amounted in round to $3,775,000.

Speculator's Loans Called.

Last week's bank statement showed that speculative borrowings were fully keeping pace with the increase in reserve resources, and when loan contraction begins it is inevitably the speculative borrowers that are first called upon to pay. It is a question of only a short time now, also, when the movement of currency to the interior will be resumed. The movement early in the month was obviously due to the requirements of the corn speculation, but the real demand for moving the crops is yet to be met, and all opinions agree that the money movement will be heavy this year, in view of the large crops expected and the unusual activity of business in all departments. From outside sources came a few belated suggestions of financial deals, but they were without effect on prices. The slump in Rock Island is believed to have been awakened some questioning about the benefit to accrue from some of the projects proposed, which provide nearly always for practically converting stocks into foreclosure liabilities, with new stock to come after with voting power, but with questionable chances for dividends, thus making their holding for control cheap.

U. S. Steel Depressed.

The reports of the illness of the president of the United States Steel Corporation, although denied, had a slightly depressing effect, and were supplemented by rumors that the king of England was also not so well. London bought stocks here, however, and reported relief from the settlement was proceeding without failures. Some points of strength was proceeding without failures. Some points of strength still remained in the market, notably Norfolk & Western, the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie stocks, Amalgamated Copper and Colorado Fuel. The market made considerable recovery during the latter part of the day, but there was nothing like an entire revival of last week's animation. The closing was irregular.

Dealings in bonds were of unimportant proportions and the tone was irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,305,000. United States bonds were unchanged on the last call.

The Week Opens Dull in Wall Street

Talked About in Wall Street

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, July 29.—The Herald this (Tuesday) morning says: The stock market yesterday made a not unnatural response to the unfavorable impression created in banking circles by the Rock Island financial plan. In addition to this the heavy gold engagements of $3,700,000, the $10,000,000 loan expansion shown by the associated banks in Saturday's statement of averages and significant hardening of time money unsettled sentiment and led to a sharp reaction in the early trading. An irregular recovery followed later on, but much of the "snap" had gone out of the market; the volume of business showed a decided curtailment and the stories of rumored deals lost much of their force.

* * *

The course of the market yesterday showed rather conclusively that the reaction has not recruited much of a public following. All the wild stories of deals and buying for control have apparently fallen on dull ears. Were it otherwise the early sharp reaction must have resulted in much more extensive liquidation than was brought forth. The public apparently has been a seller rather than a buyer on the advance. As it was, the liquidation by outside interests was very moderate. The trading element aided the early decline by short sales, and helped to rally the market later by covering their contracts.

* * *

A distinct disposition to shift activity into other quarters was noted in the later trading. Industrials and specialties in the railroad group, which have been long neglected, were moved into prominence, and on the surface, at least, it appeared as though the manipulative forces were eager to direct attention for the time being from the inflated railroad shares. These have been brought under too strong a light by the Rock Island development to obtain even a speculative following now, and so lower-priced issues and industrials were pushed forward.

* * *

London prices came generally higher before the local opening, though later advices reported a sharp decline for Americans in the London market, due to selling from New York. Foreign houses traded on both sides of the market during the day, buying moderately on balances. Prices started off firm and with some show of activity at the local opening, but before the end of the first half hour the entire list had weakened, led by an eight-point break in Rock Island and the very early announcement of the heavy gold engagement.

AN OLD REPORT GETS THE USUAL DENIAL

Vanderbilt Interests Will Observe South Penn Agreement and Not Extend Beech Creek to the City.

The old report of the extension of the Beech Creek railroad to Pittsburgh by its owner, the New York Central railroad, has again been revived, based upon the purchase of considerable property in southern Armstrong county by interests supposed to be connected with the New York Central. The revived report is discountenanced by railroad officials in a position to know the inner history of this plan.

"By the old South Penn agreement the Vanderbilt interests are kept from entering Pittsburgh from the east," an executive official of the Pennsylvania, said yesterday. "There is absolutely no valid basis for this report. The relations between the Pennsylvania and the Vanderbilt interests are entirely harmonious, and there is no disposition on the part of the Vanderbilts to disturb this relation. How close the interests are is shown by the railroads in this section they own jointly. These are the Pittsburgh, Chartiers & Youghiogheny, owned half by the Pennsylvania and half by the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, a Vanderbilt line; and the Monongahela railroad, the new line now being built into the Klondike region of Fayette and Greene counties, jointly by the Pennsylvania and the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie.

It is undoubted that there will be much construction of railroad lines in Indiana and Armstrong counties in the near future, in order to develop the valuable coal deposits there. In this case the lines will be either owned by the coal companies and connect with the railroads within reach or be branches of the present lines, the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh especially. There has been some talk of the Wabash being connected with the various surveys and purchases reported from that section, but it cannot be confirmed.

Local Stocks Were Fairly Active, but Several Suffered Reactions

MARSDEN LED DAY'S DEALINGS, BUT AT A LOSS

The Westinghouse Electric Seconds Opened Higher, but Closed Lower.

WINDOW GLASS DECLINED

...d Trust Stocks Steady—The ...ues Were Quiet, but Firm. ...fing Was Active and ...r—Coalers were Quiet.

The market on the Pittsburgh stock exchange yesterday was fairly active and somewhat irregular, several of the recent favorites suffering losses at or near the close. The most active stock was Marsden common, which sold for the first time in two weeks, and for a much longer period as to quantity. The price opened at 3⅝, and on sales of 1,100 shares declined to 3⅜, which is the previous low point. Afterward a small lot sold at 3½, leaving the day's loss only ¼. There is a great deal of this stock held by Pittsburghers and not a few believe it will yet prove a valuable investment. The issues of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company showed more than the usual activity, the seconds selling over 500 shares. At the opening they were strong and advanced from 107 to 107¾. Near the last hour they reacted and closed finally at 106, a loss for the day of ¾. The firsts sold 25 shares at 109, an advance of 1½, and 108 was bid for more, with 110 asked. Westinghouse Airbrake was very dull, but about ¼ higher at 183 for 5 shares. There were no regular quotations. American Window Glass common was fairly active, 700 shares selling. The opening was firmer at 60¾, but later the stock broke to 60, and finally closed at 60¼ sales and 60⅝ bid. The close was a loss of ½. The preferred was very dull, only 22 shares selling. The closing price, 92½, was paid for but 2 shares and was a loss of $1. Fire Proofing common was quite active and firm. It opened and closed at 32½, but in the meantime advanced to 33⅜ and declined to 32⅜. The gain at the windup was ¼. The bulls are dipping the ends for 40, but the real purchasers and sellers are evidently hiding their hands. The steel issues were quiet but steady to firm, the price changes being comparatively small. Bank and trust shares were generally steady to firm, but quiet. The coaling stocks were also dull and without material change. Brewing and Philadelphia Company issues were in the same condition. Bonds were dull but steady.

PITTSBURGH FEATURES.

1,110 Marsden sold. Closed at 3½.

The following is a complete summary of yesterday's official transactions on the Pittsburgh stock exchange. It shows the change in the closing prices, compared with the last preceding sales, the total sales of each security, the opening, high, low and closing prices and final bids and offers.

FINANCIAL DRIFT.

Hill & Co. were the principal buyers of Pittsburgh Coal common.

The George A. Fuller Construction Company has bought the Passaic rolling mills at Paterson, N. J., for $1,500,000.

The first trade posted was 25 Commonwealth Real Estate and Trust Company at 230. The last was 100 Fire Proofing common at 32½.

So far as the brokers names were connected there was nothing significant one way or the other about the trading in Fire Proof common.

The Rock Island directors will meet today and it is expected that an official announcement will be made of the plan for so financing the road.

Sproul & Co. were the heavy sellers to Marsden common, disposing of 3,100 during the forenoon Harbour selling 500 at 3⅝ and Holmes 600 at 3⅞. This is the first trade in the stock in weeks.

M. D. Ullery, floor representative for Whitney & Stephenson, has returned from an outing on the lakes and at Put-in-Bay. C. T. Hoag of Hoag & Grier, and R. C. Lowe returned from Atlantic City.

Hill & Co. and Robinson Bros. were large sellers of Westinghouse Electric seconds at the opening. Speer & Co. and Makin also sold. These sellers turned buyers near the close, when the stock was cheaper.

The terms offered by the General Electric Company to holders of Sprague Electric Company securities having been accepted by holders of 74 per cent of the capital stock and 88 per cent of the bonds, President Markle, of the Sprague company, declares that the sale to the General Electric Company has become operative. The General Electric Company has deposited the cash necessary to carry out the contract with the United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York.

Dividends.

Pere Marquette has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent on the preferred stock, payable August 15.

The Westinghouse Brake Company of London has declared the usual semi-annual dividend at the rate of 20 per cent per annum.

The directors of the Calumet & Hecla Mining Company have declared a dividend of $5 a share. Three months ago $5 was paid. This dividend is the first of the fiscal year beginning May 1, 1902. In its last fiscal year the company paid $45; in the year ended April 30, 1901, $65; April 30, 1900, $80.

Wall Street Brokers' "Tips."

There is no need to be frightened by gold exports, as we shall probably not ship any more gold this season than we receive from Europe.

There is pool support in Colorado Fuel, New York Central and Norfolk. It looks as if there might be buying of Colorado Fuel & Iron for control.

We continue to feel cautiously bullish on the situation and believe Atchison and some of the low-priced stocks can be safely bought for a rise.—Lounsbery.

A director says that it is doubtful if the plan to readjust Rock Island's affairs will be announced today.

In stocks where their is no pool manipulation or no deals contemplated the tone is heavy. For example Pennsylvania and Chesapeake & Ohio. In the latter stock the pool which announced with a brass band two weeks ago that they intended putting the stock up are selling it. Some of the general list is heavy and there is probably a short interest being created.

Unrecordede Quotations.

For Republic National bank 113 was bid.

South Side Trust Company offered at 111.

Hall offered 41 Franklin Steel Casting at 72. Orangeville National bank was quoted at 112 bid and 114 asked.

W. A. McCutcheon bid 92½ for North American Savings Company.

BIG CRACKER FACTORY TO BE ON SCHOOL SITE

Daniel Maginn Buys Lot from St. Peter's Church, Allegheny for $30,000.

FT. WAYNE INVESTS $60,000

East End Residence Bought For $18,000—Auction Sale of Allegheny Hotel Postponed—Contractors Are Busy With New Buildings.

Daniel Maginn of the firm of E. Maginn, cracker and candy manufacturers of Allegheny, has purchased from St. Peter's Roman Catholic church a property on the north side of Washington street, Allegheny, for $30,000. The property has been occupied for years by a parochial school and convent. It is situated a few doors east of the park and consists of a lot 130x175 feet, on which are erected two three-story brick buildings. One of these measures 40x70 feet and the other 40x50 feet. The purchaser has already awarded the contract to D. F. Crawford for remodeling these buildings for manufacturing purposes. He has also given the contract to the same party for the erection of a four-story brick building 44x80 feet, which will be erected on the Washington street front. The three buildings will be connected so that they will make a large cracker manufactory. New machinery is to be installed throughout, and the plant will be one of the best in the city.

Old Site Goes to Ft. Wayne.

The present location of the Maginn factory is at Nos. 15 and 17 Church avenue, Allegheny, on a lot 88x95 feet. The sale of this property to the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago Railroad Company has been practically consummated, the consideration being about $90,000. The firm will probably remain in its present quarters until January 1, according to arrangement with the railroad.

Through Samuel W. Black & Co. D. W. Pershing has disposed of a fine residence at No. 317 Graham street for $18,000 cash. The property is located between Friendship avenue and Harriet street, Twentieth ward, and has a frontage of 50 feet with a depth of 140 feet to a 20-foot alley. The residence is a new center-hall brick house containing 12 rooms and will be occupied by the purchaser as a home.

Another auction sale of Allegheny property failed to get a new owner for it yesterday. The property in question is known as the Hotel Wilson, and is located at No. 24 Lacock street a short distance east of Federal street. The hotel is a good four-story brick building standing on a lot 24x100 feet. It is owned by Charles Schutte and is occupied by Charles Wilson. The highest bid received was $20,250, and the auction was postponed until August 4.

New Contractor Gets Big Job.

W. F. Wood, until recently superintendent for the firm of William Miller & Sons, contractors, has established himself in the contracting business and has been awarded the contract for the R. P. Duff warehouse in Penn avenue, near Ninth street. The building was designed by Architect James T. Steen and will cost about $100,000. The same architect has awarded James Wherry & Co. of Allegheny the contract for the erection of three 12-room center-hall brick houses in Shady avenue for Robert Hartley. The cost is estimated at $35,000.

Architect F. J. Osterling has awarded the contract to William Miller & Sons for a three-story brick annex to the hospital at Woodville, Pa. The building will cost $43,000.

Architects Rutan & Russell have given the contract to Henry Shenk for a two-story brick and stone office building to be erected for the Standard Steel Car Company at Butler and to cost $22,000.

Architects Milligan & Miller have given the contract to C. A. Graham for the United Brethren church at Wilkinsburg. The church will be built at the corner of South and Cole streets and will cost $15,000. The same architects have awarded the contract to C. Vaner for a brick and stone residence for W. J. Rothweiler, in Bennett street.

School House Contracts.

The following contracts have been awarded by E. J. Carlisle & Co. on the new school building in Baldwin township: Shee Bros., Knoxville, general contract; Bealor Manufacturing Company, steam heating plant; George Baker, Mt. Washington, brick work; George H. Fink, Mt. Oliver, stone work. The building will cost $20,000.

Architect C. L. Peoples is preparing plans for a brick and stone school building to be erected at the corner of Andrew and Martha streets, Munhall borough, at a cost of about $5,000.

Architects Mueller & East have awarded the contract to Andrew Hober for St. Michaels Russian Catholic church at McKees Rocks, to cost $4,000.

Architect F. C. Schleibler has plans for a four-story store and hall building, 40 x70 feet, to be erected in McClure avenue, Allegheny. The owner is a leading Allegheny merchant and the building will cost $15,000.

Architects A. Dudgeon & Son, Wilkinsburg, have plans for two $4,000 apartment houses in the Brushton district.

Architect J. E. Obitz is remodeling the plans for a 10-room brick residence for Mrs. A. Schaub in Shetland avenue, to cost $6,500.

Desirable Lots.

The public sale of lots in the Arcadia plan, Baldwin township, on Saturday was a decided success. Over 100 lots were disposed of at prices ranging from $225 to $300 each. About 200 of the 558 lots have now been sold. The plan is being handled by C. Baltensperger, Jr., who is arranging to build 15 $2,000 frame houses early in the fall.

The agreements have been signed in the sale of a business property in Allegheny, the consideration being reported at $55,000. The deal is credited to the United Realty Trust Company, but the particulars are withheld pending the delivery of the deeds.

Haas & Laulnger have sold to the Dover Printing Company of Merrill, Mass., a lot 96x165 feet at the corner of Eleventh street and Ridge avenue, West park, McKees Rocks. The company will improve the property with a three-story printing establishment to cost $15,000.

Herron avenue: J. H. O'Donnell sold for W. H. Sykes to Charles E. Barrett an irregular shaped lot having a frontage of 107 feet in Herron avenue, near Anderson street, for $6,500.

In the Extreme East End.

Hampton place: J. R. Wylie sold for D. W. Kuhn to Mrs. Isabella Connell an eight-room brick house, lot 35x100 feet, on the north side of Todd street, Hampton place, for $6,250. The same broker sold for the Hampton Land and Improvement Company to Nannie J. Stewart a lot, 25x35x105 feet, on the west side of Hampton avenue, for $1,980.

Wilkinsburg: R. S. Faris & Co. sold for A. W. Duff and D. H. Walker to J. Obernauer an eight-room brick house, lot 30x110 feet, on the west side of Duquesne avenue, near Braddock avenue, Wilkinsburg, for $4,200.

Bellevue: The Allegheny Real Estate Trust Company sold for the Glassport Land Company to William Schaub a lot in Iowa avenue, Glassport, for $200. Also for the Pittsburgh and Homestead Land Company three lots in Armor avenue, New Homestead, to Henry L. Kerwin, for $675.

More Sales in Fifth Avenue.

Fifth avenue: Michael Kearney sold to Louis Martin an improved lot, 21x120 feet, on the north side of Fifth avenue, near Spring street, Fourteenth ward, for $6,500.

John street: Rees Jenkins sold to Sarah J. McCaskey an improved lot, 24x101 feet, in John street, near Junilla street, Thirteenth ward, for $2,600.

Fifth avenue: William L. Jones sold to George W. Jones a lot, 50x160 feet, in Fifth avenue, extending through to Henry street, Fourteenth ward, for $1,800.

Frankstown avenue: Rachel Pearson sold to Allen P. Berlin of Slatington, Pa., an improved lot, 22.5x95 feet, on the south side of Frankstown avenue, near Singer street, Thirty-seventh ward, for $4,000.

Penn avenue: Samuel B. Oberhelman sold to John W. Taylor a one-sixteenth interest in a property, 32x100 feet, on the north side of Penn avenue, near Seventeenth street, Tenth ward, and another property, 24x120 feet, in Smallman street, Twelfth ward, for $965.

The following building permits were taken out in Allegheny yesterday: To George Reeg, brick three-story hotel at No. 922 Middle street, Third ward, to cost $7,500; to Catharine J. Johnston, frame two-story and attic dwelling in Oak Grove avenue, Eleventh ward, to cost $3,000; to the United Presbyterian Orphans' home, repairs to building on West Jefferson street, Second ward, to cost $2,500.

AFTER MEN FOR NAVY.

Detail Opens Headquarters in Government Building and Hopes For Many Recruits.

A detail of officers, under the command of Lieutenant Commander J. G. Quimby, United States navy, yesterday opened a recruiting office on the fourth floor of the Federal building, where for the next five days applications will be received for enlistment in the United States navy.

The success of the recruiting detail for the navy that visited this city last fall, by which some 50 or 60 first-class men were obtained, has induced the officers to make another visit with the hope of obtaining some good machinists, mechanics, two druggists, who must be graduates of a school of pharmacy, and who are paid $60 per month; hospital apprentices, landsmen for training ships and apprentice boys for the training school at Newport.

The applicants must pass a physical examination, and be able to read and write English. The landsmen must be from 18 to 25 years old, and apprentices from 15 to 18 years old. The term of enlistment varies with the grades; landsmen enlist for four years and apprentice during minority.

Elevated Trains Collide.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A head-on collision occurred today between two trains of the Brooklyn elevated railroad on Adams street, which resulted in the derailing of six cars. Godfrey Moore and Henry Moore were pinioned beneath the wreckage and probably fatally hurt.

PITTSBURGH IS CALLED UPON FOR CHORUS GIRLS

SEEKING LOCAL BEAUTIES

Augustus McCune Calls At Duquesne Garden Only To Find That Thirty of the Favorites of That Company Go With "Foxy Quiller."

There is a shortage in the crop of chorus girls and Pittsburgh is called on to help out the country. Augustus McCune, representing Wagonhals & Kemper, who are to start next fall, in connection with Louis James and Frederick Ward, a magnificent production of "The Tempest," is in Pittsburgh and wants 40 chorus girls.

The first place Mr. McCune struck for was Duquesne garden, and he made a call on his friend, Jack Reynolds, to see if the Duquesne Opera Company had any girls that could be spared in the near future. He said that the shortage of chorus girls was a serious problem in New York, and managers were making desperate efforts to secure a sufficient number for the opening of theatrical season in the fall.

Mr. McCune was much disappointed to learn that he could not secure the girls desired from the Duquesne Garden Company, as 30 of them have already signed for the season with the "Foxy Quiller" Company.

The scarcity of eligible chorus girls is felt all over the country, according to Mr. McCune, and the shortage has caused the wages called for in the girls' contracts to be raised from $12 and $15 per week to $20 and $25.

The theatrical men lay the blame for the present scarcity of pretty girls with fairly good voices, who are in such general demand for chorus work, to the fact that nearly all the modern productions are carrying large choruses. Companies like the Rogers Bros., "Floradora" and other favorites of the last year or two carry from two to three times as many persons as used to be the rule, and a large proportion of their members are the girls who constitute the chorus.

There is at present a pronounced opening in theatrical work for the young woman who is possessed of sufficient physical beauty to be put in the "front row," and at the same time is able to sing well enough for chorus work, which does not require a very high order of musical education.

In fact, inasmuch as the choruses are becoming a most important factor in the success of the latter-day theatrical productions, the managers are often willing to engage a young lady for her beauty alone, and hope that the audience in looking at her will forget that she cannot sing.

Mr. McCune is now looking for a new field, as his chorus girls must be in New York for rehearsals by August 7.

IS A REGULAR SVENGALI.

"Creatore" Has Been Engaged to Appear at Coming Pittsburgh Exposition With His Band.

The great "Creatore" and his band have been engaged for appearance at the new Pittsburgh exposition, thus completing the list of the coming season's music attractions. At Philadelphia last Friday, in the hall of the Musical Fund society, "Creatore" arranged a special concert for the benefit of Manager T. J. Fitzpatrick. The program was a choice one, and so impressed Mr. Fitzpatrick that a contract for the Pittsburgh appearance was closed forthwith.

"Creatore," as band director, is the most unique personality seen for years. He is full of energy and dash; has the entire band repertoire at his finger's ends, wherefore he is able to direct absolutely without score; and he fairly hypnotizes his players into performing, as his fiery temperament dictates. He, in truth, is the "Svengali" of the band world.

In addition to the regular soloists of the band "Creatore" will have with him Mme. Barili, a noted colorature soprano, who will appear at each concert in high-class solos.

SECURE IMPROVEMENTS.

Now Citizens Enjoin Commissioners from Taking Them for Cost.

AKRON, O., July 28.—(Special.)—Saturday the commissioners were enjoined from letting contracts for a steel viaduct at a cost of $25,000 and today another suit was filed to enjoin the commissioners from entering upon the tax duplicate the cost of the improvement of Wolff street.

The residents of the street are the petitioners and they waited until the street was improved before they brought suit to enjoin the city from the collection of taxes. Judge Kohler granted a temporary injunction.

SPAIN FOLLOWS AMERICA.

Sagasta's Negotiations With the Vatican on School Question Drags.

MADRID, July 28.—Premier Sagasta states that negotiations with the vatican regarding the schools conducted by the religious associations are progressing very slowly, and that if they are not finished by October the government will take other steps.

"Spain, following the example of the United States, cannot yield on the religious question," said Senor Sagasta.

R·I·PANS

I suffered from sick headache, constipation and indigestion and was recommended to try Ripans Tabules. Since using them I have been free from those complaints.

At Druggists.
